Subject: RE: Governor's position on H.3147 (Taxable Income Deductions)

Let's circle-up before the end of the week – the Governor has publicly said that she would sign the bill so no loss there in terms of confirming that. As far as proactively selling the idea, there is a little more to discuss.

I've started being asked what the agency's opinion on the bill with respect to the tax exemption for veterans and whether DEW supports that. Happy to speak with any or all of you about the perceived impact on workforce, but realize that there may be larger issues at work and don't want to be cross wise with your office.

Thanks.

Good Afternoon!

I hope this email finds you doing well in the new year thus far and that you had a great Christmas season with your families! Director Stanton asked me to email you all regarding H. 3147, Taxable income deductions, which is currently in Senate Finance. Does the governor have a position concerning this bill? If so, is there a good time for you all that we can discuss? Thanks!

Sally
