Hey Jerry,

Hope you had a great Christmas and are getting ready to bring in the New Year.

Wanted to see if there was any update on this letter (any edits, how many Govs. Have agreed to sign, are y'all still planning on sending out, etc.).

Thank you in advance.

Okay. Pending the fact check on those two sentences we discussed, Gov. Haley would like to join the letter. Look forward to discussing next week—both the numbers and those two sentences.

Correct. Breadline for sign on was today. If letter goes out, it will be first week in Jan.

As of last night we were at 5. No update from today. I'll let you know. May need a conversation next week if the numbers are supportive enough, or if it doesn't have the heft to move the needle.

Jerry,

Hope you are well. Any update on the letter re: the items we discussed and the Govs that have agreed to sign?

Thank you in advance.

Yes. How does 10:00am on Monday work?

Thanks again.

Jerry,

I hope you are well.

I had a question about part of the letter. Would you have any time Monday morning to briefly discuss?

Thank you in advance.

Action Officers:

Thank you to everyone who was able to attend or call in to the RGPPC briefing on congressional legislation addressing security concerns re: the vetting process for refugees.

The legislation we discussed this afternoon is linked here: H.R. 4038 , H. R. 4197 and S. 2363.

As a follow-up to the briefing, attached to this email please find:

- 1) The House Homeland Security Committee report on the security risks and counterterrorism challenges associated with the Syrian refugee crisis. The full report can also be found online HERE.
- 2) A PDF provided by Governor Abbott's office containing additional information re: legislation discussed today (HR 4038, HR 4197, S 2363).
- 3) The PDF also includes a draft letter to congressional leadership that Jerry Strickland, director of federal affairs for Governor Abbott, is requesting other governors' offices consider signing on to. Pending interest, the target send date for this letter is January 4.

If you would like to provide edits to the letter, please email Jerry Strickland at strickland.jerry@gmail.com by Monday, December 21st. If your boss would like to sign on to the letter, the deadline to sign on is COB, Wednesday, December 23rd.

As always, please let us know if you have additional questions.
