Governor Haley.

Thanks for all you have done & continue to do for SC. Never have I been so proud to say I am from SC. The way you have handled the shootings in Charleston & taking the Confederate flag down. If you run for governor again you definitely have my vote.

While I have been a faithful and proud supporter of Governor Haley, I must here state my MAJOR disappointment in her call to remove the Confederate Flag from our State House grounds without any consideration shown for the thoughts of those she serves. WHY were we deprived of our right to vote and express our opinion. After all, WE THE PEOPLE of SOUTH CAROLINA have OUR opinion and that should matter to those we elected to represent us! Instead, the media, the mob and the radical left were the only voices that the Governor and our elected officials listened to. I am ashamed of our Governor, our senators and our representatives. They had the opportunity to sight the wonderful response of the AME Church Family to the horrific crime against their membership....and the world took note of it until Governor Haley blurred their vision of the Unity that South Carolina has between whites and blacks. By removing the Confederate Flag she has taken down her own respect and that of our state not to mention the memory of the Godly men and women...white and black who gave their lives for the just cause of Succession. This was most certainly a "sad day in South Carolina!."

Dear Gov Haley, as a long time democrat I want you to know what your leadership in these last 23 days has meant not only to South Carolinians but to the nation. Your commitment to honor those who died tragically at the Mother Emmanuel Church and to keep the focus on how the families of those who died used their voices to forgive and show the nation love is impressive. You have modeled the grace those family members represent and the nation appreciates your compassion and leadership. Thank You. Marsha [REDACTED]

ASHAMED that you caved to the radical/hate/racist left on this issue of the Confederate flag. Mental illness and failed gun registration laws killed those people in that church. The flag and history of the south, had nothing at all to do with this senseless killing. Guns and Flags don't kill, people do.

That flag, graves, public buildings names for southern military men, statues aren't a sign of hate and racism. They are part of the history of the USA. You played into the hands of this racist administration and allowed them to use your state to strike out at others. What will be next: the CROSS, OUR Old Glory?

I'm a retired educator, my past family members didn't fight for the south, but by God I'll fly that flag in respect and for our freedoms. This horrible hate filled president is not going to tell me I can't that it is a hate crime. he is the one full of hate for our country and our Christian values and we must wakeup and fight back to save the United States of America.

There was talk of you being a vice-president candidate, a rising star. that's over now.

We support Donald Trump, TEd Cruz, Ben Carson and scott Walker to save this country.

I am glad I don't live in your state. I think that is the worst thing anyone call tell a governor sorry steve Congrats on letting southern whites know that their families deaths and heritage mean nothing. Did the people of your state vote on the flag or was it just some order you wrote....no vote ? Then you have betrayed the American People and the Republic that we are a part of. How much is special interest paying you ?

Mam,

Congrats again upon dividing this country even deeper. We all understand that the continued persecution of the south will result in civil unrest. Probably the plan all along to declare marshal law. Go ahead you will fail.
When you are out of office you will not be allowed to manage a burger king.
Enjoy the rest of your term knowing you have personally done more to ignite hatred between the races.
Thanks for your time....

Dear Governor:

I just wanted to say thank you for showing such grace, compassion and courage by removing the Confederate flag from the South Carolina state House. I know there are many in your state who cling to that flag in the name of heritage. But there are also people in your state whose ancestors were bought, sold beaten and treated like cattle in the name of that "heritage".

Your actions were brave and courageous. Thank you for reversing your previous defense of that vile symbol of racism and slavery. You truly honored the seven brave souls that were slain in Mother Emmanuel church. Bless you. May God be with you and your state as you mourn their tragic hateful loss.

Sincerely,

Martha [REDACTED]

What happened to our state?

It seems every outside party that comes to this state that complains we change to law to support parties that do not live in this state..

The state should be working to help its people..not outsiders or %2 of the population.

Our state government has gotten weak..we have been told we CAN NOT have tags that say IN GOD WE TRUST because it offended a few people..we had the flag moved because it offended a 'few' people..now its getting removed again because some one went into a church and killed 9 people...Guns killed these people not the flag..lets remove guns out of peoples hands.

At one time we were proud to part of this state..we stood up for ourselves..our state government stood up for its people..now our state government rolls over EVERY TIME someone that is not a citizen of this state complains. What happened to protecting its people? Not once has our government allowed its people a right to vote on these issues..instead politicians are hurting the people in this state to do for others and try to make a political name for themselves..

Our state officials are a embarrassment to its people and shown they have not intention to do for the voters of this state..Its a sorry day and very sorry government in this state to allow these things to keep happening with voters inputs..yet they rather have outsiders to tell them want to do...

If your looking for a something to make a name for yourself..this is going to be the thing to harm your political career.

Please do research before making dumb laws that make you look dumber..its amazing our own government does not know our own state history. God must love stupid people he made alot of them and most run this state!

Ms. H

I am really disappointed that you would undermine our Confedearte flag and what it truly stands for. The blacks (it seems) have taken over government and the officers in our government. Including Govs. like you. The next thing they will call for is, to rename the White House, the Black House. The blacks that were killed in that terrible church shooting should be remembered. But taking a flag down because the were shot by some cowardly man? What's the point? My impression of you is: you thought that would give you some chance of being part of the upcoming Presidential race. I think you want to be called to be someones VP. But that is another story. You are a beautiful young lady on the outside. BUt taking the flag down wasn't right. The truth in history (you evidently didn't read) is the warring tribes in Africa sold the losing tribes to the slave traders. It was blacks selling blacks. Period. But the blacks won't take responsibility for that. They want anything that is Free, especially gov. give-aways. And march? They march and burn their own homes and businesses down. This to me shows their mind set. This country is in terrible shape. And you helped dig the hole deeper.

Under normal conditions I would say you should be ashamed of yourself for desecrating American history be removing the Confederate flag. At the same time, I can't blame you since as an immigrant you cannot appreciate the rich and traditional history of the great state of South Carolina. The only thing you did was keep the track of political decisions based on social trends alive much like the SCOTUS and POTUS. I truly hope you enjoy the time you have left in office and the population of South Carolina remove you from the Governor's mansion so you can join the handful of racist supporter that applauded as the flag was lowered and sent to a museum. Maybe the next Governor will be a true Southern American that will appreciate what that means.

Just so you know, lowering that flag had nothing to do with a troubled child walking into that church with a gun. It just gave you an excuse to make some political "cool points". I hope you are proud of yourself. Maybe if you'd served this nation's military and walked a post or a patrol in defense of this nation you would have a better clue how to serve your state and this nation.

Governor Haley. First to introduce myself. I'm a 71 year old Grandma, a lifelong Democrat, living in Sausalito near San Francisco, originally from NY, raised my kids in Brookline (near Boston), and we've lived on the west coast since 1990. I worked as a Corporate Planner for Blue Cross & Blue Shield, a Development Director for various nonprofits, the Manager of a family fund, and for the past 15 years I've been a developmental editor and writing coach with clients including authors, agents and publishers. My grandparents were Jewish. I grew up Catholic. I graduated from Tulane (Sophie Newcomb), and I attended (though did not complete) graduate school at Emory. I'm a member of Glide Church - www.glide.org - in San Francisco, a "radically inclusive" Methodist congregation. My daughter and grandchildren are mixed racial. My son is a rock 'n roll musician here and in Europe. Enough about me. I want to introduce myself as a new fan of YOU - and I have a feeling there are lots of us. Thank you for your eloquence, dignity and conviction when the Confederate flag was taken down in Charleston last week. If you choose to run for a national office, and if you don't oppose choice (a bedrock issue for me) may I ask to work for your campaign on the west coast? I also have many useful ties on the east coast and in the south. There couldn't be a better time to begin. Cheers! - Ann [REDACTED] [www.\[REDACTED\].com](http://www.[REDACTED].com)

I was sick and sad as I watched the Confederate Flag lowered yesterday. It has never represented hate for the blacks. Our ancestors fought for states rights and the freedom to govern our own states and not be controlled totally by the federal government. much like today! You said on CNN that you didn't want people to feel hurt when they see our Confederate flag. yet how much do we who lost our war and ancestors feel when we drive by to see it missing. Another defeat rubbed in our face???? I feel completely sorry for the nine innocent victims killed in church. but I also feel sorry for the over 260,000 soldiers who lost their lives fighting for what they believed in. A crazy person killed those sweet people. NOT THE FLAG!!!!!! If you were actually from the south you might understand it better.

sincerely,
Gwenn [REDACTED] Alabama native.

Okay...so I am going to go on a soapbox for tonight. First of all, for anyone that truly knows me, you know that I am not a racist person at all. I believe that each person will be judged by One being, and that is not myself so...to each his own. I have to be judged when my time comes just the same. I hope no one is offended by this, but my First Amendment right as an American Citizen gives me the Freedom of Speech and Freedom of Expression and I am going to exercise those Rights for just a minute. If you have a problem with it, feel free to message me because I am not going to go into a bashing session on here. Now...here are my issues over recent events:

A flag does not cause someone to hate someone else no matter what one may believe that flag to stand for. And really people...grow up...there is NO ONE alive on this earth today that did anything to any of your ancestors (Black, White, Latino, or any other race), so stop blaming each other for things that went on hundreds of years ago. If the hate is in your heart, then no matter how many symbols get removed the hate will still be there...I'm sure that he looked at that flag every day and in his mind said...wow, that just makes me want to go shoot and kill people at a black church in Charleston because it makes me hate them so much...(I say that very sarcastically because I do not believe at all that the flag is why it happened). Now on the flip side to this...let's remove the African American Memorial from the State House grounds as well as any other monuments or memorials that are Ethnic based and could be offensive to others.

Since Nikki Haley thinks she has ended the hate by removing a flag, then how about doing more...like getting our homeless veterans that fought for this country off of the streets and provide for them the way they should be provided for. After all, they are the reason you have been able to have the freedom to speak your mind over this flag deal or any other protests that may come or have already come. And it really bothers me to see everyone smile so big because a piece of fabric has been removed from a flagpole. but these things all seem to be okay. That is such a huge victory. Well guess what people...there are still people of different races sleeping on the streets tonight because they have no where to go. There are still those begging for meals or dying because they can't afford a trip to the doctor. There are still white on white crimes, black on black crimes, gang wars, drug dealings, robberies, rapes...and what do any of those crimes have to do with that flag you are so proud to be having removed.

How about providing disability benefits for those that actually need it because they really cannot work due to mental, physical or emotional issues. I know way too many people getting paid "under the table" while they are collecting that monthly check from the government. I also know people that will get that attorney to just say they have this or they have that just to get them a check because they do not want to work. They would rather stay high all day/night from drugs paid for from that check they do not deserve!!! I also personally know too many people that truly cannot work because of health reasons and have been to doctor after doctor to confirm it, but yet they have to get an attorney and fight for what could be years before finally being approved. Not to mention possibly losing their homes, cars or barely scraping by just for a meal because they can't make a living or get the help they deserve and need.

And the welfare thing. let's just give handouts to those that keep having kids and not working, even though they are perfectly capable to do so. They use the food stamps to trade for drugs instead of providing for their kids (and yes I have seen this first hand with people more than once). Why are we not random drug testing them before they get that monthly assistance??? I have to be tested in order to get a job and could have a random test at any time just to keep my job.

And why should a doctor not be required to treat you with the same dignity and care as someone with high dollar insurance just because you cannot afford to have that same insurance? People are being released from hospitals with little to no care for serious issues or injuries because they don't have the insurance to cover the treatment needed and then having major problems later. This just leads to more doctor visits and medical expenses. Now, if you can't afford the "good insurance", then how in the heck are you going to afford the extra visits??? No one should be refused proper treatment for anything just because they don't have the insurance hospitals or doctors prefer you to have in order to get the treatment you need. There should be a medical oath to that nature!

I don't mean for this to be directed at everyone who receives assistance or are stay at home moms/dads or single parents that work really hard to take care of their families. I just know that I work very hard for the things that I do have and I am sick and tired of seeing my hard earned money go to support some of those that do not deserve it or are using it for the wrong reasons.

And by the way...I may be of Irish descent and German descent, and I happen to come from a very strong Confederate Ancestry, but all in all and truth be said...I am an AMERICAN and very proud of it!!!

I am who I am and it is what it is. Okay, off the soapbox and that is all. Hopefully I don't lose any friends on here over this. I sure wouldn't just delete you for having your opinion and expressing it.. Like I said, the First Amendment gives every American Citizen that right and I just chose to use mine tonight. Sorry for such a long post, but now my rant is over. Goodnight everyone :)

How dare you take down the Confederate Flag because of some upstart with obvious emotional issues. Put the Confederate Flag where it belongs on the capital building below the United States Flag.

Why are you rewriting history for one indigent? Besides who said President Obama isn't behind this whole thing in the first place. One last hurrah before he exits? Tell the President to mind his own business and stop interfering with state's rights and state's issues. For a Native American you really aren't that bright are you?

I am from the north, Pennsylvania. Ive been following the news: the church shootings, the flag debate and so forth. Let me say I am white and a Christian, and am sorry for the terrible act that occurred in the last few weeks. The debate over the flag is certainly a very emotional one. My family and I live a mere 12 miles from Gettysburg.(that town is actually our county seat) We all know the fame that town holds as the turning point of the Civil War. (Frankly, I am inclined to sympathize with the confederacy on some issues, but not for the reason of slavery!) Slavery was and would still be a very unfortunate part of our American history. I am also aware of your life history, having read your book. We have it at our home. Ive told my wife that Nikki Haley is a level headed woman, and you have our respect and support. We also read in your book about your conversion to Christianity. Good for you, all the while still respecting your heritage. God bless you and the people of South Carolina.

