Danny,

That sounds like a wonderful day and I am glad we can be of assistance. One of our interns will meet you with the passes at 9:30am during the picture. Tomorrow, the Senate will be in Session majority of the day but all of the action should begin in the afternoon with votes on amendments. I hope this answers your questions. I am thrilled your group will be able to experience such a historic day in the US Senate.

Jim, thanks very much. I really appreciate it. We're taking a photo on the SE steps at 9:30, and we're free until lunch after which we'll have a SCOTUS tour. Will session be in between 10 and 12? We have House passes, courtesy of Congressman Duncan, but we'd really appreciate the chance to visit both chambers. Thanks a lot

Danny,

I would be more than happy to provide gallery passes. The Senate will be exciting to watch tomorrow afternoon and I can guarantee we could can your group passes. Would you also like House gallery passes because I can provide those as well? Please just let me know the details on when your groups tour is happening and I can have an intern meet you in the Capitol Visitor's Center with the passes. My personal number is 864-230-9294 and please don't hesitate to call me with me any questions during your visit to Washington.

Jim, I know this is a tall order but Danny is a great friend so there's anything that you can do for these guys tomorrow morning, that would be great. Thank you.

Joe, I know it's late, but is there any chance of getting gallery passes for the morning around 9:45 or 10? Our guides say the scheduled Capitol tour is pretty boring, and they've asked if we could watch session instead. There are 115 of us. I'd appreciate it, but I totally understand if not.

Thanks
