Governor Haley,

I cannot even believe we as a country are having a "defund" conversation. Why are the people in these planned parenthood videos not being immediately arrested and awaiting trial? It boggles my mind that a country that has been known as a voice of reason in a tumultuous world would even consider this as acceptable. Religion and morals aside, what is being done to these Babies is illegal and inhumane in the highest degree. I'm sick of financially supporting a bloated government that does not represent my interests, the rights of the most defenseless and innocent, all while not even upholding the laws it has put in place. You demand tax dollars, you sit around and debate about new ways to spend those tax dollars, and you aren't even being held accountable to the decisions you've already made, let alone the decisions you would make in the future. In conclusion if you are not against these heinous acts against humanity then make no mistake YOU ARE FOR THEM! You may not be in the operating room, but don't be fooled, you are most assuredly participating in these murderous practices nick hall
