Hi Boyd,
I received your voice mail and have been researching the insurance account for Mr. McGill. From what I have determined so far is that Mr. McGill was retired and did not have the yearly deduction like other State Senators. The staff member that I spoke with did not know exactly how he paid his insurance premiums and instructed me to speak with Stephanie at the Office of Senate Finance to get the details. She was out of the office today so as soon as I hear from her I will share the information with you. In meantime, if you have any other questions, please call me.
Thank you,
Traci Rish
