Hi, Chaney. Hope all is well with you. I can't recall if we talked about this but I am writing a book for St. Martin's Press and The Post and Courier about the Emanuel AME shooting that will look at how various victims' relatives and survivors are dealing with issues of forgiveness, healing, etc. For instance, I was talking to Felicia Sanders about the way she feels that Emanuel's leaders have treated her. During that conversation, she talked about how much she appreciated Gov. Haley befriending her, visiting with her and so forth. So I thought that their relationship might be something worth exploring more. The governor mentioned it briefly when we all met with her before the anniversary, but I'd like to talk more in depth about how the shooting impacted her as a human being and how her relationship with Felicia evolved from it, if she is interested?

Thank you,
