EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 92-01

WHEREAS, the Colonial Pipeline in Greenville County ruptured during the late evening of December 19, 1991, causing an extensive fuel oil spill into the Little Durbin Creek and ultimately the Enoree River; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the towns of Clinton and Whitmire are dependent upon the Enoree River as their primary water supply; and

WHEREAS, the Enoree River has been determined to be contaminated by the South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control and the Environmental Protection Agency, and cannot presently be used as a drinking water supply for those towns; and

WHEREAS, there is necessity to assist those two areas in maintaining an adequate supply of drinking water through alternative sources, and this will require additional support from the South Carolina National Guard.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and the Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, as amended, I hereby order that the utilization of the South Carolina National Guard's personnel and equipment to assist in this recovery effort is authorized by me and is placed on state duty by my authority.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND AND THE GREAT SEAL OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, THIS 14th DAY OF JANUARY, 1992.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 92-02

WHEREAS, the President of the United States and the nation's Governors have established six national goals for education; and

WHEREAS, the achievement of those goals by the year 2000 is critical to the economic prosperity both of this nation, and of this state; and

WHEREAS, reaching the goals will require state-level coordination of the efforts and resources of policymakers, educators, human services providers, economic development interests, the business community, and others to target those common aims; and

WHEREAS, there is no existing organization to effect that coordination.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and laws of this state, I hereby create the South Carolina Education Goals Panel ("Panel"), which is to serve as a body for establishing state goals within the framework of the National Education Goals, and developing state strategies for their achievement. The Governor shall serve as chairman of the Panel, with the State Superintendent of Education serving as vice-chair. The Governor shall appoint the following as members:

the Chairman of the State Development Board;
the Chairman of the Business-Education Partnership Committee;
the Chairman of the Human Services Coordinating Council;
the Chairman of the Senate Education Committee;
the Chairman of the House K-12 Education Subcommittee;
the Commissioner of Higher Education;
the Executive Director of the State Board for Technical and Comprehensive Education; and the Executive Director of the Health and Human Services Finance Commission.

Primary staff for the Panel shall be housed in the Governor's Office; however, staff of other participating agencies may be called upon to assist the Panel in its deliberations. To assist in the implementation of its charge pursuant to this Order the Panel may create such advisory committees or subcommittees as it deems necessary.

The Panel shall meet at the call of the chairman.

The Panel shall be charged with:

- 1) Reviewing, monitoring, and reporting on South Carolina's progress toward the National Education Goals;
- 2) Determining whether there are priorities specific to South Carolina that are unaddressed in the national goals, and establishing state goals that take those additional priorities into account;
- 3) Reviewing the scope and effectiveness of current education and social service delivery systems in terms of their capacity to help meet the goals;
- 4) Identifying program and policy changes that will be required to meet the goals; and

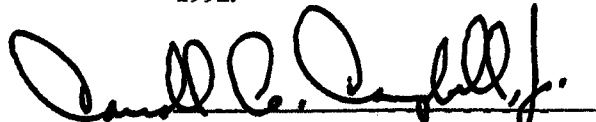

- 5) Developing a coordinated plan of action to effect those changes.

The work of the Panel shall be coordinated with the South Carolina 2000 initiative, which has as its purpose the development of local and regional strategies for meeting the National Education Goals.

The Panel shall be staffed by employees of the Governor's Office and shall be funded by those funds contributed by the Panel member agencies and any other non-state funds contributed to the Panel.

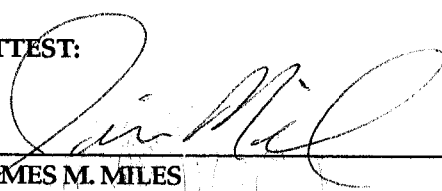

This Executive Order shall take effect upon signature of the Governor and remain in effect until December 31, 1992.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 92-19

WHEREAS, the federal Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-234), hereinafter "Act", exempts State governments from the requirement to purchase federally sponsored flood insurance on State-owned properties if the Administrator of the Federal Emergency Management Agency determines that such properties are adequately covered under existing state insurance funds; and

