Kevin,

In 2014 I had insurance lapse on my car. But that's worked out and everything's valid.

My passport is good til 2024.

I was arrested in 2017 for lashing out at my former CVS supervisor for threatening my finances and committing fraud.

I was trying to drive into Ontario and was denied entry because of the above charges.

I've been to 44 countries and never denied entry.

They said I can get a pardon. How would I do that? I plan to do business near Ottawa. It's a hinderence.

Best Regards,
