Ted,

Just wanted to send you a quick email about Gov. Haley's India trip.

Taj Hotels called me and they've noted that the itineraries of two cities have been finalized, with the governor staying at a Sheraton and Marriott. As Taj Hotels are owned by the Tata family, and they've made significant investments in the U.S. (11 companies in the U.S., $8 billion in revenue), they would love to see the governor stay in a Taj Hotel during her India visit.

Morgan Crapps with Commerce is arranging the logistics. Since Mumbai and Delhi haven't been scheduled yet, they would be honored if Gov. Haley stayed in a Taj Hotel. The U.S.-based staff are very excited about her trip and are very nice people to work with. I used to work with them when I was on Capitol Hill and they reached out to me. I hope you can relay this information to Gov. Haley

Regards,
Dino
