DAILY WASHINGTON NEWS

A farewell address, a news conference and White House change

WASHINGTON (AP) — The outgoing president somberly ruminated about the fragility of democracy and earnestly urged Americans to reject corrosive political dialogue. Fourteen hours later, the incoming president staged a defiant and confrontational news conference at his gilded New York City tower, dismissing critics, insulting reporters and likening the country's intentions to Nazis.

Q&A: How Trump says he'll break from his business

NEW YORK (AP) — Donald Trump says he is leaving his famed business behind. Well, sort of. That is the muddled message from the president-elect's news conference Wednesday about plans to separate himself from his business while in office and avoid conflicts of interest.