Dear Honorable Governor Haley,

I am very appalled at seeing your removal of a historically significant part of South Carolina's history but more so with how you jumped on this subject immediately, for no reason other than some ulterior motive, and have caused a ruckus across the South like no other governor.

I do understand you have no family heritage tied to the South, and for that, it matters little. What I do care is how you incited this rallying cry to remove all of the heroes of the South from existence - "tear them all down". they're crying now and all because of your hasty action. There are even calls now to remove the monument to Andrew Jackson and Robert E. Lee in New Orleans and so many other famous monuments that dot the South, some over 130 years old.

You grew up here and have been handed a very good life due to your hard work and effort, that I do admire and is a great example to all and especially women. What I'm afraid of is that you never grabbed what it means to be from the South, for Blacks or Whites. In a way it appears you hold some kind of animosity towards the South in general, but I hope that's not the case.

My God, Governor, why would you do this fast after the atrocity at the church!? Where is the outrage over the drug epidemic where both legal and illegal pharmaceuticals, some of which I'm sure you're very familiar with. And the weapon the deluded young man used to kill those wonderful people? Where was the immediate attack on that!? You cared more about a flag than the drug epidemic, the murder epidemic going on in all parts of this nation.

The point of my address to you is simple. I'm disappointed in what you started and disappointed with what your legacy might be.

You can offer a peace offering with an address to the people of the State who did respect and adore the flag in the proper context for which it was supposed to fly.

As you well know, the monument celebrates the citizen soldier whose state taught them "How to live and how to die.." ... "From her broken fortunes she has preserved for her children the priceless treasures of her memories, teaching all who may claim the same birthright that truth, courage and patriotism endure forever."

Does truth, courage and patriotism for her State lie with Governor Nikki Haley? Can you courageously talk, one on one, with those in some honorable leadership like the Sons of Confederate Veterans, about the flag? Let them know that monument to CSA soldier is a monument that stays? I think that would be the right thing to do.

I am, Respectfully Yours.

Dear Gov. Haley, I wish to thank you for your courage in reversing your stand on the flag issue. But I have a wish that you will look at Bill 3025 if it reaches your desk. The fact that the gun should never have been in the hands of the killer at Mother Emanuel and the FBI made an error and the dealer knowing the search was still pending could sell the gun after 3 days speaks to my heart and I hope yours. My husband is a retired SC State Constable. He feels very strongly about this also.

Without licensing and checks he wonders how many other killers could have gotten guns. With IS speaking to our youth, how many more? As a mother and grandmother I am appealing to you. Susan [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

Now that the Confederate flag has been taken down, we Americans really do need to thank you.
 The Race baiter, Pres Barack Hussein Obama will now hold his comments on white on black police shootings, white on black crime. Reverend race baiters Al Sharpton, and Jesse Jackson will suddenly stop milking the people of their hard earned money to stir up hate, violence and destruction through rioting. Blacks and Whites will now come together in hugs, handshakes, and good will, right?!? right?!? RIGHT?!?

The people of South Carolina should have had a say through a vote. This is just another example of Govt. overreach, TYRANNY. The voters will have the FINAL SAY come the elections.

Thank you,

Dear Governor Haley,

I find it disapointing to see so called republicans give in to the racial arsonists on the left by wrongfully vilifying the confederate battle flag. This is an American flag and an important part of a turbulent part of history. Over 600,000 AMERICANS died in the civil war, many fought for the confederacy. This was a war over succession, states soverienty and most who fought for the confederacy did not own slaves. The battle flag is not a flag of oppression, racism or slavery and it had nothing to do with the hateful racist murderer who took the lives of innocents at the Mother Emanuel Church in Charleston. You should have defended this flag for the important history that it represents and to honor memory of the thousands of honorable men who died fighting for it. It is regrettable but you have been had.

The Confederate Flag was not a symbol for slavery as the far left Communist claimed. white and black men fought and died for that flag. If you want to remove all memories of slavery, go out and tear down all remaining plantations where slaves were owned, forced to live and beaten, and burn the fields that they were forced to work in. These are the reminders of slavery, not the flag.

Governor Haley, I would like to commend you on how you handled the Charleston tragedy and on the removal of the confederate flag from the Capitol grounds. I was born and raised in South Carolina and have not always been proud of this State, but I am very proud of the way your office and the people of Charleston has acted during this trying time. There was no burning and looting. The people acted with dignity and respect. So proud. On another matter, I am requesting that you reconsider accepting the Affordable Act Care for South Carolina. I am originally from Marlboro County and I just came back to California from burying my mother. I cannot say that my mother would have lived longer if SC had the affordable care act, but I am worried about the people in that live in that county. The hospital closed in April and the residents have to travel a long distance to get to a hospital. I was told that the hospital left because South Carolina does not have the affordable care so they could not be guaranteed to received their money. Please reconsider for the poor residents of your state. I live in California now and this is not an issue for us, but I worry about my family members and friends, especially the elderly. I look forward to hearing a response from you. Thank you.

Nikki, It takes guts to take a step in moving a southern state away from a symbol of the south to help races come closer. It was the murder of 9 Christians that facilitated this action. Now you have an empty flagpole. It would be the perfect time to put the Christian flag on the pole to further honor the murder victims. With the war on God that the Federal government is pursuing, it would also take guts. Being a Christian yourself you know that you and your state would be blessed for taking a stand for God. Don't worry, you have backed Obama down before and this action might show him up for what he is and get his mind off his agenda for a while...lol.

Madame Governor, you are a gutless coward. You would not dare attack, disrespect, or desecrate the black culture, but you have no problem doing it to the whites. That flag did not climb down from that pole and murder those people in the church. All you have done is deepen the racial divide and anger the white community. I am ashamed and embarrassed to hear you call yourself a conservative.

Dear Governor. We love your state. But, we have been sitting on the fence hesitant to purchase a retirement home in SC because of racial issues in your state and were appalled at the senseless murders in the Church in our favorite city, Charleston. We waited until we saw whether the flag issue would be resolved sensibly. Congratulations on showing the courage to push for its removal. We purchased property in SC the very next day after the crucial vote and your signature, and today signed a contract for new home construction. We are very liberal democrats but send our best wishes to you and our gratitude for your leadership. The credit you are receiving is well deserved! John and Ruth [REDACTED]

I understand your decision to remove the Battle Flag will be made shortly. I would like to post my opinion as a taxpayer. Many lives were lost fighting for the rights to fly this flag, on both sides of the war. The flag does not separate people any more than guns kill people. People separate themselves and guns don't kill, people kill. The individual who went into the church in Charleston and shot those innocent people was a tragedy, however, he is a sick individual to even think of doing such a thing. We have that in all races. There are racists of all colors, although you only hear of one side anymore. The police officers cannot even do their job for fear of being called racists. If you take the flag, what is next? The US Flag? Is there any end to this insanity? I have felt prejudice against by the black race. If this flag is racist, isn't the NAACP racist? Both blacks and whites have lost their lives fighting for this country. This is part of our history. Please consider the thoughts of many people that are not heard when deciding the future of the Battle Flag.

CNN Blown Away By How Many Americans See Confederate Flag As Southern Pride

According to a recent public opinion poll, the majority of Americans still view the Confederate flag as a symbol of Southern pride. This is a relief, given that the media has been attempting to paint it as a symbol of racism following the Charleston shooting.

Liberals and several politicians have called for the removal of the flag from public places. The controversy began after the Charleston shooter who took the lives of nine African-Americans was scene in a picture with the flag.

Gov. Haley:

Some see the Confederate Flag as a symbol of racism and slavery. Do you know what I see as a symbol of modern-day slavery--the Lowcountry Regional Transit Authority Buses coming to Hampton County and other lowcountry counties before sunrise to pick up black men and women to transport them to Hilton Head Island to work as servants to those damn yankees who have come south to live on the Island and who condemn past slavery while they pay low wages to these poor blacks who leave home before sunrise and return home often after sundown. Of course, in Hampton County jobs have dried up but that is no excuse for the service industry on HHI to take advantage of these poor people--modern-day slavery.

As you know by now 80% of the up state voters want the flag left alone .That's coming from a liberal rag The Greenville daily worker . The race baiters will not stop with the flag ..Examples Wal-Mart BMW ,General Lee reruns. NASCAR . Monuments .Streets named after General Lee . . What will be next Kentucky Fried Chicken ? Water Melons ? Stand up to the race baiters . The tragic slaughter at Charleston AME has evolved into a vehicle for the liberal press & bovine waste slingers .If Obama can light the white hose in LBG colors .Let my heritage colors fly over the state house .  <SUBJECT>CORRUPT. BLACKMAILED, OR JUST PLAIN STUPID?</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Dearest Governor Haley,

You are a prime example of either the product of the Board of Education in their quest to dumb down America or the political system working full bore in its agenda to destroy America through public corruption. Thus, quite clear and simple are you corrupt, or just plain stupid? How can you represent South Carolina when you lack any knowledge of its history? If your answer is to claim stupidity, where did you attend school? Were you taught the skewed version of the Civil War by the Board of Education? If your claim is not stupidity then you were clearly bought and paid for, or blackmailed to bring down the Confederate Flag! In either case; this action should disqualify you from holding any public office!

TIME FOR YOU TO GET AN EDUCATION ON SOUTH CAROLINA HISTORY AND THE CIVIL WAR:

THE Civil War was not about SLAVERY! As proof of this one only has to look at the facts that Lincoln attempted to author his version of the 13th amendment which proposed that "No amendment shall be made to the Constitution which will authorize or give Congress the power to abolish or interfere within any state with the domestic institutions thereof, including that a person's held to labor or service by laws of said State." Thus, why would the Southern States, South Carolina included, wish to secede from the Union over slavery? The only thing the South had to do was accept Lincoln's 13th Amendment which would have guaranteed the continuation of slavery! Hence, why would the South go to war over slavery when Lincoln was in full support of continuing slavery? To further support the issue, one can be find in the resolution passed with overwhelming support by the U.S. Congress of July 23, 1861, "The War is waged by the government of the United States not in the spirit of conquest or subjugation, nor for the purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or institutions of the states, but to defend and protect the Union." So, who is right? Is the US Congress declaration of war against the South in an attempt to force them not to secede from this federal tyranny as shown through numerous documents, or was it about slavery despite saying actually the opposite? Can you tell me of one, just one, ship that flew a Confederate Flag and was used to transport slaves? That's right you won't find one! However, you will find that many of these ships flew the: British Flag, Dutch Flag, Spanish Flag, Portuguese Flag and even our wonderful United States government Flag. Thus, if any flag of the US was associated with slavery, it was the U.S. Flag! YET, NO ONE SEEMS TO BE TRYING TO BAN THAT ARE THEY? In fact take a look at the following flag pictures and tell me which one blacks would find more offensive!

<http://ts4.mm.bing.net/th?id=JN.7MOQDrnnJ5ih%2f2jiNVSFVw&pid=15.1&P=0>

<http://ts1.mm.bing.net/th?id=JN.ompvL5i0%2b68Cuuy0boyodw&pid=15.1&P=0>

<http://ts3.mm.bing.net/th?id=JN.NnajyC0MS%2bxu9FGoWyRUeQ&pid=15.1&P=0>

By the way, can you tell that the pictures of Dylan with the Confederate Flags were photo shopped? Amazingly can you tell me who provided the photos? Would you be surprised that it was by the same person who funded the Ferguson Riots? Yes, once again this fighting between individuals, namely black and whites, is by none other than George Soros. He just happens to be the main financial power behind the SPLC, Southern Poverty Law Center that magically had these produced in less than 12 hours from the noted incident. One should also note that for a person like Dylan who supposedly hated blacks, he had many black friends on his Facebook account.

Please answer the following questions:

Explain why cops would holster their guns prior to approaching the (car door) of what is supposed to be a mass murderer.

Explain why cops would open the front door of the police car, until one cops tells another that he needs to be put into one of the back seats, then finally a back door of the car for Dylan to be placed is opened.

Explain why as heard from the conversation between the cops and dispatch that the car was actually in the location as told to them by the news agency. >> seems to be an ongoing case of news media knowing everything before it takes place.. Just like Sandy Hook, Boston Bombing and 9/11 News Media was first call to Sandy hook shooting, 9/11 news states WTC falling 20 minutes before it happens, Boston Bombing - the guy promoted to run FEMA following the event was caught on video telling everyone to stay calm that a bombing drill would be taking place in five minutes, and now the media was the one to call in the car and its whereabouts to the police - not the FBI or other federal agency... REALLY? IS ANY OF THIS REALLY BELIEVABLE TO YOU? ARE YOU SUCH A FOOL THAT YOU WILL BELIEVE ANYTHING YOUR TOLD?

See attached video

https://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=player_embedded&pv=rnBPPuHrmF8

Explain why a person who is supposedly a racist and killed 9 persons due to race magically had numerous BLACK friends on his Facebook account.

Explain how magically this event just happens to take place at the same time as the South Carolina legislators are trying to pass legislation to ban and bring down the Confederate flag. I'm sorry but I don't believe in miraculous events just happening to take place when there is at the same time legislation that needs a little pushing to get accepted to pass certain legislation, just like the convenient gun legislation that was sitting ready to try and be jammed through due to the fake Sandy hook shooting, and just like the legislation to SPY ON ALL AMERICANS AND GO INVADE IRAQ FOLLOWING GOVERNMENT INVOLVED ATTACK ON ITS OWN CITIZENS . HOW CONVENIENT THESE EVENTS SEEM TO TAKE PLACE WHEN THERE SEEMS TO BE A NUDGE TO GET ACCEPTANCE BY POLITICIANS TO PASS LEGISLATION!!!!

