I'm sick of young women being told, (They can't).

I too wanted to play football in middle school, but I was not allowed to; now I am on my school's new girl's rugby team. If a woman can do something as dangerous as join the military, why cant she do something less dangerous like play on a football team?

Females should have the same rights that males have. I major in Anthropology and I believe a girl has the right to do what a boy can do. There should not be any gender discrimination in a school.

I'm signing because all female students have the right to play any athletics they want to. Little league accommodates them. So should football.
