

From: The Council of State Governments <registration@csg.org>
To: Kester, Tonykester@aging.sc.gov
Date: 4/30/2015 10:07:29 AM
Subject: CSG eCademy: Federalism in the Executive Branch, May 19

One of the hottest topics in state capitals from coast to coast is the subject of federalism; ranging from fears about debilitating cutbacks from already-committed federal dollars to questions about how to respond to a broad use of federal branch executive authority. This FREE webcast, the first of three CSG eCademy events on federalism's impact across the branches, will examine the current relationship between the executive branch and state governments with a view toward providing a fuller understanding of the duties, powers and limitations inherent in our federal system. More...

Register now for the FREE eCademy webcast!

Moderator:

Carl W. Stenberg

Director of the Masters of Public Administration Program University of North Carolina

Presenters:

Ed DeSeve

Special adviser to the president of the United States
Senior adviser, Brookings Institute

Raymond Scheppach

Senior lecturer in public policy, University of Virginia
Executive director, National Governors Association

Ingrid Schroeder

Director of Fiscal Federalism Initiatives
Pew Charitable Trusts

Forward this email

This email was sent to kester@aging.sc.gov by registration@csg.org | Update Profile/Email Address | Rapid removal with SafeUnsubscribe™ | Privacy Policy.