Christmas Bells

I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old, familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And thought how, as the day had come,
The belfries of all Christendom
Had rolled along
The unbroken song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

Till, ringing, singing on its way,
The world revolved from night to day,
A voice, a chime,
A chant sublime
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

Then from each black, accursed mouth
The cannon thundered in the South,
And with the sound
The carols drowned
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And in despair I bowed my head;
"There is no peace on earth," I said;
"For hate is strong,
And mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!"

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep:
"God is not dead: nor doth he sleep!
The Wrong shall fail.
The Right prevail.
With peace on earth, good-will to men!"

Season's Greetings

"Our Christmas Prayer for You"

2014

There's a special joy at Christmas time that touches every heart,
Reminding us how much we care,
Whether near or far apart.
There's a special warmth at Christmas time we feel for family and friends,
Filling us with a sense of joy that truly never ends.
It's that time when we welcome back Christmas with traditions we hold dear,
With favorite Christmas ornaments we hang year after year...
It's that time to think of people we care about...
People like you, and how those friendships have a way of warming our hearts a new.

Lord bless those we love this Christmas
Be they near or far away
Bless good friends who mean so much
And those whom we're out of touch,
Bless them now and through the year
With simple joys, good will, and cheer.
We bring them all to you in prayer
And ask you keep them in your care.

We didn't ask for riches
But for gifts so much more dear.
We asked for joyful gatherings
With your family all around,
For carols to inspire you
With their old familiar sound.
We asked for friends to send their best
That might know they care,
We asked for peace and love and hope,
And we know God heard our prayer

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year!

Love,
