Gov Haley, I watched your interview on CBS This Morning earlier today, and I have this to say -- what a gutless response. Nine people died because of a white supremacist, you recently had a white cop shooting an unarmed black man, and your state reportedly has nineteen hate groups active. And you don't have the sense to say, "Effective immediately, the Confederate flag will no longer be displayed on any state building in South Carolina. It is a symbol of hate, just like the swastika is, and I am ordering it taken down right now."

But no. You'll "have a conversation." Seriously, quit being part of the problem and do something right. Stand up for something. You're a big girl now, you're on the national stage -- do something in the public interest.

Governor Haley

I am a 64 year old White Male. USMC Combat Veteran. And I've had enough of all the racial overtones of late!

I am saddened to hear what happened in your State. I know you and your administration are equally so and are working to see justice will be swift for this heinous crime as well as working with the cities and communities to maintain a calm while denouncing all forms of racism!

My prayers go out to those impacted by this young man's poor values and with you Governor as you work with all to see swift justice is done!

I for one feel there should be no other punishment but the death penalty for this man's action. There is no gain to any form of racism in Our Country especially in this day and age and a strong message needs to be sent out to all that this will not be tolerated, that justice will be swift, carry a capital resolve and with no appeal!

But I do not agree with our president regarding more gun control! If anything we need to encourage our Law biding Citizens to carry more and protect themselves and others if/when needed. This incident is not one but one of many, we have had our churches robbed during services throughout Our Land except in those States where the citizens are known to carry often and in all places.

This should not be played as a white on black issue. We need more news coverage showing whites and blacks working together, helping each other and residing side by side to a common goal of good and equality. I mean this sincerely, you and your administration should look into doing more coverage of this than the news coverage of this killing done by a minor ethnic percentage with low values!

And I do not believe the Confederate Flag should be made to be a sign of evil! It's original conception was one of Unity, Strength, Prosperity not racism. It has been made to look racist but it should be portrayed more for what it was meant to stand for, it should be part of Our Countries heritage and as such not tampered with! Here is another area where more coverage, education and form of pride should be brought to the public throughout Our land. Removing this piece of History will solve nothing and only add to the separatism that is in effect!

I look forward to seeing the quick results of this matter and would be interested in hearing from you regarding this email.

If I can in anyway be a symbol of support for You or your State please let me know.

Sincerely

Patrick H [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for your sympathetic commentary after the tragic hate crime in Charleston. It grieves me to say that neither I, nor my friends and family, will visit South Carolina due to the presence of the confederate flag and the avenues named for confederate generals. This is a stick in the eye to black Americans in your community. I am not black so this is from a white person's perspective.

Thank you for your time. Kathleen [REDACTED]

Dear Sirs

As a neurologist who used to practice in South Carolina, I must express my deep concern with the Governor's hesitation to issue a statement that the Confederate flag needs to come down - and permanently so - from the State House. It bespeaks racism, and every day that it continues now to fly is a strong statement in favor of racism and prejudice - and a long-outmoded view of the world.

Please pass my concerns along to her. They are not isolated, as even such people as Mitt Romney are now calling for a change.

I would like to see South Carolina lead into the future rather than lag.

Cordially and with deep concern

We are an Air Force veteran family and also a family of faith who have proudly called South Carolina home for 7 years. I am deeply saddened at the horrible violence that has occurred in Charleston and it deeply disturbs me that still, in this day and age, we still fly the Confederate flag in this state and that very few of our elected officials have the guts or conviction to see how morally wrong this is. How is this acceptable? What occurred in Charleston was motivated by hatred of another race and yet it seems our state looks the other way at improving race relations and getting to the root of this problem, which is racism. What happened in Charleston was not tragedy, it was home-grown terrorism, and I'm still waiting for one of my elected officials who I support to be strong enough to address this issue and bring it to light. My support in the future will go to the ones who are. Thank you for your time.

 <MSG>

Governor Haley,

My heart goes out to your state and people dealing with such a horrific tragedy. As a high school history teacher, I have often seen the passion of the young turned toward terrible things but this instance is paramount. I'm so, so sorry that your people, your state, your administration, and you must come to terms with the devastation left by this young man's racism and hate.

I know sometimes as a leader you are between a rock and a hard place. I know that you must balance tradition with progress in a deep south state in order to remain a viable candidate in the future. I hope you will consider finding a way to finally stop flying the confederate flag at the capitol. This symbol of your proud history is also a symbol for racists and for hate. Though historians have tried to separate the two, most people are unable to make the distinction.

As a woman of learning, I know you are aware of the political minefield that surrounds the lowering of that symbol. I know you will do what you can in the face of political badgering. I just thought I'd lend a voice to the "put history in it's place" crowd.

Again, my sympathies for what you and your citizens must face together. I believe we are entering another era of civil rights and am sad to say that these people of faith are now martyrs to that struggle.

Sincerely,

Donna [REDACTED]

Why is the Confederate Flag on the State House grounds not lowered to honor the deaths in Charleston? If it is truly a symbol of honor and not hate, it should be lowered.

It's time for the flag to go. Stop the "revisit it" nonsense, and do what is right. bring SC into the present and preserve its future! The past is past. When people start to boycott BMW, Michelin, and other companies which we have worked so hard to bring here over this, then you will wish you had.

It's a shame common sense alone won't bring it down, but $ talks. You will have companies running the other way to distance themselves from this ridiculous situation. And all the hard work we have done over the past 10 - 20 years to attract new business will be gone in a matter of a year.

