Subject: Following up Myrtle Beach Downtown Redevelopment

Dear John Pedersen,

We have certainly had an interesting week of meetings. MyrtleBeachSC.com will broadcast this follow up about those meetings tomorrow:

A few of us locals did connect after the meetings adjourned today. Please know, our team truly meant what we emailed Mrs. Hawke yesterday.

Our beaches and our streets are our primary concern above and beyond any preferences of the city at this time.

Tom Steyer and allies will be watching all city, state, and US Government here in relationship to that NRDC website. Should colors quickly change in a public relations effort, the story to date will pale in comparison with what will come. The colors should only change when the numbers do.

I am open to talk tomorrow or Friday if anyone in local government can pry themselves away from any and all pressing corporate concerns.

AND John, I do expect an apology from you personally for the episode in council on Tuesday.

Sincerely,
