Pro-Abort Graham elevates Stare Decisis above the Judicial Oath of Office to US Constitution

CLL: Pro-abortion, deceiver, dissembler, Lindsey Graham:

Excerpts:

The South Carolina Republican said the 1973 Supreme Court ruling in Roe v. Wade is one that should be respected [sic] by the justice tapped to replace retiring Justice Anthony Kennedy.

Graham, who identifies as being pro-life [CLL: NOT !!!] , said the case has been affirmed many times over the years.

"This is not a referendum on Roe v. Wade," Graham said of the Supreme Court nomination process.

"I would tell my pro-life friends you can be pro-life and conservative, but you can also believe in stare decisis ," he said, citing the legal term referring to precedent that, when translated from Latin, means "to stand by things decided."

[Excerpt; emphasis, comments added]

[CLL: America , please forgive South Carolina, a State greatly lacking in discernment, for electing and re-electing Lindsey Graham to the United States Senate where he has been able to do great damage not only to South Carolina, but to the entire country.]

"Stare Decisis" is a legal term, a legal principle, to stand by precedent (that is, normally).

It is NOT primary. It does not trump fidelity to the written text of the United States Constitution.

It does not trump adherence to the Oath of Office taken by each United States Supreme Court Justice to uphold the United States Constitution (written text).

The Oath of Office of a United States Supreme Court Justice is NOT to uphold stare decisis ;

The Oath of Office of a United States Supreme Court Justice is to uphold the United States Constitution (written text) !!!

If a SCOTUS Opinion is abominable, evil, immoral, and unconstitutional (e.g., Roe, and Obergefell), it should be ignored as void.

Excerpt from Article VI., U.S. Constitution

Marbury vs. Madison (1803)

<https://caselaw.findlaw.com/us-supreme-court/5/137.html>

"... an act of the legislature, repugnant to the constitution, is void." "... a law repugnant to the constitution is void; and... courts, as well as other departments, are bound by that instrument."

The United States Supreme Court is "bound by that instrument", i.e., the United States Constitution.

The United States Constitution is NOT whatever the Justices say it is.

The United States Constitution is what the WRITTEN TEXT says it is !!!

Federal Judiciary Oaths

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Oath_of_office#Federal_Judiciary_Oaths

In the United States, federal judges are required to take two oaths. The second is the same oath that members of Congress take:

[Emphasis added]

I, (name), do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter.

[So help me God.] [FN 80]

U.S. Sen. Lindsey Graham said he would not vote for any Supreme Court justice nominee who had already made up their mind about specific cases, including the landmark one that legalized abortion.

"I'm not going to vote for anybody that tells me they're going to decide a case before the facts are presented to them,"

Graham said in an interview Sunday on NBC's "Meet the Press."

The South Carolina Republican said the 1973 Supreme Court ruling in Roe v. Wade is one that should be respected by the justice tapped to replace retiring Justice Anthony Kennedy.

Graham, who identifies as being pro-life [CLL: NOT !!!], said the case has been affirmed many times over the years.

"This is not a referendum on Roe v. Wade," Graham said of the Supreme Court nomination process.

"I would tell my pro-life friends you can be pro-life and conservative, but you can also believe in stare decisis," he said, citing the legal term referring to precedent that, when translated from Latin, means "to stand by things decided."

continued...

"And I would tell my Democratic friends what I told my Republican friends: When Obama won, he made two picks, Sotomayor and Kagan. I voted for both because I thought they were qualified. I voted for Alito and Roberts and I would imagine I'll vote for this pick," he added.
