I don't know if you get to choose what projects you can work or not. Disability and Special Needs really needs help. From what I understand our caregivers start at minimum wage and do not get a raise. They are working w/our loved ones. You can work at Walmart starting out at $9.50/hour and get a raise every 3 months if you do your job. We are having a serious problem hiring people who want to work w/people who have disabilities, and the people we are hiring at ACDSNB don't last very long because they can get a job that pays more.

If you can't help me, please let me know who can. Thank you,

Debbie Gerwe