Best Regards

Please consider taking the Confederate Flag down from the capital yard. It causes so much pain to some of our citizens. That is reason enough to put it away in a museum for historical memories. I know that I would never fly it in my front yard, nor would I want to live by someone that would. It conjures up images that are not flattering or indicative of the citizens of South Carolina. Is it flying just because a few people want to make a point, or be right? If we the people of SC have any heart, and truly do love our community and its people, then we should show respect by removing this painful symbol from the statehouse grounds.

Respectfully,

The concerned citizens of South Carolina kindly request that you show some moral courage, and take down the Confederate Battle Flag over the state legislature building.

If you truly support racial equality, and the right of all individuals to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, you will permanently remove the Confederate flag. South Carolina needs to unburden itself from this constant reminder of a failed past.

Please, please. I am reaching out to you because the tragedy of the 9 precious lives taken in Charleston is heartbreaking enough and the how the confederate flag flies does not need make the pain of this horrendous act even greater. SC's confederate flag must not overshadow what is a deep scar on all of our hearts.

Please fly the confederate flag at half-mast. This not about the significance of the flag to many in our State or its opponents. This request is to honor the 9 innocent lives by hanging all flags of this state at half-mast.

Thank you.

<MSG>

I as an Indian American am appalled that you are flying the Confederate Flag at all, let alone in a time of such deep pain for your constituents. Have some respect and take it down. Look in the mirror and see your own brown family reflected - You are an insult to every person of color who values their own skin.

For once, take the RIGHT stand - try not to be such a sell out. Its inhumane, outdated and embarrassing to the rest of us Indians and humans.

TAKE DOWN THAT FLAG@!@£@$%£

Gov.Haley, I am a native South Carolinian, living in VA, with hopes to soon return to my much beloved South Carolina. I am a senior citizen, raised in Columbia during the 50s and 60s. I do remember some not so good things about our state....sidewalks painted on Main St, for colored only signs, and yes the KKK marching proudly with "THAT FLAG" held high. It is time, Gov. Haley, for that"symbol of heritage" to come down. Ask those that want "That Flag" on the statehouse grounds, if they would fly it proudly at their places of businesses or worship. I think not. I do believe I have taught my 3 daughters and my 7 grands to love all people and treat them equally. This flag represents hate to too many, not equality or love. Thank you for your time in reading this, and know my prayers are with you and MY South Carolina. Patsy [REDACTED]

Prove to the United States that South Carolina wants to heal itself. Tear that flag down and burn it. Why is the Confederate flag flying in any state in the United States? See <http://www.postandcourier.com/article/20150618/PC16/150619374>. It represents an outlaw government and reprehensible policies that cost more American lives than either the first or second world war. The government of South Carolina should correct this clear unpatriotic gesture and remove the flag from their state house grounds. If not, I should think that federal marshals or federal troops would have a responsibility to remove this flag and arrest those responsible for its presence.

I am a white, Republican, son of the South, 67 year old descendent of Confederate soldiers.

I am asking you, as our Governor, to bravely step out and call, next week, for the Confederate flag to be removed from our Statehouse grounds and all state buildings and assemblies.

No, I don't think the flag caused the Charleston massacre. But I do think the flag has been high-jacked by racists and it has become a symbol of racial hatred.

Nothing would make me prouder as a SC Republican than for you, and other SC Republicans to join together next week and make a public call for it to be removed.

It is time for our state Government to furl it and put it away. It belongs in museums not on the statehouse grounds.

Joe

Dear Governor Haley

I think that the Confederate Flag that is displayed on your capitol grounds, is a symbol of racial separation, and combative attitude regarding federal laws we all share. You must take down that flag to show you mean to eliminate that racial separation and the violence. Your confederate flag display is a travesty and encourages racial violence at a time we need to be bringing people together to end gun violence in our country.

Please take that flag down.

In the past, I have enjoyed visits to your state. However, I wasn't aware that the Confederate flag flies near your capital. You will no longer see me in your State as long as this flag flies near your capital. It is demeaning and represents a period in your history (symbol of white supremacy during civil rights movement) which you should be ashamed. If you desire to have your state viewed as a bunch of bigots and narrow minded individuals let it fly.

I have visited beautiful Charleston on quite a few occasions. I love the city - - the history, the people, the food, everything.

It would enhance the state of South Carolina in the eyes of the entire country if the Confederate flag was removed from the Capitol grounds.

Please use your power to convince your state government to remove that flag.

Governor: I watch and listened with great interest when you were interviewed on the slaughter of people in their church. You a a typical politician, side stepping and even refusing to answer the questions directly and as the were proposed to you . You are everything that is wrong with our country and political system. Just like congress and gun control. You exemplify everything wrong and what needs to change. It is pathetic, racist and devisive for you to display the confederate flag above the capitol.This and you and what that flag stands for, are an exemplary example of whats wrong with this country. I will do everything I can do to lobby my representatives and others to force you to begin the healing. This will be your legacy. Lets see if you have the character and backbone to do it. The Confederate States of America's most popular symbol should not be flown on the state house grounds. The Confederate flag's display at the central law making institution in South Carolina is unethical, especially amidst concerns of racial injustice nationwide.

Please remove the flag.

