Subject: FMS Conference Hotel Availability Update

Hotel Availability Update

To all of you who have already registered for our 2015 FMS conference we thank you and look forward to seeing you in Baltimore on November 9th and 10th.

To those of you who are planning to attend, but have not yet registered, you may do so by clicking Conference Registration

We encourage you to make your hotel reservations at the Hyatt Regency as soon as possible. There is a citywide event in Baltimore during the week of our conference. As such, hotel rooms are becoming very tight. We have been successful in adding to our "room block" but have been informed by the hotel that additional rooms beyond our "room block" may not be available at our negotiated conference rate.

Please take this into consideration as you finalize your plans for the conference.

Sincerely,

Your team at the National Resource Center for Participant-Directed Services (NRCPDS).