Explain who magically made these photos available to the public! Could it be the SPLC, Southern Poverty Law Center, which is magically backed by the same person who was paying for rioters in Ferguson. Yes, the wonderful George Soros!

Who took these photos? They weren't selfies!

Also compare the photos of the build of the person arrested verses the build of the person sitting on the car. One is 5'9" around 120-125 pounds, yet, clearly the person arrested in the car has a build of around 6' and 150-170 pounds. I would notice this first hand as I have a son who is 5'9"-5'10" and actually weighs 120-125 pounds.

Why was there no video of Dylan leaving the church?

Why was there no video of Dylan's car leaving the church and a copy of the license plate number revealed?

Why was there no Biological Hazmat Team called into clean up the horrific blood from the deaths?

Why was the church not cordoned off as a crime scene? And magically within 5 days the church is back open for services? REALLY?

Now explain who turned off the video after Dylan roof entered the church.

Next explain why someone would kill all but one! And then this contradicts that there were actually two persons that were taken to the hospital.

Next explain why magically around the same time there just happened to be an active shooter threat instructor training program being done by DHS/FEMA, just like the Boston Bombing, Sandy Hook, and even 9/11.

COINCIDENCE?

Now explain why if he was truly a mass murderer would the cops take Dylan Roof out to Burger King, or even buy him a meal after arresting him depending on which story one believes, because he told them he was hungry. Explain why someone would drive so far to do this to this specific church and legislator when there are numerous black churches closer to his home in Lexington SC.

Explain why if he had 6 months of planning, there wasn't much planning involved and magically he was arrested within 24 hours. How and who found him again? How did they know who he was, his name etc. in less than just a few hours with no license plate, no nothing other than the supposed photo? Again 6 months of planning he had no plan to change vehicles or even clothes seen at the event, nor change of hair color or even plan on money needed to eat while on the road? Likewise, that many shot at close range and no blood on his clothes? REALLY?

Last but not least:

U.S. to fast track $29 million to help Charleston shooting victims' families

Reuters ^ | June 19, 2015

Posted on 7/6/2015 1:04:41 PM by grundle

WASHINGTON (Reuters) - The Justice Department will fast track the sending of $29 million to South Carolina to help families of victims of the mass murder of nine churchgoers at a historic black church in Charleston, a Justice Department spokesman said on Friday. Really, what makes their deaths worth millions, when over 40 black persons are killed per week in Chicago? If you're black and killed by a white person your family should be paid millions! Was there money fast tracked by the Justice Department to pay Kathryn Steinle's family 3.2 million for being killed by one of Barry Soetoro's illegal aliens? Why NOT? Where did the DOJ just happen to magically have 29 million dollars on hand for this event? Was anyone really killed or was everyone provided new identities and a couple million for playing their part in this Charleston production?

Now let's cover one final fact of why he would leave one black person alive to say hey, it was him and he did it because he hated blacks! Really? If one truly hated blacks he would have left a message stating as such, not fabricated by news agencies and federal agencies! He would have left a message and sure as hell wouldn't leave a black person alive if his goal was to kill blacks. Likewise, with 6 months of planning as stated, he could have went to a Sunday Service and killed a good 50-100, as his intention according to the media was to take his own life after the killings! Just not believable! Six months of planning I would easily know if there were surveillance cameras, how to disable them, and take any video evidence with me. Let us not also note that there are plenty of black churches around his own city where he lived! However, we are to believe he drove a couple hours to a church in Charleston, that mind you just happens to be conducting another DHS active shooter drill like that of sandy hook. The fact is the government needed some people killed or faked their deaths for a political agenda! Try not to kill too many or a majority of people will ask too many UNANSWERED QUESTIONS: kill too little it won't be a hard enough impact on emotions to get the legislation passed! If the goal was to kill blacks then one would have kept killing more, not just 9 then stop and flee!

Now let us look at the history and facts of slavery and the Confederate Flag. Lincoln launched his war to force the South to submit to the same taxation from the Federalists, as that of which the original 13 colonies fought to free themselves from the British rule. Next is the fact that not only had the slave trade to the New World ended in 1808; there was only a small fraction of Southerners who even owned slaves. However, since the Board of Education's inception, the United States history has been re-written numerous times and indoctrinated on the masses over decades to believe the Civil War was about SLAVERY. The truth is the North, "THE FEDERREALISTS", feared the South and their right to secede, as the North could not retain POWER without the taxes being forced on the South. Saying the South did not have the right to secede from the corruption and tyranny they saw playing out by the leaders in the Northern states is like saying that America did not have the right to secede from the British due to their government tyranny and taxation on the colonies! Lincoln in truth was a DUMB patsy for the rich elites, and when they found out that Lincoln was finally going to take a stand against them and their corrupt and illegal establishment of a system to continue taxing the Americas for the British ruling class, was when he was assassinated. Immediately following his execution the British ruling class finally attained their goal with the establishment of Washington DC and the illegal US CORPORATION of 1871. Don't take my word on it, research the Act of 1871. The civil war accomplished the agenda of the British ruling class to continue their ability to tax the American people to this given day! Yes, ever since we have continued to pay taxes to the British ruling elites. By these greedy, corrupt, and sick individuals who have never seen human beings as nothing more than "chattel to be bought, sold, and killed (culled) at their enjoyment!! If you don't believe me research it! Queen Beatrice was even found calling a majority of the population as "useless eaters" and even was quoted as stating that it was almost time for the "GREAT CULLING" to begin.

We continue to see stories leaked about these rich sycophants being involved with occults, pedophilia, and sex slave market. So again, tell me the Confederate Flag stood for SLAVERY, IT DID NOT! The Confederate Flag stood and will stand again when people awaken to the truth that it stood and stands for TAKING A STAND AGAINST OPPRESSION and TYRANNY! The Civil War was in-truth brought about by the rich elitists to ensure their establishment of illegal control over the masses, while at the same time establishing a separate court where this new CORPORATION could not be sued or held accountable to "THE PEOPLE!" These sycophants had to destroy the economy to force the others who were not compliant with their agenda to accept financial assistance by these elites for which the American colonies would be beholden to for eternity. First came the destruction of the country by enticing confrontation among races, social classes, and religious sects which was followed by construction and then in steps these same sycophants to be accepted as the great saviors of everyone from that which they had controlled to make happen unknown to the public. Next, establish funding by this ruling sycophant class to rebuild the nation through their financial assistance. Next, control those who represent the masses to ensure that all illegal laws incepted and pushed onto the public is for the benefit of the ruling elites. This is what we have continued to see to this day, and we just happen to rename it from instituted slavery to NATION BUILDING. We continue to see this, this very day! Every single country that these sycophants have taken control of through what is today called the (IMF) International Monetary Fund, was incepted by them to install complete control. We have seen this same game plan play out, time and time again, country after country, as they fall prey to these predators of what today we call the Banking System and the ruling Cabal. Amazingly look at our own illegal FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM which is not only unconstitutional but also illegal, as they had no authority to produce fake money at no cost to them and then lend it to Americans and be paid back with things of worth. This was why our country's monetary system was to be based and backed by gold and precious metals. Thus, two presidents who were going to end this illegal system were amazingly assassinated, ie both Lincoln and JF Kennedy.

Guess what two major countries these criminal sycophants have yet to control by establishing their banking system into is? If you guessed Syria and Iran you would be correct! The same two countries that the US wants destroyed!! The US has been portrayed over and over as great liberators of countries while in truth these countries have become beholden to these same banking elites who take their orders from the sycophants that the US itself has found itself beholden to. They control the laws that ensure the party system which are both controlled by these criminals through bribery, extortion, and blackmail. This is why the American people have birth certificates that are in-truth bonds of indentured servitude which are then bought and sold by one's projected worth of what they will earn over their lifetime. Check out your own birth certificate, this stuff just can't be made up! This is what the "GREAT CULLING" is all about and why the Board of Education works hard for their masters to keep the masse dumbled down! An intelligent society who has a thirst for knowledge and truth is a danger to these criminals! The masses are awakening and learning in part because of the internet and this has brought great fear to these "RULERS" as they know without the elimination of the masses to that of a controllable number their very own lives for their past and present actions (crimes against humanity) are endangered by an enlightened masses. This is why now they have their pawns in Congress and the Senate working hard at taking control of the INTERNET, as they already control the propaganda media which is owned in its entirety by only six families. That's right all the media print and visual in the US is controlled by only 6 families!

One last issue that must be addressed on the issue of the Confederate Flag and the issue of slavery is the statistics of slavery. The NORTH had 20-33% of all slaves in the US from 1861-1865, and despite the end of the Civil War the north continued to own slaves until the 1880's. In truth the slave trade was ended in 1808 but it was the invention of the cotton gin and other agriculture technical improvements that brought about the end of slavery as it was cheaper not to house and feed 100 slaves to do a job that could now be done with a handful of paid persons (seasonally) and equipment. This is what today is known as the cost-benefit factor of doing business. Thus, if the Civil War was about the north fighting to free the slaves then why were there even slaves in the North? Next, why did over 300,000 slaves fight for the south during the Civil War? Let us not also forget that 2% of the slave market was in-fact owned by other blacks and that back in Africa tribes and even tribal leaders from the same tribe were capturing those they feared would relinquish them from their ruling class and selling them to the slave traders at huge profits to them (the blacks of Africa) ie..they were bought and sold by their own race! Likewise, nearing the end of the war when Lincoln decided to try and push through the 13th amendment that everyone points to is a joke on his real stance and beliefs (read his own leaders between himself and leaders of other countries). When Lincoln introduced this legislation many Northern soldiers deserted the battlefield. Likewise, known fact is that the Emancipation proclamation only freed slaves owned by the South, not slaves owned by those in the North. There is even the fact that a year into the war, President Lincoln wrote a letter to the New York Tribune stating, "If I could save the Union without freeing any slave, I would do it; and if I could save it by freeing all the slaves, I would do it; and if I could save it by freeing some and leaving others alone, I would also do that." Lincoln also was a lifelong advocate of sending every last black person in the U.S. back to Africa, Haiti, or Central America; just as long as it was anywhere but in the United States.

According to the U.S. census, in South Carolina in 1830, about a fourth of the NEGRO slave masters owned 10 or more slaves. Likewise, according to economic historian Stanley Engerman, "In Charleston, South Carolina about 42 percent of free blacks owned slaves in 1850, and about 64 percent of these slaveholders were women." Greed, in other words, was gender-blind. As more proof that blacks were every bit entwined with the buying and selling of slaves one only needs to read William Ellison's fascinating story as told by Michael Johnson and James L. Roark in their book, Black Masters: A Free Family of Color in the Old South. At his death on the eve of the Civil War, Ellison was wealthier than nine out of 10 white people in South Carolina. He was born in 1790 as a slave on a plantation in the Fairfield District of the state, far up country from Charleston. In 1816, at the age of 26, he bought his own freedom, and soon bought his wife and their child. In 1822, he opened his own cotton gin, and soon became quite wealthy. By his death in 1860, he owned 900 acres of land and 63 slaves. Thomas J. Pressly, using Woodson's statistics, calculated that 54 (or about 1 percent) of these black slave owners in 1830 owned between 20 and 84 slaves; 172 (about 4 percent) owned between 10 to 19 slaves; and 3,550 (about 94 percent) each owned between 1 and 9 slaves. Crucially, 42 percent owned just one slave. By the 1850's blacks owned 2% of all the slaves in the South as shown by the Census Bureau. Pressly also shows that the percentage of free black slave owners as the total number of free black heads of families was quite high in several states, namely 43 percent in South Carolina, 40 percent in Louisiana, 26 percent in Mississippi, 25 percent in Alabama and 20 percent in Georgia. That's right 43% of all freed blacks in South Carolina owned slaves themselves.

IN 1861 THERE WAS 15 SLAVE STATES
 OF THE 15 - 11 WERE SOUTHERN
 4 WERE NORTHERN

SOUTHERN STATES HAD:
 TOTAL POPULATION: 9,132,173
 TOTAL # OF SLAVES: 3,521,125
 NUMBER OF FAMILIES: 1,033,898
 TOTAL FREE POPULATION: 5,611,048
 TOTAL NUMBER OF SLAVE HOLDERS: 316,638

PERCENT OF FAMILIES OWNING SLAVES: 30.63%
SLAVES AS A PERCENT OF POPULATION: 38.56%

NORTHERN STATES HAD:

TOTAL POPULATION: 22,051,409
TOTAL # OF SLAVES: 858,802
NUMBER OF FAMILIES: 4,121,530
TOTAL FREE POPULATION: 21,192,607
TOTAL NUMBER OF SLAVE HOLDERS: 67,335
PERCENT OF FAMILIES OWNING SLAVES: 1.64%
SLAVES AS A PERCENT OF POPULATION: 3.9%

TOTAL NUMBER OF SLAVES 1861-1865: 4,379,927
6,333 OF SOUTHERN SLAVES OWNERS WERE
THEY THEMSELVES (BLACK)

ONLY IN THE SOUTH WERE BLACKS ALLOWED
TO OWN OTHER BLACKS

316,638 - 6,333 = 310,305 WHITE SLAVE OWNERS IN THE
SOUTH
TOTAL WHITE SLAVE HOLDERS: 377,640
PERCENTAGE OF SLAVE HOLDERS WHO WERE BLACK: 2%
PERCENTAGE OF SLAVE HOLDERS IN THE SOUTH: 80.17%
PERCENTAGE OF SLAVE HOLDERS IN THE NORTH: 17.83%

04 NORTHERN STATES = 4.4575% EACH OF TOTAL SLAVE POPULATION
11 SOUTHERN STATES = 7.2882% EACH OF TOTAL SLAVE POPULATION

Thus, accordingly the North had 20% of the slave market according to the stats I used which were conservative. Other stats dictate that as much as 30% of all slaves were owned by the North and that 5% of all slaves were owned by other African Americans. If the north was so against slavery why did they not immediately free their slaves?

