Subject: Economic Development Announcement

Hi Katherine,

I hope this finds you well! I just wrote you via FB, but tracked down your email address.

I am writing to let you know that it looks like we'll be working on a project together. Our office is involved with the economic development announcement coming up on Monday, June 16th in York for LPL Financial. I have been told that your office is aware.

I am going to reach out to the company this morning to learn more details, but will ultimately need to connect with Doug for the communications piece.

Looking forward to connecting on this project.

Thanks!
Maggie
