To whom it may concern:

My name is Chris Casagrande and I am writing to inform you of a great achievement which my son, Zachary Alan Casagrande has reached and obtained. Zachary has been a member of the Boy Scouts of America since the age of six, beginning as a Tiger Cub. He recently at the age of 17, achieved scouting's highest honor- the rank of Eagle Scout.

For his Eagle project, Zachary cleared, built a decorative stone retaining wall and landscaped a community sign. This sign is an integral part of the community's athletic complex and is admired by all as well as bringing a sense of pride back into the community. His project required 252 man hours with the help of his fellow scouts and leaders. Some of these hours were performed in 90 degree weather, but, the scouts persevered!

I would appreciate any acknowledgment and congratulatory wishes for Zachary for attaining this great accomplishment.