I know I'm not a constituent, living in Florida, but I am often a visitor of SC as I love the city of Charleston. But the recent shooting there has brought back to the nations attention that you continue to fly the Confederate flag at the capital. While I consider myself to be "a student" of the civil war and can appreciate the flag from a historic point of view, you cannot forget the fact that its existence was due to the desire to keep people in slavery. So if you're intent is to honor slavery, you are doing that well. But it offends me and because of it continuing to be flown at the capital, I will find it morally difficult to visit your state again.

I am very sorry for what happened at Emmanuel AME Church. As a parish of the Diocese of Charleston (RC) we will be praying a Novena this coming week as requested by Bishop Guglielmone. Unfortunately, ringing of our bells from 10-10:20 Sunday morning would be during our Mass, and it is NOT appropriate for such an interruption, especially from something only symbolic while what we are praying at Mass is much more efficacious. We will be ringing our bells half-muffled at the regular time, and all other Masses will have our electrically activated bell tolling the funeral toll instead of the regular call to worship. I hope you understand that this IS a most reasonable compromise. Meanwhile, please DO NOT support any call to remove the Confederate flag from the Capitol building. That flag has nothing whatsoever to do with this tragedy.

Dear Governor Haley,

It is with the most heartfelt respect that I send you my message. My heart is broken to hear of the murder of the church members who were massacred in the AME sanctuary yesterday. .

I can't even fathom, Governor Haley, such a loss. The Reverend Clementa Pinkney was a man of honor, an educated man who represented the best of our country. Along side him, the death of the members of his church who also represented the fine members of Charleston, and our country. I've been crying all day. I can't believe the random murder of such wonderful human beings.

I would like to ask you to take down the Confederate Flag that flies over your State House. I believe that you CANNOT stand and represent your state without taking that flag down. That flag is a slap in the face of moderate and modern citizens in the whole country. Take the Confederate Flag down. It stands for hate. HATE. Don't encourage any more racists. Thank you.

Dear Gov. Haley,

We sincerely grieve with and send our condolences to the good people of SC. However, because you and your state officials continue to fly the Confederate flag over the statehouse, we will NEVER EVER again set foot in your state. No matter what kind of empty rationalizations are made, it will never cease to be a symbol of racism, slavery, hate, bigotry and white supremacy. It is a historical artifact and belongs in a museum. By continuing to fly it at official sites, the state of SC condones, defends and protects what it represents. You are intentionally, or unintentionally, teaching its message. Whose are the powerful voices that dictate flying the Confederate flag on state property?

I AM A PROUD SOUTHERNER. I WILL CONTINUE TO BE HORRIFIED AND PROTEST that flag's official use. My retired USAF husband and I will not support its use. We are both white.
Sincerely,
Connie [REDACTED]

As a tax paying United States citizen, I plan to boycott anything further to contribute to the revenue to SC. This is due to the backwards mentality of South Carolina... a state, SO FULL of hate and racism that it has now without any of your concern contributed to domestic terrorism by gunning down innocent black church goers. Apparently, you can't address taking down a state flag, even after one of your denizens ASSASSINATES a Senator!

Your state, under you leadership can start repenting that derelict attitude to address what drives this racist attitude by REMOVING your state flag of the confederacy.

Until then, I'll do everything in my power of truth telling so that I and others can avoid your state. We will tell others to boycott SC, as well.

Governor Haley,

I just wanted to let you know how disappointed I am in your lack of leadership in not calling for the removal of the Confederate flag from our statehouse grounds. This symbol of all that is wrong with our people and our past should have been vanquished to history long ago. Still, after the devastating events in Charleston, not one, but two, in recent days, it stands high as the flags elsewhere are brought to half-mast.

I ask that you, our Governor, lead on this issue by calling for the immediate removal of that old, sad rag. It is time for our great state to truly show its greatness and not stubborn devotion to a miserable and racist past. This racism was not left behind with your election. Please do not cleave onto its old habits. We must send a clear message that the hatred and violence of these latest acts do not represent who South Carolinians are. In fact, those who would hold onto such old burdens should be sent the message that their time is long past.

Most sincerely,

Jessica [REDACTED]

As a born and raised South Carolinian who is proud of my heritage, after watching the events unfold this week, I believe that a move should be made to remove the Confederate Flag from flying on the State Grounds to a prominent place somewhere else. If this flag symbolizes so much despair and hatred to some then WE must remove it and show others that we are truly caring, loving people of South Carolina. I am willing to give whatever I can to mend racial relations across our country. Let no one talk bad about South Carolina or her people. The time is now to act!

To the Dylann Roof's of this country We can finally make a statement. We can finally band together and show this state, nation, and world who real South Carolinians are.

I am willing to do whatever it takes.

 <MSG>

Governor Haley and Senator Graham,

There is not even a category that fits my letter to you on this website. It should be "Bigotry". My heart bleeds for you and your city and state from the recent racial violence there. How positively heart-wrenching the articles are about the murdered god-fearing African American citizens who were shot down there by a misguided Confederacy-focused youth.

The Confederate flag that you encourage to fly over your state house represents bias and bigotry and exacerbates the old hatreds and struggles for dignity and civil rights in your state that have gone on for virtually hundreds of years now. Please let the past go and adopt a more positive symbol for all of your citizens to embrace in unity. It's time to let the Confederacy go with all of the divisiveness and racist attitudes that it represents.

From the New York Times: "It's a total lose-lose issue," said David Woodard, a political science professor at Clemson University and a longtime Republican consultant. "You're not going to make any friends by doing it, so you just leave it be."(The Confederate flag).

