Show Up

Dear Friends:

Let's rely on the wit of humorist Will Rogers to put this Election Day in perspective:

"Last year we said, 'Things can't go like this', and they didn't. They got worse"

"I don't make jokes. I just watch the government and report the facts."

Will Rogers is long gone, but his perspective on government has never been truer. The policies of President Obama and the Democrats are sucking the life blood out of the America we love. The all-powerful federal government intrudes into every aspect of our lives, steals our personal liberties and enslaves more people to be dependent on government programs. It's time for the CHANGE we want and deserve.

<http://ih.constantcontact.com/fs150/1103106317947/img/567.jpg> Show Up & Vote! Tomorrow, November 4, is Election Day. It's the duty of right-minded, freedom-loving American's to step into the voting booth and make your personal choices. If you don't, no complaints, please. Some people feel their single ballot won't matter. It does matter! Show up & vote and bring others with you. Each vote counts!

House District 86:

You Decide - 3 Ballot Questions: In addition to the election of individual candidates, the ballot will contain several other issues on which you decide. Here's a top-line summary:

- Legalizing Non-Profit Raffles: Approval of this constitutional amendment would allow many non-profits, such as schools and churches, to hold raffles as a way to raise funds. Raffles are currently prohibited in our state Constitution.
- Adjutant General Appointed by Governor: South Carolina is the only state in the nation where the head of the National Guard (Adjutant General) is popularly elected. This proposed constitutional amendment for the Adjutant General to be appointed by the Governor from a pool of qualified military candidates rather than popularly elected. Our current Adjutant General, Bob Livingston, and members of the National Guard support this proposal.
- In Aiken County -- Penny Sales Tax Option for School Construction:
