Please see below. We would need to talk to Scarlett about this – I'm not sure if she will cooperate.

Swati:

Melanie just tried to reach Governor Haley and got her voicemail. We are in Tulsa trying to reach a global settlement with the Browns and the tribe that would result in a peaceful transition of Veronica home to SC in the next week or so. In connection with that effort, we need to know (1) whether Governor Haley would be willing to withdraw her extradition request; and (2) whether Governor Haley would be willing to talk to Solicitor Wilson and Sheriff Cannon about dropping the criminal charges against Brown. After two days of intense mediation efforts, we believe that getting the criminal charge dismissed is a dealbreaker for Brown agreeing to any global settlement. Can you please get in touch with the Governor and let us know as soon as possible her views?
