Most likely 2:00. The press shop is working on the details and will get them confirmed by NH on Jan. 4.

What time is the presser?

I'm fine with all of this.

Assuming Molly will be with us at the K-12 meeting and press conference. We can push the appointment at both of those events, so I don't think we'll need a separate presser on the Superintendent. KV – do you think legislators will come to the education presser Jan. 13 if it's in Orangeburg?

Below are suggested action items for Molly regarding the Appointment of the Superintendent.
It is very important Molly goes into detail about why she believes in this appointment.

- Spearman contact Lucas
- Spearman contact Bannister
- Spearman contact Delleney
- Spearman to contact CONSTITUTIONAL LAWS SUBCOMMITTEE members:
Hon. Bruce Bannister, Chairman
Hon. Greg Delleney
Hon. Weston Newton
Hon. James Smith
Hon. Walt McLeod
- Spearman to speak to the GOP Caucus
- Spearman contact Rutherford
- Spearman contact J. Smith

- Spearman to speak to the Dem Caucus
- Drop Spearman letter of support in House.
- Gov and Spearman presser with bi-partisan legislators behind them.

Then to contact the respective Senate members.

Are these items something we can go over with Emily and/or Molly?

Thanks, KV