He added: "That's a sad thing, but that's the way it will have to be because I don't see anyone who's willing to take it on. There's no politician who's powerful enough to take it on."

I pray for you all to accept a new, more positive identity as a state and a people and to heal your wounds that make you pariahs nationally. I feel certain that you do not want to be known as the home of racial hatred. You can change this. The two of you are strong enough to make this important change with courageous leadership. I pray for you to find a way forward.

Respectfully yours,

Gerry [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley;

I currently reside in California, however my family hails from North Carolina, so I have a bit of southern cred. I find your refusal to take down the confederate flag inexplicable. It still serves at a symbol of racism and rebellion regardless of how you personally may perceive it. I have always wished to visit Charleston, but now would not spend any money in your state on a bet. My husband, as a USPTA professional is asking them to move out their headquarters out of Hilton Head. The south will never quite "Rise Again" until the region puts down the remnants of a failed rebellion. By flying the flag of a defeated cause you promote division and insult the rest of the nation. Just FYI, we are middle class, middle aged white folks and have no axe to grind other than that of common decency

Most respectfully, Madame Governor,

Until this horrible event took place in Charleston, I was never aware that there was a Confederate Flag on the State House grounds in your capitol city. I am planning a trip to Charleston over the 4th of July weekend, but I am thinking of canceling it, because in good conscience, I wonder if I want to spend my time or my money in a state that so freely and openly displays what has become a symbol of hatred and oppression.

For all your tears Madame Governor, if you truly were sincere about healing your state and removing what is fast becoming an ugly perception that the State of South Carolina tolerates racism and hatred, you would remove that flag at once. Even if you had to go out there yourself with a hacksaw.

As our president said, there is a place for a Confederate Flag. In a museum.

I love your state, and my heart and soul was broken when I saw that flag. Please show some leadership and remove it.

Most sincerely,

Teresa M. [REDACTED]

Do you represent some of the people or all of the people? I am a veteran of foreign wars. I have proudly served this great country. I think of you and your nationality and wonder why you still allow the confederate Flag to fly over the State Capital? I think it perpetuate violence and promote divisiveness. We all know the history of the flag and to throw that directly in the faces of African-Americans on a daily bases, I find that appalling! So, my question to you Govenor is how you can go on national TV and talk about healing when you yourself do absolutely nothing to heal your own State! Because of your inaction to stop the ignorance and hate, a young man killed 9 people in a Church and we know the history and continuance of the hate! Yes, we can say it was a lone gunmen. You and I know that it is far more profound than that. And the fact you allow that flag to fly over the State Capital only perpetuate the continuance of police brutality and individuals who think it's okay to be racist bigots. And not only that, to be violent against others. I guesst you sleep well at night as long as it's not your family, right?

After hearing the news of the death of nine congregants in the Mother Emanuel AME Church; including the Minister and cherished member of South Carolina's Senate, gunned down by a young white supremacist, I find it unconscionable that many streets are still named after confederate generals, and over your capitol building flies a confederate flag; a symbol of treason and racism. How can this be a symbol of pride? It may be palatable to some that private citizens fly that flag, but it certainly has no place on property belonging to the State of South Carolina. Please take it down.

I thank you for your time.

I was born in South Carolina (much to my chagrin) and I am very white, so I feel I have a right to request you remove, forever that stupid flag, that you couldn't even fly at half-mast - WHY? I wish this state had been allowed to secede from the Union. The United States of America would be better off without it and it's red-necked flag.

Are you so removed from reality, that you truly don't know the rest of the intelligent, non-racist world views that hideous thing as a symbol of ignorance and racism and "Those poor, inbred, dumb-ass southerners just can't accept there is no confederacy, they lost the war and their lily-white way of life, Thank GOD"

In light of the Charleston Terror Attack, why don't you take a giant leap for southern man/womankind and get rid of that piece of filth?

I am so thankful I don't understand how anyone can be racist, though I accept that many are. Are you, Nikki?

PS: Regarding Topic - I chose Ethics only because you don't have Racism - You really should!!

Your tears, presumably shed over the loss of nine souls at the hands of a son of your state, were as phony as the rhetoric you used to avoid the absolute necessity of removing the symbol of hatred and racist superiority...the Confederate flag. Be a real human being, a serious woman of substance and get that nasty flag taken down as soon as possible and... "by any means necessary."

We have visited Kiawah Island in South Carolina for the past eight years. Typically visiting twice yearly. However, after the killing of 9 black people attending church by a racist white male, and you continue to fly the racist confederate flag on the state capital grounds thus encouraging racial divide and and hatred. This is clear unethical and immoral.

As long as the confederate is flown on the South Carolona capital grounds, I, nor any of my extended family will visit South Carolina again until the flag is taken down. We will be starting a campaign of boycotting you state as a form of protest.

Claiming it's part of the history of South Carolina is no justification. You won't find the Swastika hanging over any parliament in Germany. The confederate flag is no less abhorred.

Take it down and leave it down. Forever.

I chose "ethics" as the subject (since I was forced to choose one) because I feel that, ethically, the legislature of South Carolina must recognize that this symbol of a mythical time and circumstance has no place in our world today. It has become the rallying point for mean, hate-filled degenerates who mistakenly believe it represents a better time. I am a native South Carolinian who comes from South Carolinians who fought under that flag. They, and their descendants, are not proud of that. Now it means awful, hateful things and, certainly, as more and more is revealed about Roof, no intelligent person can believe that that flag deserves a place in the front of our state house. Take it down. Please.

