

Account: scstateparks

Content type: Instagram Business - Media

Record ID: 20211217South-Carolina-State-ParksMedia52751_2730770291141648389_261427093

Check out these Roseate Spoonbills at Huntington Beach State Park! These birds are becoming more common once again and can be seen in marshes around coastal South Carolina. Juveniles (like these pictured) will remain a pale pink for three years before gaining their brighter adult plumage! A beautiful shot by @brandt_jenkins at 15:00:10 on 12/17/2021 UTC

#SCStateParks #ComeOutAndPlay #FindYourPark #UltimateOutsider
#BirdsOfInstagram
at 15:00:14 on 12/17/2021 UTC

mascommunications #HammockCoastSC #SouthCarolinaHammockCoast
at 15:01:21 on 12/17/2021 UTC

sanderss_emmaa I saw these a year ago when I went and they were GORGEOUS! I didn't know that the juveniles were the lighter colors tho!
at 15:17:39 on 12/17/2021 UTC

brandt_jenkins Thanks so much guys , Huntington Beach and the low country will always be my favorite destinations ❤️
at 17:11:54 on 12/17/2021 UTC

biggscamera Way to go @brandt_jenkins
at 18:15:35 on 12/17/2021 UTC

boardandbaskethhi Omg! 😊
at 19:23:57 on 12/17/2021 UTC

connietea185 ❤️
at 1:00:10 on 12/18/2021 UTC

groweatplants 🍷
at 14:55:51 on 12/18/2021 UTC