ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The South Carolina Bar and the South Carolina Association of Ethics Counsel are pleased to present the Fifth Annual Everything You Need to Know about Ethics video replay on March 1. This powerful program features six exhilarating hours of "everything ethics". Featuring a distinguished faculty, this annual program covers the hottest topics with an emphasis on scholarship and practical application. Topics for this year's edition include ethical technology traps for the unwary, our annual update from the ethics advisory and professional responsibility committees, how to navigate the "hidden rules" of professional responsibility, online advertising traps, a UPL update, insights on the role of the Commission on Lawyer Conduct, our annual ethics roundup, rules that bite when you least expect it, and the new world of ethics for real estate practitioners. Keep your law license where it belongs - on your wall! Register today for this important program!