<MSG>

From an ethical perspective, what did flying the Confederate flag from the South Carolina statehouse teach Dylann Root? It appears incongruous that you now call for the death penalty of a man acting in support of an ideology that clearly states: "...the Negro is not equal to the white man". Today is Juneteenth; it is time for the ideology of slavery to end. Please, I beg you, take the Confederate flag down.

Mrs. Haley. As a 50 year old lifelong resident and taxpayer of this great state, my hopes are the confederate flag will be removed from statehouse grounds during your term. It's an embarrassment and does not represent the majority of South Carolinians in 2015. I have always supported the flag, however, in light of recent Charleston events, my opinion has changed as I have come to understand how offensive it may be. Please consider this isn't the 'old south' and we aren't Mississippi (outside of our public education system). It's time to move forward. As a Haley supporter, I hope you share my views. _a house divided cannot stand.

It is a symbol of treason, violence, slavery and, now, a call to arms for low lives who would commit violence and hate crimes.

I can think of no better way to honor the congregation of Emanuel AME Church in Charleston SC than to remove the Confederate flag from the SC Capitol. This would be a significant way to advance the healing of everyone in Charleston - as well as those of us who no longer live in Charleston.

Thank you for your consideration.

I am a white woman and am offended by the Confederate flag. It has nothing to do with what race I am, but has everything to do with what I know about history and how it effects the present. That flag stands for history. Yes, that's what they say and it's true. A hate-filled history that we must not continue to support by flying it high. Why continue to perpetuate hate against our own American citizens? Please don't turn a blind eye. At some point, a SC public official will take a stand, but how much longer will it take? Are lives worth more than a flag? The choice is simple, but you'd have to ruffle some feathers. Ruffle them. Ruffle them and do the RIGHT thing.

The flag has already been taken down from the dome. Did a survey track how many killings this action reduced?

Will there be a burning of SC History textbooks?

Will there be a record kept of the reduction in killings and compared to this time next year?

I have been thrilled to study with by 5 year old grandson, learning of the civil war history.

How will the removal of the flag be enough action to reduce killings? Or is it just to appease one group?

Simple actions using less energy in a more constructive manner could bring better results.

Truly removal of one piece of cloth from historical setting will not bring about change in killings.

Reach those, teach those to change thought patterns and actions. Provide constant vigilance and activities to reach those who have unused time on their hands.

 <MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

This morning on my way to work I drove past the Capitol and saw the flags above the dome flying at half mast as they will for nine days. This effort to honor our dead brothers and sisters in Charleston is a hollow gesture as long as the Confederate flag that gave their killer a sense of pride-and, yes, a sense of legitimacy-flies at ANY height on the same Capitol grounds. While the Confederate flag means many things to many people, one fact is undeniable. It represents a time in our state's history when under the law the life of an enslaved black human being was no more valuable than the life of a horse or cow. It does not represent who South Carolinians are today. I urge you to order the removal of the Confederate flag from the Capitol grounds at this time or, better, to join together with the state legislature to finally do something significant and courageous that will show the world we are ready to put the past behind us and move forward together. I have faith that one day the only banners my children will see flying on the Capitol grounds are ones reminding them that they are citizens of one Nation under God and one State forever united.

Respectfully yours,

David C. [REDACTED]

The Governor needs to kick the General Assembly's body into high gear to initiate removal of the Confederate Flag flying at the State House. I think with it still flying the people who hold racial views feel the government supports their hatred toward people who are different from them.

Honorable Governor,

Don't you think it's time, actually well-past time, to remove that flag? Don't you agree that there is NO PLACE in a modern, SANE society for such a well-established symbol of HATRED & IGNORANCE? Isn't there even LESS justification for a STATE government to display such?

Thank you.

I'm certain you are being inundated right now with demands to take down a symbol that always has and forever will stand for oppression, racism, defiance, treason, slavery and white supremacy. There really are no positive cultural connotations for this horribly divisive symbol, and I'm certain you're presently being made aware of this from Americans all over the country. On behalf of the nine victims of the recent Domestic Terrorist Attack, and on behalf of millions of persons of color the world over, I ask you to assume the powers inherent in your office and Take Down the Confederate Flag! Unless a Government symbol can reflect, in all good faith, the culture of ALL of your citizens, it should not reflect the "culture" of ANY of your citizens. The rights of all must be balanced against the "culture" of a few.

That flag should come down now. It apparently was raised during the height of the Civil Rights movement to show defiance. It belongs in a museum.

It's just terrible that the legislature enacted a foolish law that doesn't even allow it to be lowered to half staff without a two-thirds vote! It's time to fix it even if a special session has to be called to correct the legislature's past error.

Governor Haley,

I am writing as a concerned United States citizen about my recent realization that your state of South Carolina actually allows the flying of Confederate flags...in fact, a picture of your state capitol building shows one flying out in front. In light of the horrific murders that just happened, and considering that the Confederate flag represents for many people in this country the hate, prejudice and violence associated with the KKK, skinheads, and other racist groups, WHY in the world do you allow that flag??? It's 2015...not 1915...that symbol is archaic and obsolete and should be banned from ever flying again. You would do a great service and send a great message by taking it down and passing a law to forbid it ever being seen again. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely, Monique [REDACTED]

Ms. Haley, Just when I thought it could not get worse I found out that in order to remove the confederate flag from state property there must be a two-thirds vote in your congress. I still can't quite take it in. You must realize that by keeping that embarrassing mess of a flag on public property you could easily be accused of state sponsored terrorism. I pray that you will be so charged.

