I am a survivor of domestic violence and so are both my boys who are adults now. And I have seen the damage that was done to me and them. No human should have to go through this and feel that did something wrong or it is their fault or be killed because the other person is mad, angry or just wants to terrorize them. The victims need to know there are people to help and protect them. I may not be from South Carolina but we come there every summer and I have friends there. Please pass this law and save all the children and other victims from this terrible crime
