Likely a veto, but we need to confirm a few things with Bob Toomey.

Ted and Katherine,

I just got a phone call from Sen Hayes about the $750,000 Capital Reserve appropriation for Keystone Alcohol and Drug Abuse through DAODAS. Sen Hayes said that he had heard a delegation member has asked the Governor to veto this appropriation.

If this is correct, he wanted to let the Governor know this is not the position of the entire delegation. Sen Hayes told me both he and Rep Simrill very much support this appropriation and would like it to remain and asked me to communicate this to you for your information.

Thanks,

Grant