Why did many blacks fight on behalf of the Confederacy if it was about slavery?

So as we can see the premise that the Confederate Flag represents slavery is totally in error. In fact one can make the inference that the flag that represented slavery was the US flag; as it was this flag that flew on many US maritime ships that transported the slaves during the slave trade!

So again I find the premise or even hypothesis of the Confederate Flag to represent hatred and slavery of blacks completely erroneous.

Now that we have established facts, not emotion but FACTS, and numerous unanswered questions that anyone with half a brain would want to have knowledge about prior to making a brash unsubstantiated decision on in referencing the removal of a symbol of heritage, and not to mention its historical importance in the fight against tyranny from public viewing/display. Thus, one is left to ask "were you dumbed down through the board of education and their indoctrination propaganda, or are you just corrupt and getting paid off or blackmailed into your chosen action?"

My daddy always said "If you believe everything, you'll fall for anything!"

Start with facts and base an action on truth and fully answered questions rather than on emotions!

By the way I myself am from Washington State originally and have taken up residence in the South for the last 20 + years after leaving military service where I worked as an Intelligence Analyst, so I guess I would be considered a Yankee! Also of note I am neither a Republican nor a Democrat as I find them both to be the same party for the rich and corporations, not to mention the thief of civil liberties!

I patiently await your answers to my questions. Likewise, these answers or lack of answers to them will be made available to the propaganda media, Main Stream Media, and numerous internet sites that focus on disseminating truth and real facts to the public.

I thank you for your time and assistance on learning how one could turn their back on the heritage of the South and its fight against tyranny! If you can prove and even answer these questions fully then I would gladly admit publicly that I was wrong about you either being just plain stupid or corrupt for your action taken against your own state and heritage! However, if you cannot then my assumption must stand as correct! In either case if found incompetent on the knowledge of Southern History, or just plain corrupt, both should call for your immediate removal from office, as you have either proven yourself incompetent or too corrupt to truly represent "The People" of all colors in an honest way!

Dear Governor Haley,

I grew up in Goose Creek, S.C., but have not lived in the state for many years. Full disclosure - I am an Independent and likely would not have voted for you if I did still live in S.C.

That said, I still would like to commend you on stepping up and leading the state during these past weeks since the shooting in Charleston. It's not often that we get to see a public servant step up in the way that you did and, frankly, it is inspiring to see!

When the news came out about the shooting, many of my friends remarked to me that it would be another Ferguson type situation. I told them with all of the confidence in my heart that Charleston was different, and that they would see the community come together. When the community did rally around the victims, their families, and the church, it was reaffirming to witness.

On your decision to lead the effort to remove the Confederate flag.....

I believe that your decision may have been your finest hour! I also believe that you have an incredible opportunity in front of you. Today, our country needs someone who can lead us in that QUANTUM LEAP for race relations. You and the people of South Carolina have shown the rest of the country what this leap looks like. I just pray that you would seize this opportunity to continue to lead our (yes, S.C. will always be my home state) state in being the model for the rest of the country.

Lastly, I must confess that after witnessing your fearless and compassionate leadership over the course of the past month, you HAVE earned my vote and you're right. It's a GREAT DAY IN SOUTH CAROLINA!

All the best, Governor.

Sincerely,

Mike [REDACTED]

Governor Haley, I do not have an issue with the removal of the Confederate flag but I do not believe the flag is a symbol of hate. My concern is the fact that we focused so much money and time on an inanimate object that cannot cause death or harm. We never addressed the status of mental health in the state of South Carolina. As an educated woman you know that terrible acts against society are often rooted in mental illness. We no longer have the proper number of agencies in South Carolina to deal with the problems of mental illness. It is very difficult to find a psychiatrist for those with problem and it is almost impossible to find help for the youth of South Carolina because of the lack of personnel and facilities.

In an interview that I saw on TV, you said that there was weight lifted from you because of your decision. You have not done anything to solve the problem in South Carolina and you have not been an example for the nation. You took the easy solution and I am so sorry for the families of the people that have lost love ones to individuals that are not stable and need the help of a professional.

Please take the time to:

Evaluate the agencies that address mental illness in South Carolina.

Find a way to encourage competent personnel to relocate to South Carolina or to encourage young people to follow a professional track that would aid South Carolina in resolving this issue.

Increase facilities that address mental illness.

Recognize that we, the people of the United States have a problem with mental illness.

Support the family unit, since the family is the basic unit that provides appropriate mental health.

All people in the nation deserve to be safe and we must work to protect all people. We must show love and compassion to all people. Solutions to problems are difficult and the example of love by all the family members of Emanuel AME Church in Charleston was amazing. This should be an example and a call to work harder to prevent such a horrible act.

Thank you for your time and I hope that you will be part of the solution that helps restore mental health to South Carolina and the nation.

You're obviously too stupid to be anything but a politician and know nothing of the South's history or that of the Civil War because if you did you would know that slavery was the 3rd most important issue to the South, following State's rights and citizens rights. They already saw the erosion of State sovereignty and individual's freedom in the North which continues to this day and were far more concerned about those than slavery. Today, the Confederate flag stands for individuality, freedom, a free spirit, "I live life my way" attitude and has NOTHING, NOTHING to do with slavery or racism! Stupid politically correct bitch, and all the idiots in the House & Senate that went along with this nonsense. Just Obama's little bitch, aren't you? Puppet for the New World Order. You've succeeded in one thing, assisting that Muslim traitor and coward Obama in furthering the worsening of race relations because now you've really pissed off a bunch of White people, exactly as you intended to do. I mean, you know, a flag causes a Manchurian candidate whack job crazy person to shoot Black people just like forks and spoons make people fat; cars by themselves cause car wrecks; writing a letter makes you Ernest Hemingway, and so fourth. Stupid politically correct bitch.....just part of the agenda, isn't it? We, the people promise you this, especially after your despicable performance, and that of the NBC interviewer, on the communist network NBC, your political career is dead. We are making it our lives work to remove everyone of you stupid traitors from office; via the vote, via recall, whatever means is available, and send you home to whatever you did before; go back to stealing from whomever it was you stole from before, especially you. You make us puke. How the hell did something as obscene and dumb as you become Governor of South Carolina? Wow, this State is done for....just like your political career. That IS a promise....

I understand, but will the flags be destroyed? I would rather possess and care for at least one instead of seeing it destroyed. I also work with several museums and am a Living Historian (Reenactor). The real issue is not the flag and what it stood for. It is a proud Battle Flag that came to represent the men of the South and their perseverance. People who do not know their history are doomed to repeat it. The ones who are trying to erase our history are the very ones who do not know it and do not care to.

Thank you for your response.

Governor Hailey. Things would have went a lot better at 10:00am this morning but watching the video, it was a disgrace to the men Black and White who fought for this state. But I talked with many from State House yesterday and understand they offered many other suggestions and were turned down. If what they say about the Memorial that will be placed in the museum that will be done by the state for our Heritage, we will see if that ever takes place, you standing on the state house steps smiling while our flag we voted on to be placed there was coming down, was you so into yourself that you could not see right at our monument the American flag being flown upside down? That should have been removed asap but wasn't, and also rolling our flag like it was a News Paper, really it should had been folded, I am so sad that something that was suppose to unite people has snowballed into a Nation being more divided than ever before, it is like we have taken 50 years back in time. Senator Shane Martin explained to me, his reason for his vote to remove the flag. Really that should had been explained to others and I am sure it would have had made a more positive reaction. Not just because 9 black people were killed by a very EVIL boy, which was so horrific and I pray for the families to find some peace in all this craziness that is going on, I understood Senator Martins research and history lesson that should be taught to everyone on the issue of the Confederate Flag. Black and White people all. I feel very sad that the decision made was not delayed, maybe if it had of been, the issues the whole nation is having, maybe would not be happening, NAACP is taking the credit for this decision, And I am sorry the NAACP and the KKK are the most racist groups in the Nation, and they should be banned from every state, but SC should be the first to make that move maybe then other states would follow just as they have followed us in removing the flag from State House Grounds. I pray for us all as to what is coming, Don't believe the 9 precious lives that was taken would want what is happening to be happening. We as a state started this Nations serious divide, hope some how SC can turn this into a positive peaceful thing it was meant to be. Good luck to you Governor Hailey and the rest of our people we voted for, we all need to pray to GOD this unreal reaction can be turned around. I pray very hard, One question does the NAACP and the KKK not fall under the RICO ACT? I know it is used a lot in Biker Clubs, just a question. Thank you for your time.

Dear Ms. [REDACTED]

Thank you for taking the time to contact us. These have been very difficult times for South Carolina, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and the communities shaken by this tragedy. Their grace and strength set a powerful example for us all.

Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing – not by talking about issues that divide us – but by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We came together as a state, as a unified people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process.

We've also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us. For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage. For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired by the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel A.M.E. church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds. This is a moment in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina. God bless.

My very best,

Nikki R. Haley

After learning about what you did concerning the disposal of the Confederate flag made me realize something. Other people don't understand tradition or faith in this culture as you had said on CNN. Yes, hate was the motive. Instead of waiting for next years April 26 to go to Brazil that has also Southern tradition and do a publicity on it pandered to public pressure. This would have definitely would show a broader appeal on voters base. The chance now squandered only reinforced stereotypical notion of bigotry and hate. People like me that had gone through being hated in highschool by other groups. wasted.

I believe it is correct for the Governor to push for removal of the Confederate Flag from the grounds of the State Capitol. I also think that she should push to shut down BMW's plant in Greer.

The Confederate flag represents slavery 150 years ago. BMW used slave labor 75 years ago.

Dear Governor Haley,

At this moment in the history of South Carolina and the south as well as the United States, I want to add my heartfelt pride in the decisions made by South Carolina regarding the flag. But mostly, I am happy about the love of God the Father and the spirit of forgiveness that I have found in South Carolina today. You see, I am descended from slave owners and have always thought that perhaps the Ashley Wilks family, written about in the book and movie, Gone With the Wind, came from the history of my family-the James Patrick and Catherine Montgomery Calhoun family of South Carolina. I am directly descended from three of their five children-Ezekiel Calhoun, James Patrick Calhoun jr., and Mary Catherine Calhoun (Noble.) Yes, cousins married cousins in my family.

I am a member of the DAR, Daughter of the American Revolution, via two men you would know from South Carolina history, General Andrew Pickens and Alexander Noble. I am also directly descended from Alexander Noble's son, Patrick Calhoun Noble, Governor of South Carolina until he died in office in 1840 and William Calhoun, brother of John C. Calhoun, former vice president of the United States via James Patrick Calhoun, jr. You might wonder why I am writing this letter today, listing my ancestors. I am doing this because a part of me was in all those men, and I wanted you and others to know that I have repented of the sins of my ancestors as the Bible says to do. As a born again Christian, I disagree with all their views on race relations; I love everybody, including my enemies, and I especially love my fellow believers. How I wish the families of those killed in that church could know this, if not the entire state of South Carolina, could know that I feel a kinship with the families of the nine and that I wept with them. Please forward this letter to them and others if possible. However, there is one thing I do admire about my Scottish ancestors, the Calhouns, and that is their love of family. I learned at an early age to love everyone who was remotely related to me, and as a born again Christian that love grew to include everybody else.

My branch of the Calhoun family left the Deep South at the end of the Civil War. We have lived in Texas ever since then, but I will always love the State of South Carolina.

Today at seventy-nine years of age, I am still married to my college sweetheart, and we have three grown sons and six grandchildren, all Texas cowboys and cowgirls. The song says "Mama, Don't let your babies grow up to be cowboys." But all of ours did.

I am also a Christian author, and I would like to give you a free copy of my newest Christian Gothic historical, Gatehaven. Reply to his message if you would like a copy and include your e-mail address or your home mailing address if you want the book in paperback.

I think you will like Gatehaven because the story ends in Charleston (Charles Towne) in 1784. Ian Colquhoun, the Scottish hero of the novel, settles in Charles Towne, where he marries the heroine. By the way, Colquhoun is the original spelling of the name Calhoun.

Love in Jesus Christ,

Molly [REDACTED]

Governor Haley, I would like to commend you on how you handled the Charleston tragedy and on the removal of the confederate flag from the Capitol grounds. I was born and raised in South Carolina and have not always been proud of this State, but I am very proud of the way your office and the people of Charleston has acted during this trying time. There was no burning and looting. The people acted with dignity and respect. So proud. On another matter, I am requesting that you reconsider accepting the Affordable Act Care for South Carolina. I am originally from Marlboro County and I just came back to California from burying my mother. I cannot say that my mother would have lived longer if SC had the affordable care act, but I am worried about the people in that live in that county. The hospital closed in April and the residents have to travel a long distance to get to a hospital. I was told that the hospital left because South Carolina does not have the affordable care so they could not be guaranteed to received their money. Please reconsider for the poor residents of your state. I live in California now and this is not an issue for us, but I worry about my family members and friends, especially the elderly. I look forward to hearing a response from you. Thank you.

