I understand your pain. May justice be served , and your daughter be returned to you and your home. Only then, can true healing from all this trauma even begin. We are still fighting for that very same justice, peace and healing. From one broken mom to another broken family, I understand fully and please keep fighting. God Bless, Michelle

I know South Carolina has been taking children away from loving families for years, when they need to focus on the ones that are actually being abused.

The parents are not at fault for the appearance of injuries or injuries to this baby. Parents should never be arrested who have children born with disabilities.
