Hello Friends,

I hope this email finds you all doing well. Additionally, this email is to serve as a friendly reminder for TMM tonight. We sincerely appreciate all of you who have attended and participated in TMM over the last three and a half years. We would love nothing more for all of you to share in the "final act" tonight! We look forward to seeing you tonight!

Thanks,
Moe

Friends,

We are excited to invite you to a very special edition of The Monthly Meeting. The June edition of The Monthly Meeting will feature Ted Pitts, the CEO and President of the South Carolina Chamber of Commerce. Also, we're excited to share that this month's meeting will be the last TMM meeting (more below).

Mr. Pitts will share his insider's perspective on the successes that South Carolina has experienced over the last few years growing business in the state. Mr. Pitts will also talk about the Chamber's current projects – including its efforts to improve SC's infrastructure and workforce readiness.

The South Carolina Chamber of Commerce is the unified voice of business in the Palmetto State. The South Carolina Chamber works to find solutions for issues facing businesses, ensuring this state is a top destination for economic development. Serving thousands of companies of all sizes and industries, the Chamber creates an environment for businesses and communities to grow.

Our meeting will be held at the Capital City Club on June 9th, from 5:00 pm to 7:00 pm. As always, please feel to bring a friend.

About Mr. Pitts:

A Lexington native and graduate of Presbyterian College, Pitts is married and the father three children. He also is a major in the South Carolina Army National Guard and commander of a medical services unit. In 2010, he deployed with the Guard's 1st Battalion, 178th Field Artillery to Afghanistan.

Mr. Pitts also served in South Carolina's General Assembly as House of Representative (R-Lexington) from 2003-2010. He served as Governor Nikki Haley's Deputy Chief of Staff from 2011 to 2013. He was promoted to Chief of Staff for Governor Haley in 2013. Prior to joining the Haley administration, he worked as a commercial real estate broker with the Columbia firm Wilson Kibler. Please see the SC Chamber of Commerce press release on Mr. Ted Pitts SC Chamber- Ted Pitts for more information.

The End of 'The Monthly Meeting'

Over the last several years we have been proud to host dozens of the state's top leaders. From elected officials to Fortune 500 companies, our guest list has featured leaders from all sectors of our economy and from every corner of our community. Our guests asked powerful questions of powerful people and consistently engaged thoughtfully in dialogue.

We've been a forum for sharing ideas and place for people who care about the community to come together. But, like all things, there comes a time to turn the page. We hope that you'll be a part of this last meeting and that you'll remain committed to making our community a better place.

For those of you who cannot attend on June 9th, we thank you for your willingness to join us in the past and we thank you for caring about our collective good. We hope it's been enjoyable and beneficial. We wish you the very best in all your future endeavors! Thank you for making this such an amazing experience!

Faithfully Yours,

Moe Brown, Micah Caskey, Jacob Cook, Justin Evans, Tyler Matthews, Brian Stern, Jason Stern, Robert Wilder, & Brian Yarborough