While I am a Democrat from the West Coast, and I generally disagree with the Republican platform, I applaud your courage in requesting that the Southern Cross flag be removed from your states capital grounds. I am sure that this decision was very difficult for you as many in the South believe that this flag represents their heritage. That being said, I think there are many more people in the South, and throughout the country, that feel that this symbol is disrespectful to African Americans. It greats great courage to do the right thing, especially when most of your colleagues are waffling. Thank you for making this country, and this world, a little better place.

Dear Governor. We love your state. But. we have been sitting on the fence hesitant to purchase a retirement home in SC because of racial issues in your state and were appalled at the senseless murders in the Church in our favorite city, Charleston. We waited until we saw whether the flag issue would be resolved sensibly. Congratulations on showing the courage to push for its removal. We purchased property in SC the very next day after the crucial vote and your signature. and today signed a contract for new home construction. We are very liberal democrats but send our best wishes to you and our gratitude for your leadership. The credit you are receiving is well deserved! John and Ruth [REDACTED]

 <SUBJECT>Southern Battleflag</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

In AD 2001 the State Flag of Georgia was removed by the Governor of Georgia and the legislature against the will of the people. Governor Roy Barnes, a democrat, was governor. Later that year in September, the Islamic terrorists kidnapped airliners and flew them into the Twin Towers in New York. Instinct tells us that the theft of the state flag and the later putting aborted children on sale in August of that year by President Bush were in part the cause of the fall of the Twin Towers. Ever since the theft of the state flag of Georgia and the sale of aborted bodies, the USA has been engaged in endless war. For 14 years there has been a steady stream of wounded and blinded American soldiers. When the government tries to extricate the USA from the war, something always prevents it. The unending attack on the USA by the terrorists is unabated.

We think similar evil will come from the attack on the Southern Battle Flag in South Carolina and the attack on the grave of Confederate General Nathan Bedford Forrest in Memphis. The attacks are coming from Black hate Groups, the News Media, and the heads of the national republican and democrat parts that are imposing a dictatorship of the parties over the states. The Georgia and South Carolina were destroying their children with abortion, alcohol, homosexuality, marijuana, and other evils for the evil groups lifted up by legislation, referendum, and decrees by the Supreme Court. As South Carolina government removed the Southern Battle Flag for the Black Hate Groups and the News Media, it was destroying the people and the children in the hundreds every year by alcohol and thousands by abortion. Governments have become puppets that kill the people under masters of the political parties. They kill for money under orders of the chieftains of the political parties.

The corrupt news media cheers with great fan fare as the states attack the Battle Flag and destroy their children with the abortion. homosexuality and alcohol that the news media are addicted to.

Madame Governor, you are a gutless coward. You would not dare attack, disrespect, or desecrate the black culture, but you have no problem doing it to the whites. That flag did not climb down from that pole and murder those people in the church. All you have done is deepen the racial divide and anger the white community. I am ashamed and embarrassed to hear you call yourself a conservative.

Never again will I spend one of my hard earned dollars in your ridiculous state. This whole Confederate flag issue was a rouse. You were just looking for an excuse to remove it, and used this tragedy in its place. When it was removed from the dome of the State House and put on the grounds, it was a COMPROMISE that all agreed to. However, you cannot seem to honor your agreements. You may try to change history, but you cannot erase it. I was born in SC, but from this day forward I will tell no one that. If you can change history, then so can I. Thank God I live in another state now. You may have removed one flag, but 10,000 have been put up all over the country in its place. Since my history means nothing to you, your silly state now means nothing to me.

As a former south carolinan. I am very disappointed in the caving of the administration over the confederate battle flag being flown over a confederate memorial. since this was removed the African American memorial must be removed as the African memorial was a compromise to flying the confederate battle flag at a confederate memorial, and now the compromise has been broken. you said you are trying to give people a reason not to hurt. well you just hurt the thousands of families whose ancestors bled the ground red during the civil war. no you spit in their faces. My family fought in the civil war. they never owned a slave, they were simple farmers keeping out of it. until the northern troops came and burned down the farm and slaughtered their livestock. that would make any man take up arms against the north...reason not to hurt. well you just gave the families of those confederate dead a lot of reason to hurt. and most feel now that they will be treated like a criminal act to honor their dead. Rest assured come election time my family still in South Carolina and many like them will turn their back on you as you did them.

I had always felt that I would one day be voting for you as THE 1st woman President. your stance on the confederate/rebel Battle flag makes that an impossibility now. I am not a hater and this is not a hate message. Just wanting you to know that I will be looking for another REAL Republican candidate who understands (the preservation of) history as being very important. We cannot white-wash it away. Take the flag down if you must. but that won't change people's hearts/minds if they are haters...The flags' absence won't change things for those few ignorant people (white and black and others) who (still) see that flag as a symbol of hatred/bigotry. MOST white people do not view blacks as inferior people. etc. and most young black adults do not really know and appreciate the real horror of the civil war or the KKK as their parents and grand-parents did. just as most Christians cannot really understand the horror and humiliation Jesus suffered by being crucified. Although slavery was indeed an issue in the civil war, it was more about state's rights against Federalism. etc. Slavery was just a convenient issue and social phenomenon of the day that got highlighted and blown out of proportion. We all seem to need a refresher course in our own history and get some perspective on it. I find it weird that Brazil had over 5m slaves and has never been villified while the U.S. & U.K got slammed for their involvement in the slave trade. I am glad that slavery has ended. but blacks need to do some of the work to see themselves more as Americans now and less as Africans and victims. Thank you for this forum to be heard. Governor Haley, I was sorry to see the Confederate Flag come down but I do understand the reasoning behind doing it. I wanted to ask if there could be some legislation to protect the Confederate Flag? I'm 63 years old and I stopped flying it about 40 years ago because of the abuse it has received all my life. Motorcycle gangs, the KKK, and just about anybody else can use it for whatever their agenda is. I would prefer it to have a place of Honor and Respect. How about asking the lawmakers to protect the Flag. It shouldn't be made into towels, shouldn't have "Don't Tread On Me" slapped on it, and the such. Protect it. Plus by requesting this it may defuse some of the folks who are so very angry and the Flag's removal.

I was born and raised a Yankee several years ago I moved south. I had no problem with the flag or any monuments of Confederate leaders. You have proven that it is more important to cater to a group of racist blacks. Explain this 7 people died and 40 others injured in Chicago no Confederate Flag yet the dead and wounded were black. I guess it is more important to pander to a few of obama's puppets than to respect the past. Your actions and the result remind me of ISIS destroy any symbol of the past and paint a surreal fantasy world. You have opened the door to a slippery slope that moves the nation further toward it's demise.

Subject: The Confederate Flag Needs To Be Raised, Not Lowered -Megyn Kelly, Fox News

Ladies and gentlemen, I submit that what we see happening in the United States today is an apt illustration of why the Confederate flag was raised in the first place. What we see materializing before our very eyes is tyranny: tyranny over the freedom of expression, tyranny over the freedom of association, tyranny over the freedom of speech and tyranny over the freedom of conscience.

In 1864, Confederate General Patrick Cleburne warned his fellow Southerners of the historical consequences should the South lose their war for independence. He was truly a prophet. He said if the South lost, "It means that the history of this heroic struggle will be written by the enemy. That our youth will be trained by Northern school teachers; will learn from Northern school books their version of the War; will be impressed by all of the influences of History and Education to regard our gallant dead as traitors and our maimed veterans as fit subjects for derision." No truer words were ever spoken.

History revisionists flooded America's public schools with Northern propaganda about the people who attempted to secede from the United States, characterizing them as racists, extremists, radicals, hatemongers, traitors, etc. You know, the same way that people in our federal government and news media attempt to characterize Christians, patriots, war veterans, constitutionalists, et al. today.

Folks, please understand that the only people in 1861 who believed that states did NOT have the right to secede were Abraham Lincoln and his radical Republicans. To say that Southern states did not have the right to secede from the United States is to say that the thirteen colonies did not have the right to secede from Great Britain. One cannot be right and the other wrong. If one is right, both are right. How can we celebrate our Declaration of Independence in 1776 and then turn around and condemn the Declaration of Independence of the Confederacy in 1861? Talk about hypocrisy!

In fact, Southern states were not the only states that talked about secession. After the Southern states seceded, the State of Maryland fully intended to join them. In September of 1861, Lincoln sent federal troops to the State capital and seized the legislature by force in order to prevent them from voting. Federal provost marshals stood guard at the polls and arrested Democrats and anyone else who believed in secession. A special furlough was granted to Maryland troops so they could go home and vote against secession. Judges who tried to inquire into the phony elections were arrested and thrown into military prisons. There is your great "emancipator," folks. And before the South seceded, several Northern states had also threatened secession. Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island had threatened secession as far back as James Madison's administration. In addition, the states of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware were threatening secession during the first half of the nineteenth century-long before the Southern states even considered such a thing.

People say constantly that Lincoln "saved" the Union. Lincoln didn't save the Union: he subjugated the Union. There is a huge difference. A union that is not voluntary is not a union. Does a man have a right to force a woman to marry him or to force a woman to stay married to him? In the eyes of God, a union of husband and wife is far superior to a union of states. If God recognizes the right of husbands and wives to separate (and He does), to try and suggest that states do not have the right to lawfully (under Natural and divine right) separate is the most preposterous proposition imaginable.

People say that Lincoln freed the slaves. Lincoln did NOT free a single slave. But what he did do was enslave free men. His so-called Emancipation Proclamation had NO AUTHORITY in the Southern states, as they had separated into another country. Imagine a president today signing a proclamation to free folks in, say, China or Saudi Arabia. He would be laughed out of Washington. Lincoln had no authority over the Confederate States of America, and he knew it.

Do you not find it interesting that Lincoln's proclamation did NOT free a single slave in the United States, the country in which he DID have authority? That's right. The Emancipation Proclamation deliberately ignored slavery in the North. Do you not realize that when Lincoln signed his proclamation, there were over 300,000 slaveholders who were fighting in the Union army? Check it out.

One of those Northern slaveholders was General (and later U.S. President) Ulysses S. Grant. In fact, he maintained possession of his slaves even after the War Between the States concluded. Recall that his counterpart, Confederate General Robert E. Lee, freed his slaves BEFORE hostilities between North and South ever broke out. When asked why he refused to free his slaves, Grant said: "Good help is hard to find these days." The institution of slavery did not end until the 13th Amendment was ratified on December 6, 1865. (NOTE: Despite the 13th amendment to the U.S. Constitution, ending slavery as of 1865, an estimated 1,500 to 3,000 Indian slaves remained in bondage in New Mexico in 1867. This abominable practice was only purged from New Mexico in the last years of the 19th century, or when the last generation of Indian slaves were individually freed or died of natural causes.)

Speaking of the 13th Amendment, did you know that Lincoln authored his own 13th Amendment? It is the only amendment to the Constitution ever proposed by a sitting U.S. President. Here is Lincoln's proposed amendment: "No amendment shall be made to the Constitution which will authorize or give Congress the power to abolish or interfere within any state with the domestic institutions thereof, including that a person's held to labor or service by laws of said State."

You read it right. Lincoln proposed an amendment to the U.S. Constitution PRESERVING the institution of slavery. This proposed amendment was written in March of 1861, a month BEFORE the shots were fired at Fort Sumter, South Carolina.

The State of South Carolina was particularly incensed at the tariffs enacted in 1828 and 1832. The Tariff of 1828 was disdainfully called "The Tariff of Abominations" by the State of South Carolina. Accordingly, the South Carolina legislature declared that the tariffs of 1828 and 1832 were "unauthorized by the constitution of the United States."

Think, folks: why would the Southern states secede from the Union over slavery when President Abraham Lincoln had offered an amendment to the Constitution guaranteeing the PRESERVATION of slavery? That makes no sense. If the issue was predominantly slavery, all the South needed to do was to go along with Lincoln: and his proposed 13th Amendment would have permanently preserved slavery among the Southern (and Northern) states. Does that sound like a body of people who were willing to lose hundreds of thousands of men on the battlefield over saving slavery? What nonsense!

The problem was Lincoln wanted the Southern states to pay the Union a 40% tariff on their exports. The South considered this outrageous and refused to pay. By the time hostilities broke out in 1861, the South was paying up to, and perhaps exceeding, 70% of the nation's taxes. Before the War, the South was very prosperous and productive. And Washington, D.C., kept raising the taxes and tariffs on them. You know, the way Washington, D.C., keeps raising the taxes on prosperous American citizens today.

This is much the same story of the way the colonies refused to pay the demanded tariffs of the British Crown -- albeit the tariffs of the Crown were MUCH lower than those demanded by Lincoln. Lincoln's proposed 13th Amendment was an attempt to entice the South into paying the tariffs by being willing to permanently ensconce the institution of slavery into the Constitution. AND THE SOUTH SAID NO!

In addition, the Congressional Record of the United States forever obliterates the notion that the North fought the War Between the States over slavery. Read it for yourself. This resolution was passed unanimously in the U.S. Congress on July 23, 1861: "The War is waged by the government of the United States not in the spirit of conquest or subjugation, nor for the purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or institutions of the states, but to defend and protect the Union."

What could be clearer? The U.S. Congress declared that the war against the South was NOT an attempt to overthrow or interfere with the "institutions" of the states, but to keep the Union intact (by force). The "institutions" implied most certainly included the institution of slavery.