WHEREAS, the exemption requires the State to provide flood insurance on State-owned structures and their contents located or to be located in identified flood prone areas and implement flood plain management standards in accordance with the criteria established pursuant to 44 C.F.R. § 60.12; and

WHEREAS, Executive Order 82-19 established a Board consisting of the State Engineer, Deputy Highway Engineer, State Insurance Manager of the Division of General Services, Water Resources Commissioner and the Governor's Office on the Board to consider the issuance of variances under 44 C.F.R. § 60.6; and

WHEREAS, the Board has issued a variance to the South Carolina Ports Authority for the Columbus Street Engine House; and

WHEREAS, the marine terminal operation meets requirements of the federal exemption; and

WHEREAS, the South Carolina Ports Authority also desires an exemption from the Flood Plain Regulations for its marine terminal operations since its facilities are necessary for the loading and unloading of cargo; and

WHEREAS, the failure to grant the Ports Authority an exemption would result in an exceptional hardship to this State; and

WHEREAS, an exemption of the South Carolina Ports Authority from the requirements of the Flood Plains Regulations would not result in increased flood heights, extraordinary public expense, or create additional threats to public safety and would not conflict with local laws or ordinances; and

WHEREAS, the Ports Authority is a state agency unique in its requirements for property and delivery of services including the loading and unloading of cargo and passengers at or near sea level.

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and Laws of South Carolina, as Governor of this State, I hereby grant the necessary exemption and/or variance to the South Carolina Ports Authority marine terminal operations from those requirements and regulations of the Act and subsequent regulations adopted pursuant to the Act.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 92-21

WHEREAS, several officials and employees of the South Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission have been investigated for violations of the public trust; and

WHEREAS, some of these officials and employees have been indicted for specific violations of state law; and

WHEREAS, there is a specific concern that the South Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission needs a thorough review of its functions and operations; and

WHEREAS, the restructuring of State Government has not been acted upon by the General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, the statewide Grand Jury identified specific concerns about the operation of the South Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission; and

WHEREAS, the restructuring of the South Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission should function as a model for several state agencies, while the overall restructuring of State Government is still awaiting legislative approval;

NOW, THEREFORE, by the authority vested in me as Governor by the Constitution and laws of the State of South Carolina, and in order to secure meaningful and well-considered reform in the operations of the South Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission, there is hereby established the Governor's Task Force on Reform of the South Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission.

The Chairman of the South Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission shall serve as Chairman of the Task Force. The Task Force shall conduct a comprehensive study of the present structure and operations of the South Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission and shall submit to the Governor a final report of the study setting forth:

- (1) An evaluation of the deficiencies in the structure and operations of the South Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission undermining the ability of the Commission and its staff to fulfill its duties efficiently, fairly and with integrity; and
- (2) Recommendation for any changes in any laws, rules, and standards to remedy those deficiencies, including laws, rules and standards governing the regulation of alcoholic beverages, the operation of the South Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission, the regulatory process, generally, and the performance and evaluation of state employees.

The members of the Task Force shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor and shall be composed of:

Executive Order Number 92-21

- (1) The Chairman of the South Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission;
- (2) Two members of the South Carolina Senate and two members of the South Carolina House of Representatives, who shall not be members of the same political party and shall be appointed by the Governor; and
- (3) Not more than four other persons from public or private life selected by the Governor.

The Task Force may request any agency of State Government to furnish such information, advice, or assistance as it determines to be necessary to carry out its functions. Each such agency is directed, to the extent permitted by law, to furnish such information, advice, or assistance upon request by the Chairman of the Task Force.

The Task Force may hold public hearings, conduct interviews, and meet in public or executive session as the Task Force determines to be appropriate to carry out its functions.

Members of the Task Force shall receive no compensation for their service on the Task Force. Members of the Task Force may be reimbursed for their reasonable travel and other expenses incurred as a result of their service on the Task Force as determined to be appropriate by the Chairman.

The South Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission shall provide such facilities and administrative support to the Task Force as the Chairman determines to be appropriate. The South Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission may retain the services of private experts and legal counsel to assist the Chairman and the Task Force as the Chairman determines to be appropriate.

Executive Order Number 92-21
