Hope everyone is having a great Monday! Think about your state park adventures over the summer. What is your favorite state park memory from SUMMER 2010?

English Purcell Givhans!! Camping, tubing and swimming on the Edisto River!

Katherine M. Long So far it would be this past weekend at Lake Wateree. It was so quiet & peaceful. We didn't have much luck fishing, but it was still an enjoyable experience with my husband, my 3 girls & myself. We'll be traveling to Santee over the Labor Day weekend with many more family members. We're hoping to relax, catch some fish & enjoy the last long weekend of summer.

Gregory Pratt Well...tough one. Many to chose from. I think maybe the owl encounter at Lee. That was pretty special.

Kirk Smith Kayaking and biking out of Baker Creek State Park on the Little River Blueway (www.LittleRiverBlueway.org) and of course the Blueway Music Jam held at the park. Best overall experience... Paddling to within 20 yards of a bald eagle sitting on a point near the Baker Creek boat ramp.

Jean McCarter Nelson Took my grandson, Donovan and 3 of his friends camping. Two of the boys had never been tent camping before, never made smors either. I laughed all night. Lets just say late night fire and 4 boys between ages 11 and 14 need I say more. Found marshmallows in everything for 2 weeks after. They want to go again.

Daylin Torricella Silber Lilyfest at Landsford Canal State Park. Even though the lilies weren't in bloom, it was a great day, with live music, picnicking and exploring on the river. Our family had a great time.

Rachel Power The baby Loggerhead turtles making their way to the wide open ocean at Edisto.... nature sure can put on an unforgettable show. Edisto is my place of peace & contemplation.