Hear it loudly and clearly: Lincoln's war against the South had NOTHING to do with ending slavery--so said the U.S. Congress by unanimous resolution in 1861.

Abraham Lincoln, himself, said it was NEVER his intention to end the institution of slavery. In a letter to Alexander Stevens, who later became the Vice President of the Confederacy, Lincoln wrote this: "Do the people of the South really entertain fears that a Republican administration would directly, or indirectly, interfere with their slaves, or with them, about their slaves? If they do, I wish to assure you, as once a friend, and still, I hope, not an enemy, that there is no cause for such fears. The South would be in no more danger in this respect than it was in the days of Washington."

Again, what could be clearer? Lincoln, himself, said the southern states had nothing to fear from him in regard to abolishing slavery.

Hear Lincoln again: "If I could save the Union without freeing any slave I would do it." He also said: "I have no purpose, directly or indirectly, to interfere with the institution of slavery in the states where it exists. I believe I have no lawful right to do so and I have no inclination to do so."

The idea that the Confederate flag (actually, there were five of them) stood for racism, bigotry, hatred and slavery is just so much hogwash. In fact, if one truly wants to discover who the racist was in 1861, just read the words of Mr. Lincoln.

On August 14, 1862, Abraham Lincoln invited a group of black people to the White House. In his address to them, he told them of his plans to colonize them all back to Africa. Listen to what he told these folks: "Why should the people of your race be colonized and where? Why should they leave this country? This is, perhaps, the first question for proper consideration. You and we are different races. We have between us a broader difference than exists between almost any other two races. Whether it is right or wrong I need not discuss; but this physical difference is a great disadvantage to us both, as I think. Your race suffers very greatly, many of them, by living among us, while ours suffers from your presence. In a word, we suffer on each side. If this is admitted, it affords a reason, at least, why we should be separated. You here are freemen, I suppose? Perhaps you have been long free, or all your lives. Your race is suffering, in my judgment, the greatest wrong inflicted on any people. But even when you cease to be slaves, you are yet far removed from being placed on an equality with the white race. The aspiration of men is to enjoy equality with the best when free, but on this broad continent not a single man of your race is made the equal of a single man of our race."

Did you hear what Lincoln said? He said that black people would NEVER be equal with white people-even if they all obtained their freedom from slavery. If that isn't a racist statement, I've never heard one.

Lincoln's statement above is not isolated. In Charleston, Illinois, in 1858, Lincoln said in a speech: "I am not, nor have ever been, in favor of bringing about in any way the social and political equality of the white and black races. I am not nor ever have been in favor of making voters or jurors of negroes, nor of qualifying them to hold office, nor to intermarry with white people; I will say in addition to this that there is a physical difference between the white and black races which I believe will forever forbid the two races from living together on social or political equality. And inasmuch as they cannot so live, while they do remain together there must be the position of superior and inferior, and I as much as any other man am in favor of having the superior position assigned to the white."

Ladies and gentlemen, in his own words, Abraham Lincoln declared himself to be a white supremacist. Why don't our history books and news media tell the American people the truth about Lincoln and about the War Between the States?

It's simple: if people would study the meanings and history of the flag, symbols and statues of the Confederacy and Confederate leaders, they might begin to awaken to the tyrannical policies of Washington, D.C., that precluded Southern independence -- policies that have only escalated since the defeat of the Confederacy -- and they might have a notion to again resist.

By the time Lincoln penned his Emancipation Proclamation, the War had been going on for two years without resolution. In fact, the North was losing. Even though the South was outmanned and out-equipped, the genius of the Southern generals and fighting acumen of the Southern men had put the Northern armies on their heels. Many people in the North never saw the legitimacy of Lincoln's war in the first place, and many of them actively campaigned against it. These people were affectionately called "Copperheads" by people in the South.

I urge you to watch Ron Maxwell's accurate depiction of those people in the North who favored the Southern cause as depicted in his motion picture, "Copperhead." For that matter, I consider his movie "Gods And Generals" to be the greatest "Civil War" movie ever made. It is the most accurate and fairest depiction of Confederate General Thomas Jonathan "Stonewall" Jackson ever produced. In my opinion, actor Stephen Lang should have received an Oscar for his performance as General Jackson. But, can you imagine?

That's another thing: the War fought from 1861 to 1865 was NOT a "civil war." Civil war suggests two sides fighting for control of the same capital and country. The South didn't want to take over Washington, D.C., no more than their forebears wanted to take over London. They wanted to separate from Washington, D.C., just as America's Founding Fathers wanted to separate from Great Britain. The proper names for that War are either, "The War Between the States" or "The War of Southern Independence" or, more fittingly, "The War of Northern Aggression." HOPE YOU ARE PROUD I WILL NEVER VISIT YOUR STATE AGAIN FOR THE SHAME YOU HAVE BROUGHT TO THIS NATION

Governor Haley,

This is NOT A GREAT DAY IN SOUTH CAROLINA as the person says when they answer your phone.

I as a white American male feel like every day we just continue to hand over everything and anything to the NIGGERS! Yes I never called blacks niggers but now I do . I never owned a confederate flag T shirt and now I do .I never owned a confederate flag license plate for my car now I=C2=A0. I=C2=A0D=O NOT FEEL IT IS MY HOUSE WHEN I DRIVE BY IT =C2=A0ONLY BLONGS TO =C2=A0THE=NIGGERS!

I am not even from the south.=C2=A0I am from the north.=C2=A0Moved to the Atlanta area over 20 years ago and retired as a Police and Ems(that never gets acknowledged in America always military but never public safety). To me the confederate flag always meant the war flag of the south.=C2=A0We were the north that was the south.

Great political move on your part.=C2=A0I am sure everyone was afraid of riots if you didn't do this as well.=C2=A020

The thing is this will NOT solve race issues and has caused people like me to now to=C2=A0become a racist that was not one before. I will now spend most of my retirement days fighting for =C2=A0white rights!

I do=C2=A0not live in South Carolina but did at one time.=C2=A0I will do everything I can do to make sure you do not get reelected.

You sold your soul and =C2=A0body for sex which is=C2=A0what I compare what= you have done today.

Signed=20

A now white racist.

Remember . WHITE PRIDE WHITE POWER!

Governor Hailey-

While I appreciate your office's willingness to promote equal rights for all, South Carolina holds a significant place in history regarding succession from the Union. Those that fought and died for the cause should not be forgotten. I wish no harm or prejudice towards anyone, regardless of race, creed or religion but consideration should be given to replacing the Confederate Battle Standard with the "Stars and Bars", a more appropriate representation of our Southern History. And if there are equal rights for all, then consideration should be given as to why events such as "Black Bike Week" are allowed to continue at Myrtle Beach each year.

On another note, I work as an animal rescue volunteer. I can attest to you that I, along with many other volunteers, have participated in transporting hundreds of animals that come from the county animal shelters in the State of South Carolina. Marion County in particular is grossly overrun with unwanted companion animals. Local and state government need to do a better job in oversight regarding this alarming issue.

Respectfully,

Trixie [REDACTED]

I am extremely disappointed that a Southern elected official so poorly represents their state. Ordering the confederate flag down is not the will of the people in the state you so called represent. nor is it the will of the people in surrounding southern states...oh how the tides have turned as SC was the first state to secede from the union and now it's the first state to cower to political hodge podge. You should be going to your people as a whole to decide this and not jumping on the back of current political correctness just to satisfy your own will....the people are the will of the state

Nikki. It takes guts to take a step in moving a southern state away from a symbol of the south to help races come closer. It was the murder of 9 Christians that facilitated this action. Now you have an empty flagpole. It would be the perfect time to put the Christian flag on the pole to further honor the murder victims. With the war on God that the Federal government is pursuing, it would also take guts. Being a Christian yourself you know that you and your state would be blessed for taking a stand for God. Don't worry, you have backed Obama down before and this action might show him up for what he is and get his mind off his agenda for a while...lol.

Dear Governor Haley

I want you picture this. A monument that has been there since roughly 80ad. Its the Colliseum in Rome. It has been used for glorious events with pomp and circumstance. But it was also used for death and destruction. Many people died there. Christians, animals, gladiators, etc. Actually the Catholic church later had processions there. Such an iconic masterpiece was used also for death rituals as I mentioned. Should the Italians knock it down? Its been in their heritage for hundreds of years and even million sof tourists go see it everyday. I have a book on my coffee table with it. Does that make me racist or a bigot or non compassionate? We have been completely lost our marbles here in the USA as a society. We have our priorities all in the wrong places. Instead of showing day in and day out Americans coming together like the day after the shooting tragedy, almost like 9/11, we quickly had to change the topic to a flag. I am not a fan of it, but many believe its part of the southern culture, like the Colliseum in Rome. If we take away and rewrite history, good and bad, people will not know what we were about, and more important, the real reason why we came together as a nation after that tragedy. You saying the things you did doesn't heal a nation, it makes the people who actually want to change things, our American way of life, good and bad mind you, into their own world view. I disagree in the way you handled this in its entirety. Good luck with everything and God bless America!

You can not appease or compromise with liberals (race baiters, the media, democrats, moderate republicans...) because their goal is to sensor and control you. Nothing satisfies them but total submission. Even after you submit, they are not happy.

The Confederate Flag is our history and heritage. Southerners have always been independent and not easily controlled, but you have taken a step to diminish that heritage. The South Carolina people handled the tragedy beautifully, but you did not.

Thank you.

Wow. Haley signs the bill to bring down the bad evil flag.

What a great day in SC and what a fantastic liberal leader Haley is. Haley she's the best.

Yes bringing that flag down makes everything good and great in SC thanks to Nikki.

Blacks will no longer shoot blacks in SC. Blacks will no longer shoot and kill a graduating senior female attending a party.

Black men will no longer punch elderly women.

Black mobs will not walk down Charleston streets beating people, breaking peoples jar, mugging people, banging on cars breaking things and threatening citizens.

Black thugs will no longer paint and vandalize monuments in Downtown Charleston while the police and so called leaders do nothing.

Haley is good, flag bad.

Blacks go on rampage, the police, the old white Mayor and Governor Haley do nothing, but SC needs to and must bring down that ole evil flag.

NAACP good, flag bad.

Dot Scott, the leader of the Charleston chapter of the NAACP, said she had not heard anything to explain why the teens went on a rampage but was shocked by it. Shocked by it, yeh right. Let's get a bunch of male black teens together at late night party then release them and they go home and sleep in their little beds dreaming about being good and doing good things for the community and bringing that flag down.

About 60 blacks males rioted in Charleston, SC and brutally attacked random white people on Saturday night. It hardly received any press.

The perpetrators had just left a birthday party at a YWCA center in downtown Charleston. They blocked traffic.

beat on cars, mugged people, and brutally pummeling multiple random white victims. The victims even included an elderly woman.

Numerous people called 911, however the police seem to have treated the situation with kid gloves. Despite the brutality of the crimes. Only one person was arrested. Here is the link Halley if you can read, <http://conservative-headlines.com/2015/04/racially-motivated-mob-attacks-in-charleston-sc/>

Yes what a great day in SC. Now let's shut down Fort Sumter and the slave market in Downtown Charleston that is now a an open air market. You go Nikki.

Hello, I live near Aiken, SC and even with outside antenna's I can't receive good enough digital TV signal's from local station's. Instead, I have to deal with fair to mid-land signal's from Augusta, GA which is mostly for GA resident's with some added thing's for SC viewer's. I'm on disability (low income) and can't afford a decent c band satellite dish for decent TV programs or a simple outside antenna so maybe I could watch Columbia TV station's and other's better because I have to pay my bills and eat so expensive antenna's aren't an easy option at the present. I would enjoy watching all Columbia channels but, their signal's are even weaker than Augusta, GA's TV station's. Maybe one day thing's will change for the better. IF there are other options please do reply with them. Thank you for listening, Barry [REDACTED]

While I have been a faithful and proud supporter of Governor Haley, I must here state my MAJOR disappointment in her call to remove the Confederate Flag from our State House grounds without any consideration shown for the thoughts of those she serves. WHY were we deprived of our right to vote and express our opinion. After all, WE THE PEOPLE of SOUTH CAROLINA have OUR opinion and that should matter to those we elected to represent us! Instead, the media, the mob and the radical left were the only voices that the Governor and our elected officials listened to. I am ashamed of our Governor, our senators and our representatives. They had the opportunity to sight the wonderful response of the AME Church Family to the horrific crime against their membership....and the world took note of it until Governor Haley blurred their vision of the Unity that South Carolina has between whites and blacks. By removing the Confederate Flag she has taken down her own respect and that of our state not to mention the memory of the Godly men and women...white and black who gave their lives for the just cause of Succession. This was most certainly a "sad day in South Carolina!."

The press and the ignorant politically correct racist did the rest. You should have said NO! What are they coming for next Madam Governor, what?

Gov Haley, With the threatened presence of the NC KKK and other opposing "forces" I only hope that the gun ban in the capitol area will be enough...however, on tonight's news the KKK leader indicated that some will be armed for self defense.....are there provisions to shake these idiots down and disarm or arrest them as they come in? I assume that there will be a hefty LE and SWAT presence. These people should be arrested and have someone from NC pick them up and take them home.

<SUBJECT>Why does our state keep allowing outsiders to tell us how to live? Why dont you ask the voters what THEY WANT?</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

What happened to our state?

It seems every outside party that comes to this state that complains we change to law to support parties that do not live in this state..

The state should be working to help its people..not outsiders or %2 of the population.