Governor,

My wife and I have occasion to pass through South Carolina several times a year. We usually spend the night, buy food, and gas. This year we spent a week in and around Charleston. Because of your position on the Confederate flag, we will no longer spend any money in South Carolina until the Confederate flag goes to its proper location which is a museum.. We are both southerners whose direct ancestors on both sides fought in the Revolutionary War and in the Confederate army. We are recommending an economic boycott of South Carolina to all of our Florida friends.

Dear Gov. Haley,

Greetings! I'm for the immediate removal of the confederate flag from our state grounds to a museum. It's time to demonstrate humility, compassion and wisdom and prove to the state, nation and our world the mighty love and support we've experienced these last few days was not a fluke but a strong witness of human and Christian love. There should only be our beautiful American and State flags flowing on our grounds.

Thank You and God Bless You!

It seems to me that after the shootings of innocent African-Americans in a house of worship, that not lowering the confederate flag to half mast, added insult to this tragedy. To so many people, myself included, the Confederate flag symbolizes bigotry and hatred. Not lowering the flag to half mast during this tragedy confirms to me that racist attitudes are not only tolerated, but upheld by those in power in South Carolina

Governor Haley,

It's time to remove the Confederate flag from state grounds. It is a racist symbol and has no place being embraced by state government. In light of the horrific anti-black hate crimes recently committed in your state, this should be a no-brainer. Stop giving state-sponsored cover to racists in your state.

Sincerely,

Your heartfelt, emotional response to the tragic massacre in your state was very appropriate and touching. Now, you could honor those that lost their lives by removing the flag of the confederacy as it fought to retain slavery. President Reagan said to Gorbachev about the Berlin Wall, "Mr. Gorbachev, tear down that wall!" Now it is time for you to say to your state's assembly, "take down that flag!"

Please find a positive way to keep our southern flag. It had nothing to do with the atrocity of the young person's actions in Charleston. No more than you were accused of having caused it. Lack of Christian ethics and love caused this atrocity. As America and the world refuse to live as Christ intended us too, things will get worse. After the flag, could come the Christian heritage we share.

One

can already see how it is and has been persecuted. God's word tells us we will be persecuted for following Him. The Bible also tells us to elect Godly leaders and not to give into the "world";.

Some even have used The Holy Bible to cause evil.

"...to say that it's about heritage not hate, is to recognize that for many people it is inextricably about hate. You can't filter out the racism and leave what's pure and historical in the flag, because that purity doesn't exist. Some things are so primitively stained or tarnished by history that that can never be set side. The flag is a perfect example."- Prof. Matthew Guterl, Brown Univeristy

Dear Governor: A year ago I relocated to North Carolina from the west coast with the belief that the south had matured and changed. But after hearing that the State of South Carolina still flies the terrorist sign of discrimination and hatred-the Confederate flag over the state building's, I realized that I will not be visiting South Carolina on any vacation. I thought I would visit the beautiful homes in Charleston but with that horrible divisive sign over the capitol, I will not be making that trip to your bordering state.

 officially sanctioned behavior. We pray for you. We pray for God to protect the USA from people

1. The confederate flag needs to come down, apparently the gov't of SC still likes to think it was a mistake to end slavery?

2. Road funding bills got nowhere - this is a complete failure of leadership, I partly blame the governor, and partly the house and senate. Republicans have failed to effectively govern our state, it's a mess.

3. The tragedy in Charleston was horrible, all the more reason for #1 above. Race relations are still poor, and I don't see the governor leading here. The only obsessions are keeping taxes low, and keeping the union out of Boeing, this doesn't solve all the other issues going on.

I happened to watch you in an interview about the recent Racist, Terrorist Massacre in your State and the interviewer asked you about the Confederate Flag NOT being flown at Half Mast while the U.S and South Carolina Flags were. YOU skirted the issue by saying, "Now is not the time..". Well, I ,and the MAJORITY of Americans think this IS the time to discuss this Racial Symbol of a morbid and disgusting idea that Whites are superior to all. It will Happy Governor, the "Stars and Bars" not being allowed to fly over State Capitols or used in State Ceremonies and you have the choice of either standing up and showing you are against Racism.., or by doing nothing.., showing that you tolerate it and allow it to fester in your State and in this country. Your Choice. You can go down in History as an American.., or you can go down as a Southern Racist.

Please stop defending racism and slavery. Everyone knows what's going on. South Carolina, like the other slave states, has NOTHING to be proud of. In fact, while it still defends slavery, it has everything to be ASHAMED of. You can say it's not about racism or slavery, but that just makes you a coward and a liar. "Cowardice" is the message of the confederate flag.

 Govenor Haley,

I was touched by your show of emotion and speech this morning when I saw you on TV. That is until I saw that the confederate flag still flies on the SC state Capitol grounds. Now your words and emotion seem insincere and more a show than real. A more believable response would have been for you to take the confederate flag down and then make your speech.

Truly, I do believe you are heart broken over this terrible event. Maybe it is time for SC to rethink flying a confederate flag any where in the state.

I would respectfully submit to you, the flying of the Confederate Flag over your state congress building is counterproductive. South Carolina is a warm, wonderful place to visit. South Carolinians during my visits to Charleston, were some of the friendliest people I have been blessed to meet.

