Columbia, S.C. - As the weather is heating up, so is First Thursdays on Main. On Thursday, April 7, Boyd Plaza will be bustling with activities from a number of local organizations and the Columbia Museum of Art is hosting several events inside the building.

Style Wars: A Retrospective with The Dynamic Rockers features a free screening of the 1983 hip-hop documentary Style Wars with a special talkback with legendary hip-hop crew The Dynamic Rockers, who were featured in the film. Directed by Tony Silver and produced by Tony Silver and Henry Chalfant, Style Wars was awarded the Grand Prize for Documentaries at the 1983 Sundance Film Festival. This program is part of Love Peace & Hip-Hop's Hip-Hop Family Day. The film begins at 6:00 p.m.

CMA membership affiliate Friends of African American Art & Culture (FAAAC) hosts Sip and Scribble with FAAAC, a coloring book party featuring African-American art from the CMA collection, as well as art from Afrocentric coloring books. Jazz, soul, and Afrobeat music provide the background for the free event, which takes place from 6:00 - 9:00 p.m.

The CMA Shop hosts a trunk show with Hippy Do Da Creations. The free-spirited and bohemian-inspired handmade jewelry will be showcased from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

In addition to these events, the CMA will be offering $5 admission for the evening. In addition to our world-class collection, this includes admission to our featured exhibition REMIX: Themes and Variations in African-American Art, a groundbreaking exhibition that includes a wide variety of work dating from the early 20th century to the present. Discounted admission available from 5:00 - 8:00 p.m.

About the CMA

The Columbia Museum of Art is a charitable nonprofit organization dedicated to lifelong learning and community enrichment for all. Located in the heart of downtown Columbia, SC, CMA ranks among the leading art institutions in the country and is distinguished by its innovative exhibitions and creative educational programs. At the heart of the CMA and its programs is its collection, which encompasses nearly 7,000 works and spans thousands of years of history, representing a range of world cultures. Established in 1950, the CMA now welcomes more than 135,000 visitors annually and is a catalyst for community creativity, engaging people of all ages and backgrounds with a diverse spectrum of programming, from exhibitions and lectures to concerts, Arts & Draughts parties. It is the recipient of a National Art Education Association award for its contributions to arts education and an Elizabeth O'Neill Verner Governor's Award for the Arts for outstanding contributions to the arts in South Carolina.
