Fall 2013 at Lee State Park

Album created at 13:26:23 on 11/06/2013 UTC · 🌐

The fall colors are beautiful this year at Lee State Park! The Upstate is the most popular area to view leaves, but if you can't make it, try some of our midland area parks for great leaf viewing!

Jennifer Stanley I just moved here and live in Moncks Corner. Where do you suggest I go for leaves that's not 5 hours away?

Nancy Eargle Hargrove Lee State Park has some of the best leaf color. Loved living there and my morning walks in the fall of the year.

Valli M. Finney We've got some pretty ones at Aiken SP too! The canoe launch area is really pretty right now!

Peggy Newman Poinsett State Park had beautiful trees this past weekend. That is in Wedgefield, near Sumter SC.
