Kevin,

Just to make sure it is on your radar. The plans are for you to do a normal opening of the Senate on the first day of session.

You will preside until the election of a new President. We can go through the whole ceremony once I have it all finalized.

Also, there will be a unanimous consent motion to allow you to address the Senate. (and I expect maybe a couple of senators will also say nice things about you).

Hope you and your family have a wonderful Christmas.

Jeff
