President Obama,

South Carolina welcomes you to Charleston for the funeral of Rev. Senator Clementa Pinckney. The occasion of your visit is painful to all South Carolinians and having the honor of the presence of the President of the United States is appreciated. Your recognition of the service and glorious faith of Rev/Sen Pinckney and the other victims of such an unspeakable act of evil is, no doubt, comforting to the families.

However, Mr. President, you have a reputation for using events, tragic ones, to forward political policy. With that as a consideration and with no disrespect intended, as a visitor to the Palmetto State, please be deferential to all South Carolinians by honoring a few very simple points of etiquette.
