Subject: Invitation to Sept 16th Screening of American Winter

Hello Commissioners,

UWASC is sponsoring a showing of America Winter in Columbia on Sept. 16th and you are invited to attend.

American Winter is an award winning documentary that highlights the ways in which poverty can effect a wide variety of U.S. families. UWASC has arranged for the director of the film, Harry Gantz, to be in attendance at the screening so that he could share his experience in making the film and answer questions from the audience.

American Winter is a very impactful film and I highly encourage anyone who can make it to attend.
