Jo Anna White Awesome!

Michelle Lupton Thanks everyone! I spent about 3 hours in the freezing cold to make this picture. But it was so beautiful out there I didn't want to go in. 😊