I understand wanting to preserve your heritage. However, I cannot understand why a symbol which is considered shameful to a large percentage of your constituents would fly at a place of prominence. If heritage is the message of the flag, South Carolina would be better served displaying it in your museums.

With Respect,

Brian [REDACTED]

I may not be a South Carolina voter but I do have a choice about whether to spend money in South Carolina. If Governor Haley wants to be a leader and act in a way that matches the words she spoke yesterday then it is time for the Confederate flag to no longer fly over the state capitol. Displaying that flag, as Governor Haley knows, implicitly supports the attitudes that produced the shootings. To help change those attitudes, stop displaying the flag now.

 <SUBJECT>Take down the Confederate flag</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

I know that you are sickened by the terrorist act committed in the beautiful city of Charleston. Make no mistake, this was an act of terrorism. The young man who carried this out was obviously motivated by racial hatred, as evidenced by his sporting of the defunct flags of apartheid South Africa and Rhodesia. And yet the flag of the Confederacy--a slave-holding society which has been extinct for more than 100 years--still flies high over the statehouse. You have the opportunity to make a powerful statement to the nation that South Carolina acknowledges that that regime is gone and that the true union of fifty states prevails, that that is the only nation to which we all belong. Do not allow that hateful symbol to persist in defining your state or the South. Removing it will communicate to your African-American constituency that they belong, they are valued, and their lives will not be diminished by historical sugar-coating. You can be a model for other governors and lawmakers across the South. Take it down now.

Your Honorable Governor Haley,

I am requesting for your help in taking down the confederate flag. I am a white female in my 60's. I started dating a black man when I was 16 in 1970 and eventually married him. I was with him until the age of 39. We have one daughter and she has two young black sons. Please believe me when I tell you that having the confederate flag flying anywhere much less the Capital of SC is extremely offensive to me and many, many other people.

Sincerely,

Sally L. [REDACTED]

It is disgraceful that South Carolina flies the confederate flag at full staff when 9 innocent people were gunned down by a right-winged racist. The flag needs to be removed permanently from not only the SC capital building, but across the country. Thank you.

The least we can do is remove the Confederate Flag to a museum where it belongs.

Dear Governor Haley: I am horrified by the shooting in Charleston, as I know you and many others are. Yet, I can't help thinking that the presence of the Confederate flag on the statehouse and other places throughout the state contribute to the divisive racism that continues to plague your state and the south. I love Charleston, but will no longer visit your state as long as the flag is flying and that major streets are named after Civil War generals. Enough is enough.

As a 4th generation native Texan, adopted California and a true daughter of the South, aged 79, I found your concern for the massacre in Charleston hardly the relevant action to have been taken considering your position. It should be up to you as Governor to lead the charge to remove the symbol of the racism that continues to exist in S. Carolina that flies today and will apparently continue to do so. I found your tears to be of the crocodile variety so long as you continue to support the flying of that repugnant flag as well as the NRA. Even as a grew up hearing the n-word I long ago learned about racism as it continues to be practiced in S. Carolina by the majority in State Government. Symbols are important in continuing the kind of massacre of this week.

TAKE IT DOWN NOW! Regardless of the law.

Please show the country you are a leader for change! I plead to you to not let the people who were murdered in your state clearly by a racist divide the country. Again, I ask you to show America of the United States that the time has come to put the divide to rest, just like those who lost their lives on 6/18 will soon be put to rest by their grieving families and friends.

Remove the Confederate flag from your State office, put it to rest! It simply takes an order from you! Show the American people we can respect our history without a symbol that represented the belief of separation of equality, slavery, and so many people who lost their lives.

May peace and strength find your heart,

Dear Governor,

In case you have not noticed, you have made a mockery of the tragedy that just occurred in Charleston by allowing a racist symbol to be flown over the State Capital. You have a lot of nerve requesting the death penalty for an individual who has not been found guilty, but do not have the moral authority to defy the racist minority of your citizens. You and SC are a perfect example of what America should not do or be. Oh, and by the way, your Sharia State Flag doesn't help much either. Good luck living in the sewer you have created. Yall have a nice day.

Sincerely,

John [REDACTED]

Gov. Haley:

The sympathy of a country is extended to the people of South Carolina at this tragic time.

It would be a courageous and bold gesture on your part to order that the Confederate flag be permanently removed from the statehouse at this time. History would long remember you with great respect and affection for such a brave and "right" decision.

Respectfully,

John [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley. While I suspect the motives behind the horrific murders in Charleston are complicated by drugs and mental illness it would seem that it would be best to try to do our best to put the "confederacy" where it belongs-in the history books. The grace and love that the families and friends of the victims of this crime have exhibited are truly beyond belief. How the African American community in South Carolina has responded is also amazing. To be honest it troubles me greatly that of the "racial" events in recent history, the North Charleston shooting and the church shootings are clearly the most horrendous. And yet our people have not responded with violence but with peace and understanding. The North Charleston police did what was right and quickly done but other areas of the country would not have responded like the people of his community did. It may not be a popular thing for you to do among some but I know that you know the right thing to do is to take down the flag that continues to wound a large part of our population. I am a lifelong Republican and I must in fairness admit that I have always thought the flag should go. But at this point I implore you to bring it down. Thank you.

Please find a positive way to keep our southern flag. It had nothing to do with the atrocity of the young person's actions in Charleston. No more than you were accused of having caused it. Lack of Christian ethics and love caused this atrocity. As America and the world refuse to live as Christ intended us too, things will get worse. After the flag, could come the Christian heritage we share.