Our state government has gotten weak..we have been told we CAN NOT have tags that say IN GOD WE TRUST because it offended a few people..we had the flag moved because it offended a 'few' people..now its getting removed again because some one went into a church and killed 9 people...Guns killed these people not the flag..lets remove guns out of peoples hands.

At one time we were proud to part of this state..we stood up for ourselves..our state government stood up for its people..now our state government rolls over EVERY TIME someone that is not a citizen of this state complains. What happened to protecting its people? Not once has our government allowed its people a right to vote on these issues..instead politicians are hurting the people in this state to do for others and try to make a political name for themselves..

Our state officials are a embarrassment to its people and shown they have not intention to do for the voters of this state..Its a sorry day and very sorry government in this state to allow these things to keep happening with voters inputs..yet they rather have outsiders to tell them want to do...

If your looking for a something to make a name for yourself..this is going to be the thing to harm your political career.

Please do research before making dumb laws that make you look dumber..its amazing our own government does not know our own state history. God must love stupid people he made alot of them and most run this state!

 <SUBJECT>AFRICAN AMERICAN MONUMENT</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Gov Haley, Let me first say that I think of you as very honest and compassionate person. I have somewhat mixed emotions about taking down the Confederate Flag. moving it from State House grounds I could agree with and giving its it own place. maybe flying outside the Confederate Museum instead of locking it away from many who are proud of their families that fought for their state and their farmland and homes. etc..Many of which never owned slaves. Why did they fight? They felt it the loyal thing to do for their "country" which had seceded from the Union. I fought in Vietnam. I did not thing the war was right thing. or was fought right. it could have ended if we cut it off from the root instead of trying to push one people out of another. I went. I fought for my "Country".

Now the 2000 compromise to move the flag from atop the State House to the Memorial area had another side. the erection of the African American monument. It shows symbols of slavery. etc..Me and 1000's of other South Carolina folks think it shoud be moved from the State House grounds. It shoud be given it own place. BUT NOT ON THE STATE HOUSE GROUNDS.

Its not a racial reaction. it is only Right. it was placed there as part of the compromise. The compromise was broken. so heal the wound of the wounded. and move it to a proper place.

Thanks

Marvin [REDACTED]

 <MSG>

Okay...so I am going to go on a soapbox for tonight. First of all, for anyone that truly knows me, you know that I am not a racist person at all. I believe that each person will be judged by One being, and that is not myself so...to each his own. I have to be judged when my time comes just the same. I hope no one is offended by this, but my First Amendment right as an American Citizen gives me the Freedom of Speech and Freedom of Expression and I am going to exercise those Rights for just a minute. If you have a problem with it, feel free to message me because I am not going to go into a bashing session on here. Now...here are my issues over recent events:

A flag does not cause someone to hate someone else no matter what one may believe that flag to stand for. And really people...grow up...there is NO ONE alive on this earth today that did anything to any of your ancestors (Black, White, Latino, or any other race), so stop blaming each other for things that went on hundreds of years ago. If the hate is in your heart, then no matter how many symbols get removed the hate will still be there...I'm sure that he looked at that flag every day and in his mind said...wow, that just makes me want to go shoot and kill people at a black church in Charleston because it makes me hate them so much...(I say that very sarcastically because I do not believe at all that the flag is why it happened). Now on the flip side to this...let's remove the African American Memorial from the State House grounds as well as any other monuments or memorials that are Ethnic based and could be offensive to others.

Since Nikki Haley thinks she has ended the hate by removing a flag, then how about doing more...like getting our homeless veterans that fought for this country off of the streets and provide for them the way they should be provided for. After all, they are the reason you have been able to have the freedom to speak your mind over this flag deal or any other protests that may come or have already come. And it really bothers me to see everyone smile so big because a piece of fabric has been removed from a flagpole, but these things all seem to be okay. That is such a huge victory. Well guess what people...there are still people of different races sleeping on the streets tonight because they have no where to go. There are still those begging for meals or dying because they can't afford a trip o the doctor. There are still white on white crimes, black on black crimes, gang wars, drug dealings, robberies, rapes...and what do any of those crimes have to do with that flag you are so proud to be having removed.

How about providing disability benefits for those that actually need it because they really cannot work due to mental, physical or emotional issues. I know way too many people getting paid "under the table" while they are collecting that monthly check from the government. I also know people that will get that attorney to just say they have this or they have that just to get them a check because they do not want to work. They would rather stay high all day/night from drugs paid for from that check they do not deserve!!! I also personally know too many people that truly cannot work because of health reasons and have been to doctor after doctor to confirm it, but yet they have to get an attorney and fight for what could be years before finally being approved. Not to mention possibly losing their homes, cars or barely scraping by just for a meal because they can't make a living or get the help they deserve and need.

And the welfare thing, let's just give handouts to those that keep having kids and not working, even though they are perfectly capable to do so. They use the food stamps to trade for drugs instead of providing for their kids (and yes I have seen this first hand with people more than once). Why are we not random drug testing them before they get that monthly assistance??? I have to be tested in order to get a job and could have a random test at any time just to keep my job.

And why should a doctor not be required to treat you with the same dignity and care as someone with high dollar insurance just because you cannot afford to have that same insurance? People are being released from hospitals with little to no care for serious issues or injuries because they don't have the insurance to cover the treatment needed and then having major problems later. This just leads to more doctor visits and medical expenses. Now, if you can't afford the "good insurance", then how in the heck are you going to afford the extra visits??? No one should be refused proper treatment for anything just because they don't have the insurance hospitals or doctors prefer you to have in order to get the treatment you need. There should be a medical oath to that nature!

I don't mean for this to be directed at everyone who receives assistance or are stay at home moms/dads or single parents that work really hard to take care of their families. I just know that I work very hard for the things that I do have and I am sick and tired of seeing my hard earned money go to support some of those that do not deserve it or are using it for the wrong reasons.

And by the way...I may be of Irish descent and German descent, and I happen to come from a very strong Confederate Ancestry, but all in all and truth be said...I am an AMERICAN and very proud of it!!!

I am who I am and it is what it is. Okay, off the soapbox and that is all. Hopefully I don't lose any friends on here over this. I sure wouldn't just delete you for having your opinion and expressing it.. Like I said, the First Amendment gives every American Citizen that right and I just chose to use mine tonight. Sorry for such an long post, but now my rant is over. Goodnight everyone :)

Ms.Haley I truly regret that the flag came down today without the people of this great state not having any say so whatsoever in the decision. It is my opinion that it should have put to a vote and let the citizens decide whether it should stay or go that's what we got to do with electing you and reelecting you which now I can say I am sorry that I voted for you. That flag did not kill any one in Charleston and never would it was a sick individual that should have to sit down in the electric chair and die for what he did. If all these people think that the violence is going stop they are wrong it will not stop until we can get labels off all of us until then we will always be grouped by race or religion. I think a good start to that would be removing the African American Monument so that there is no division between anyone. I also would like to see the names of everyone that voted for the flag to come down so I can make good decisions the next time I step up to place my votes. Marshall K [REDACTED]

I know that you have received a lot of criticism today for taking down the Confederate Flag today. I have read the things on Facebook about it. I just wanted to tell you congratulations for having the courage to do what I feel was the right thing. That flag doesn't maybe stand for hate like some people thought but it stood for the South standing up and not wanting to free the slaves which was wrong. It is wrong to enslave another human being no matter what the color. I know that there was also a lot of people there who also wanted it down. I heard the yelling during the ceremony. I also applaud you for standing out there in the blistering heat during the ceremony. I hope you didn't get too hot. I guess I was a wimp. I watched it from my cool living room. I want you to know that today I think you did a great job. I hope that this will bring our state together. At least it should take away all the boycotts. Thank you once again. I wish I could somehow meet you in person and maybe discuss things like this with you and also have the Honor of meeting you. I know that you are very busy, but do you think there is a way that it may can happen. I hope to get a response from you if you would be so kind. Once again I know that you are very busy. Thanks for your time. Sincerely: James

I know I emailed you before you signed to take the flag down asking you not remove SC heritage. try to erase her history. You feel it is a sign of hate for a minority group. who want to live in the past. Well I see the plague for the Black panthers is certainly in the present and a hate group. Why must SC lose part of it's heritage for something happened 200 yrs ago. yet a present day HATE group is allowed a plague This is so wrong. The removal of the flag has started a land slide of more hate. Now we have the whiners haters wanting the bodies of generals and THEIR WIFES DUG UP AND MOVED. sERIOUSLY?! Did you know...2012...A historic marker recognizing the local Black Panther Party was unveiled at 3 p.m. at the intersection of Martin Luther King Jr. Drive and East Fifth Street. City officials will speak. as well as former Black Party Panther members.Nelson Malloy. an early member of the party who later became member of the Winston-Salem City Council. said he never imaged the Panthers would be recognized in such an official capacity.

"But we are. in fact. part of the city's history." he said.

Dear Governor Haley.

I'm a Republican who voted for you as Governor each time you have run. Up until your leading the drive to have the Confederate flag removed from the Capitol. I was very proud of the way you have guided our state forward. You have been so instrumental in bringing industry to our state as well as guiding us in a very positive way with other issues our state has faced. And you did it with the Confederate flag flying. I personally don't feel that the so called "boycott" by the NAACP has ever really affected our state enough to even consider it as one of the reason for removing the flag. The killing of the nine people in Charleston was a very horrific crime that was done by a very sick individual that in my opinion, deserves the death penalty. But his holding the Confederate flag does not mean that everyone looks at the flag as being the cause for the killings. If he had displayed an the American flag in that photo, would we then have removed the U.S.flag from our Capitol? The flag may have affected our state a little as far as certain NCAA events being held here, but those were dependent upon the performance of our schools. Other than basketball, which really is not a super sport that a lot of people view. I don't know of many other events our state has missed out on. With all that being said, the main reason for my sending this though is to say to you...in one of your speeches made on Thursday pertaining to the flag now being officially coming down, you included in part of your speech: "the people of S.C. have spoken". THAT IS NOT TRUE !!! If the people of S.C. had spoken, we would have been given the right to VOTE on the issue which I personally feel we should have been given the right to do. And if that were the case, I feel the flag would and should, still be flying. For the SHORT term, things may settle down as far as relations go...but I would bet my life that we have not heard the last protest concerning any and everything Confederate, or pertaining to the South, being displayed, whether it be a statue, monument, school, university, street or highway name or what have you. It's not over, in fact I would say it's just begun. I certainly hope I'm wrong, but time will tell.

Sincerely,

Cecil [REDACTED]

Have e-mailed, called, text, everyone I could concerning this issue from SC to Washington DC. General consensus is that you used the 9 deaths to push the flag removal through the Senate and the House. If the people had been given the chance to vote on it you would have lost. You did it not only for your own personal gain (political), but for money hopefully for the State. Your own people have put this out, this is not a secret and you are looking like a fool. But unfortunately the racial problem that you think you have solved, is steady getting worse. I work 2 jobs I have noticed in the last week On both jobs the same attitude coming from certain people (mostly black) nitpicking, agaitina, wanting to start a problem and we have you to thank for that. You have lost my faith, trust, but mostly my vote. I am sorry that I not only voted for you, LI stuck up for you more than once, but never agin.

Bringing the flag down did not fix the hearts of hatred. They are not fixed on a flag. They are fixed on hurt and destruction. You may have made a best effort. I pray for this State and our nation that think this did anything other than incite more division. Those who used this flag in hate are wrong. It is wrong to think removing it will stop them. Peace will never come when hearts remain evil.

You have lost my vote. I cannot believe you caved to the idiot liberals and their theory that this flag somehow was responsible for the tragedy in Charleston. You were my hero for standing up to the unions and Obama care and yet you caved to the media? Very dissapointed. That flag is our heritage. Our ancestors stood up to an oppressive federal government for states rights. Yes slavery was one issue. But it was the interference of a federal system into decisions better left to the states that caused the war. This is the south. We learned manners from our mamas. That is why we didn't behave like Baltimore. And it was rude of you not to put this to the ballot for the people that elected you. Again I am so dissapointed in you. I never thought you would cave. You will find out in the next election just how unpopular your decision was. Do you really feel in your heart what you did was right? At the right time? And for the right reasons?

I would like Governor Nikki R. I would like for those properties or organizations wishing to keep the confederate flags and monuments on display, by law to become ineligible immediately for any future funding that includes any portion of tax payer funds.

CNN Blown Away By How Many Americans See Confederate Flag As Southern Pride

According to a recent public opinion poll, the majority of Americans still view the Confederate flag as a symbol of Southern pride. This is a relief, given that the media has been attempting to paint it as a symbol of racism following the Charleston shooting.

Liberals and several politicians have called for the removal of the flag from public places. The controversy began after the Charleston shooter who took the lives of nine African-Americans was scene in a picture with the flag.

Gov. Haley:

Some see the Confederate Flag as a symbol of racism and slavery. Do you know what I see as a symbol of modern-day slavery--the Lowcountry Regional Transit Authority Buses coming to Hampton County and other lowcountry counties before sunrise to pick up black men and women to transport them to Hilton Head Island to work as servants to those damn yankees who have come south to live on the Island and who condemn past slavery while they pay low wages to these poor blacks who leave home before sunrise and return home often after sundown. Of course, in Hampton County jobs have dried up but that is no excuse for the service industry on HHI to take advantage of these poor people--modern-day slavery.

