I tried today and Paris Mountain State Park was at capacity! What does that mean? It is a large park. Why has Walmart/Target/Lowe's/Home Depot not hit capacity ever! Biggest joke ever and it was on us!

We are limiting capacity at this time. When we reach a certain number of cars in the park, we close the gates. If you have further questions you may contact the park, or contact our park operations on Wednesday at 803-734-0156.

As big as the parks are you are limiting cars. This makes absolutely no sense. The trails are the very definition of social distancing.
