About the Presenters

Maggie Malaney, B.A., is a graduate of the University of South Carolina with a degree in psychology and a certified victim service provider. Due to her interest in trauma work, Maggie began volunteering for Sexual Trauma Services of the Midlands (STSM) as a hospital/hotline advocate in June 2015 and became a full-time staff member in October 2015. As the Trafficking Survivor Advocate, Maggie provides crisis intervention, intensive case management, legal and personal advocacy for survivors of sex trafficking and sexual assault. She also provides community outreach to create awareness for human sex trafficking.

Alek Dolge, BSW, MSW, is a graduate of the University of South Carolina. Alek's passion for human trafficking stems from a volunteer experience with an anti-human trafficking organization six years ago in Atlanta, Georgia. This led Alek to return to her hometown of Columbia, South Carolina where she began her education in the field of social work and became involved in anti-human trafficking efforts. In September 2015, Alek became a part-time Richland County CASA Anti-Human Trafficking Project Coordinator with Sexual Trauma Ser. Alek is passionate about this social issue and influencing system change that will end trafficking.
