

 scstateparks Hunting Island #SCStateParks was greatly affected by Hurricane Irma earlier this week. The majority of damage stems from flooding caused by the storm surge and heavy rains. Roads are impassable, parking areas are flooded, and the campground took on feet of water, which damaged the electric system and utilities. Because of this, the majority of the park will be closed for the remainder of 2017. The Nature Center will reopen this Friday, Sept. 15 to provide information about the park. If you have a reservation at Hunting Island, you will be contacted and issued a full refund. For up-to-date information on Hunting Island's recovery, please type <http://bit.ly/2e6gXJY> into your browser. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we work toward reopening.

morgantbaird What about the lighthouse?
at 18:53:30 on 9/13/2017 UTC

richards_jm It may be time to return most of Hunting island to a nature preserve and day use only on the beach and around the lighthouse....