One

can already see how it is and has been persecuted. God's word tells us we will be persecuted for following Him. The Bible also tells us to elect Godly leaders and not to give into the "world";.

Some even have used The Holy Bible to cause evil.

I ask that you remove the Confederate Flag from the statehouse. It is a symbol of racism to many. If moral reasoning isn't sufficient, think of the impact on business in the state and new business for the state. Imagine how this looks to business in Europe looking for locations in the U.S.

I agree with President Obama, that it is time to put the Confederate Flag in the museum, and take it off the state house. It's time. It's part of our history. That's where it belongs. Other relics of the era are in the museum. Please do it! Please do it now!

Has a place in history, but not our present. Its an embarrassment. There is no fooling anyone, today it is a sign of racism. Look at Dylann Roofs licence tag. Ride through redneck, trailer park, rural areas of South Carolina and they are everywhere. Lets quit fooling ourselves. Think of those kind, Christian souls who were massacred. TAKE IT DOWN!!

Good morning Governor,

In the wake of the evil act of violence that took place this past week in Charleston, I understand that the issue of the Confederate flag flying on State House grounds has once again surfaced and if I may I'd like to share my opinion with you as well as my wife's. See, we had a discussion on the way home from church yesterday and we think there may be a simple solution to a very heated situation. How about we put the matter to a vote? Our concern is this...it is obvious that this symbol of the civil war brings pain to a group of people and whether or not the true history of that symbol warrants such a reaction is irrelevant. It still brings pain and divides us all. But see, this is only my opinion. A member of the Sons of the Confederacy will of course have a differing view. But if this is put to a vote, both of our views are counted. Here is my main reason for writing you today though: I think the ONE point that both sides can agree on is that we would like to see this handled by South Carolinians...period! Please do not wait for the federal government or outside groups to get involved. That is the last thing we need. Let the people of this state decide. I'm confident that we will do the right thing. Thanks for your time.

Dear Governor,

Since I don't have a passport, I will not be visiting South Carolina as it appears from the Confederate military flag flying over your state capital that you are not part of the United States; travelling to South Carolina would be travelling to a foreign country. I hope a national movement to avoid travel to South Carolina follows until South Carolina joins the rest of the United States. What shame to denigrate South Carolina residents and the rest of us who understand that the Confederacy denied universal human rights to most of the residents of the state at the time and that South Carolina is still symbolically doing so. I'd say a national boycott is in order if the flag is not removed. Connect the dots to this week's shooting in South Carolina and help move your state into the 21st century.

Dear Governor Haley,

I wanted to take a moment to express my thoughts about the interview you gave today with Gayle King.

I have always been a supporter of yours, I have voted for you twice and I have to say I have never been so pleased or so proud of an elected official as I was of you this morning.

Your response in answering Gayle King's question that carried the premise that somehow racism is a larger problem in our state than the rest of the nation was both artful and direct. I was especially pleased with your answer about not creating policy right then but that this time was about healing for the people of the State.

Gayle King's statement was offensive in its premise, incorrect, and inappropriately timed. Her question about what she referred to as the "Confederate flag" was thoughtless, rude and uninformed. Myself, I am probably 60-40 in favor of taking it down but I don't see it as a big issue compared to the work we have to do to heal after this shooting. Typical of a liberal, Gayle King chooses to look after a symbol that has nothing to do with the events of the day. That somehow, if that flag wasn't flying in Columbia that Dylaan Roof would have decided to pray in that church rather than kill 9 people.

The last two days have been a horrible nightmare for everyone, and I really appreciated what you did this morning, how you handled yourself and how you represented the State on national news.

Best regards
Bill [REDACTED]

Gov Haley: If you are truly horrified by the church massacre, remove the confederate flag from state capital immediately. It is a blatant symbol of hatred and racism, divisive and hurtful. As long as that flag flies, I will not visit or spend one penny in SC.

Dear Governor Haley,

I'm an Indian American and I am saddened and outraged by the shootings in Charleston. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. As an Indian American, a Hindu, a progressive person, and a justice-embracing individual, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

Sincerely, Sunita [REDACTED]

It is time for the governor to lead the issue of removing the confederate flag from govt. areas. Its time for the governor to grow a set of balls and lead the fight to get this done.

I will not visit your state until this is done. I will look carefully at giving funds to any future political campaigns of yours or your opponents.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Haley,

As the nation mourns the death of your citizens, your heartfelt words of condolences have resonated with me.

However, I must admit that I am confused by the continual display of the Confederate flag-a symbol which brings divisiveness to any discussion of racial tolerance. My family and I are planning a trip South this summer and although we've heard that South Carolina has beautiful beaches, welcoming towns and wonderful Southern cooking; we will bypass a state that continues to fly this unwelcoming flag at their state capital. I hope the issue of pride for one's heritage does not lie in a symbol that has been used to perpetuate hatred.

Sincerely, Giselle G. [REDACTED]

Dear Gov. Haley,

We have a sister and brother-in-law who have a house in Hilton Head. We have often thought of moving to Charleston or Hilton head. We will never move to South Carolina as long as it flies the Confederate flag.

Sincerely yours, Horace [REDACTED]

Governor, I implore you to lead the way for the government Of South Carolina to remove the Confederate flag from the pole of the Capitol. In it's place, PLEASE raise the symbol of our country, the American flag, and let it fly there forever. As a lifelong Southerner and American citizen, I pray that our country can bring good out of the tragedy in Charleston.