Mrs. Haley Please put the stars & Bars flag issue to a state wide referendum. As you know by now 80% of the up state voters want the flag left alone .That's coming from a liberal rag The Greenville daily worker . The race baiters will not stop with the flag ..Examples Wal-Mart BMW .General Lee reruns. NASCAR . Monuments .Streets named after General Lee . . What will be next Kentucky Fried Chicken ? Water Melons ? Stand up to the race baiters . The tragic slaughter at Charleston AME has evolved into a vehicle for the liberal press & bovine waste slingers .If Obama can light the white hose in LBG colors .Let my heritage colors fly over the state house . I want to thank you for supporting the removal of the confederate flag and what it stands for. Today we use the term human trafficking as the term for slavery. Even though no one in America would want their children or family taken from them and sold into human trafficking / slavery, it is the same. The only difference may be human trafficking effects all race and not just blacks. It would be interesting if those that support the confederate flag supports human trafficking today. Please put the confederate flag in a museum as history.

Thank you.

No flag at the confederate flag at the Confederate Monument and on flag at the African American monument.

You are a disgrace to South Carolina by bowing down to one group of people. The Confederate flag was part of a history and you sold out South Carolina by getting more votes by the minorities. Taking down the Confederate flag does not immediately stop racism and terroristic acts. Just as if the American flag was removed, Americans would no longer be Americans. The Confederate flag is a symbol of our history and will not stop the hate. If you truly wish to stop hate, then stop encouraging it by doing everything just for one group of people and not all of South Carolina. There are many South Carolinians who did not want the Confederate flag removed because we understood the flag did not start the Civil War, nor did it start racism. After what you did I don't know how you can look yourself in the mirror, but when you are an intrinsic narcissistic, I guess it does not matter to a person like you. I am wondering what is next to be removed from our liberty, Confederate statues, the American Flag, personal freedom? After this debacle, I will not be voting for you and I will be telling voters in your districts to not vote for you.

Dear Ms. Haley: Your actions of the Confederate Flag just goes to show what happens when there is a person in charge who has no knowledge or feeling for the Southern Heritage. It was because of you that the set the stage for a liberal takeover of the flag argument and wound up with my heritage being dismissed as minor to the heritage of a bunch of Negroes or for that matter minor to anything else that South Carolina stands for. I sincerely hope your next election sounds like a pile of crap being flushed down the toilet.

You're obviously too stupid to be anything but a politician and know nothing of the South's history or that of the Civil War because if you did you would know that slavery was the 3rd most important issue to the South, following State's rights and citizens rights. They already saw the erosion of State sovereignty and individual's freedom in the North which continues to this day and were far more concerned about those than slavery. Today, the Confederate flag stands for individuality, freedom, a free spirit, "I live life my way" attitude and has NOTHING, NOTHING to do with slavery or racism! Stupid politically correct bitch, and all the idiots in the House & Senate that went along with this nonsense. Just Obama's little bitch, aren't you? Puppet for the New World Order. You've succeeded in one thing, assisting that Muslim traitor and coward Obama in furthering the worsening of race relations because now you've really pissed off a bunch of White people, exactly as you intended to do. I mean, you know, a flag causes a Manchurian candidate whack job crazy person to shoot Black people just like forks and spoons make people fat; cars by themselves cause car wrecks; writing a letter makes you Ernest Hemingway, and so fourth. Stupid politically correct bitch.....just part of the agenda, isn't it? We, the people promise you this, especially after your despicable performance, and that of the NBC interviewer, on the communist network NBC, your political career is dead. We are making it our lives work to remove everyone of you stupid traitors from office; via the vote, via recall, whatever means is available, and send you home to whatever you did before; go back to stealing from whomever it was you stole from before, especially you. You make us puke. How the hell did something as obscene and dumb as you become Governor of South Carolina? Wow, this State is done for....just like your political career. That IS a promise....

Governor Haley,

why did you never explain why the flag should go. the raising of the flag was done in 1962 to let 'NIGGERS' KNOW WHO CONTROLLED THIS STATE. that in itself is congressman whona hate crime. and the 4 legislatures who pushed the bill through should be potumately censored.

nobody ever complained when racist t shirts and decals were sold on the Myrtle Beach Grand Strand.i had 14 ancestors that died fighting for the Confederacy. the stars and bars became symbol of White Supemacy in the ealy60's.

why is it that you, the governor, can't give a speech reflecting these truths.

<SUBJECT>CORRUPT, BLACKMAILED, OR JUST PLAIN STUPID?</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dearest Governor Haley,

You are a prime example of either the product of the Board of Education in their quest to dumb down America or the political system working full bore in its agenda to destroy America through public corruption. Thus, quite clear and simple are you corrupt, or just plain stupid? How can you represent South Carolina when you lack any knowledge of its history? If your answer is to claim stupidity, where did you attend school? Were you taught the skewed version of the Civil War by the Board of Education? If your claim is not stupidity then you were clearly bought and paid for, or blackmailed to bring down the Confederate Flag! In either case; this action should disqualify you from holding any public office!

TIME FOR YOU TO GET AN EDUCATION ON SOUTH CAROLINA HISTORY AND THE CIVIL WAR:

THE Civil War was not about SLAVERY! As proof of this one only has to look at the facts that Lincoln attempted to author his version of the 13th amendment which proposed that "No amendment shall be made to the Constitution which will authorize or give Congress the power to abolish or interfere within any state with the domestic institutions thereof, including that a person's held to labor or service by laws of said State." Thus, why would the Southern States, South Carolina included, wish to secede from the Union over slavery? The only thing the South had to do was accept Lincoln's 13th Amendment which would have guaranteed the continuation of slavery! Hence, why would the South go to war over slavery when Lincoln was in full support of continuing slavery? To further support the issue, one can be find in the resolution passed with overwhelming support by the U.S. Congress of July 23, 1861, "The War is waged by the government of the United States not in the spirit of conquest or subjugation, nor for the purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or institutions of the states, but to defend and protect the Union." So, who is right? Is the US Congress declaration of war against the South in an attempt to force them not to secede from this federal tyranny as shown through numerous documents, or was it about slavery despite saying actually the opposite? Can you tell me of one, just one, ship that flew a Confederate Flag and was used to transport slaves? That's right you won't find one! However, you will find that many of these ships flew the: British Flag, Dutch Flag, Spanish Flag, Portuguese Flag and even our wonderful United States government Flag. Thus, if any flag of the US was associated with slavery, it was the U.S. Flag! YET, NO ONE SEEMS TO BE TRYING TO BAN THAT ARE THEY? In fact take a look at the following flag pictures and tell me which one blacks would find more offensive!

<http://ts4.mm.bing.net/th?id=JN.7MOQDrnJ5ih%2f2jiNVSFVw&pid=15.1&P=0>

<http://ts1.mm.bing.net/th?id=JN.ompvL5i0%2b68Cuuy0boyodw&pid=15.1&P=0>

<http://metrouk2.files.wordpress.com/2015/06/dylann.jpg?quality=80&strip=all&strip=all&pw=768&h=480&crop=1>

<http://ts3.mm.bing.net/th?id=JN.NnajyC0MS%2bxu9FGoWyRUeQ&pid=15.1&P=0>

By the way, can you tell that the pictures of Dylan with the Confederate Flags were photo shopped? Amazingly can you tell me who provided the photos? Would you be surprised that it was by the same person who funded the Ferguson Riots? Yes, once again this fighting between individuals, namely black and whites, is by none other than George Soros. He just happens to be the main financial power behind the SPLC, Southern Poverty Law Center that magically had these produced in less than 12 hours from the noted incident. One should also note that for a person like Dylan who supposedly hated blacks, he had many black friends on his Facebook account.

Please answer the following questions:

Explain why cops would holster their guns prior to approaching the (car door) of what is supposed to be a mass murderer.

Explain why cops would open the front door of the police car, until one cops tells another that he needs to be put into one of the back seats, then finally a back door of the car for Dylan to be placed is opened.

Explain why as heard from the conversation between the cops and dispatch that the car was actually in the location as told to them by the news agency. >> seems to be an ongoing case of news media knowing everything before it takes place.. Just like Sandy Hook, Boston Bombing and 9/11 News Media was first call to Sandy hook shooting, 9/11 news states WTC falling 20 minutes before it happens, Boston Bombing - the guy promoted to run FEMA following the event was caught on video telling everyone to stay calm that a bombing drill would be taking place in five minutes, and now the media was the one to call in the car and its whereabouts to the police - not the FBI or other federal agency... REALLY? IS ANY OF THIS REALLY BELIEVABLE TO YOU? ARE YOU SUCH A FOOL THAT YOU WILL BELIEVE ANYTHING YOUR TOLD?

See attached video

https://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=player_embedded&v=rnBPPuHrmF8

Explain why a person who is supposedly a racist and killed 9 persons due to race magically had numerous BLACK friends on his Facebook account.

Explain how magically this event just happens to take place at the same time as the South Carolina legislators are trying to pass legislation to ban and bring down the Confederate flag. I'm sorry but I don't believe in miraculous events just happening to take place when there is at the same time legislation that needs a little pushing to get accepted to pass certain legislation, just like the convenient gun legislation that was sitting ready to try and be jammed through due to the fake Sandy Hook shooting, and just like the legislation to SPY ON ALL AMERICANS AND GO INVADE IRAQ FOLLOWING GOVERNMENT INVOLVED ATTACK ON ITS OWN CITIZENS . HOW CONVENIENT THESE EVENTS SEEM TO TAKE PLACE WHEN THERE SEEMS TO BE A NUDGE TO GET ACCEPTANCE BY POLITICIANS TO PASS LEGISLATION!!!!

Explain who magically made these photos available to the public! Could it be the SPLC, Southern Poverty Law Center, which is magically backed by the same person who was paying for rioters in Ferguson. Yes, the wonderful George Soros!

Who took these photos? They weren't selfies!

Also compare the photos of the build of the person arrested verses the build of the person sitting on the car. One is 5'9" around 120-125 pounds, yet, clearly the person arrested in the car has a build of around 6' and 150-170 pounds. I would notice this first hand as I have a son who is 5'9"-5'10" and actually weighs 120-125 pounds.

Why was there no video of Dylan leaving the church?

Why was there no video of Dylan's car leaving the church and a copy of the license plate number revealed?

Why was there no Biological Hazmat Team called into clean up the horrific blood from the deaths?

Why was the church not cordoned off as a crime scene? And magically within 5 days the church is back open for services? REALLY?

Now explain who turned off the video after Dylan roof entered the church.

Next explain why someone would kill all but one! And then this contradicts that there were actually two persons that were taken to the hospital.

Next explain why magically around the same time there just happened to be an active shooter threat instructor training program being done by DHS/FEMA, just like the Boston Bombing, Sandy Hook, and even 9/11. COINCIDENCE?

Now explain why if he was truly a mass murderer would the cops take Dylan Roof out to Burger King, or even buy him a meal after arresting him depending on which story one believes, because he told them he was hungry.

Explain why someone would drive so far to do this to this specific church and legislator when there are numerous black churches closer to his home in Lexington SC.

Explain why if he had 6 months of planning, there wasn't much planning involved and magically he was arrested within 24 hours. How and who found him again? How did they know who he was, his name etc. in less than just a few hours with no license plate, no nothing other than the supposed photo? Again 6 months of planning he had no plan to change vehicles or even clothes seen at the event, nor change of hair color or even plan on money needed to eat while on the road? Likewise, that many shot at close range and no blood on his clothes? REALLY?

Last but not least:

U.S. to fast track $29 million to help Charleston shooting victims' families

Reuters ^ | June 19, 2015

WASHINGTON (Reuters) - The Justice Department will fast track the sending of $29 million to South Carolina to help families of victims of the mass murder of nine churchgoers at a historic black church in Charleston, a Justice Department spokesman said on Friday. Really, what makes their deaths worth millions, when over 40 black persons are killed per week in Chicago? If you're black and killed by a white person your family should be paid millions! Was there money fast tracked by the Justice Department to pay Kathryn Steinle's family 3.2 million for being killed by one of Barry Soetoro's illegal aliens? Why NOT? Where did the DOJ just happen to magically have 29 million dollars on hand for this event? Was anyone really killed or was everyone provided new identities and a couple million for playing their part in this Charleston production?

Now let's cover one final fact of why he would leave one black person alive to say hey, it was him and he did it because he hated blacks! Really? If one truly hated blacks he would have left a message stating as such, not fabricated by news agencies and federal agencies! He would have left a message and sure as hell wouldn't leave a black person alive if his goal was to kill blacks. Likewise, with 6 months of planning as stated, he could have went to a Sunday Service and killed a good 50-100, as his intention according to the media was to take his own life after the killings! Just not believable! Six months of planning I would easily know if there were surveillance cameras, how to disable them, and take any video evidence with me. Let us not also note that there are plenty of black churches around his own city where he lived! However, we are to believe he drove a couple hours to a church in Charleston, that mind you just happens to be conducting another DHS active shooter drill like that of sandy hook. The fact is the government needed some people killed or faked their deaths for a political agenda! Try not to kill too many or a majority of people will ask too many UNANSWERED QUESTIONS; kill too little it won't be a hard enough impact on emotions to get the legislation passed! If the goal was to kill blacks then one would have kept killing more, not just 9 then stop and flee!

Now let us look at the history and facts of slavery and the Confederate Flag. Lincoln launched his war to force the South to submit to the same taxation from the Federalists, as that of which the original 13 colonies fought to free themselves from the British rule. Next is the fact that not only had the slave trade to the New World ended in 1808; there was only a small fraction of Southerners who even owned slaves. However, since the Board of Education's inception, the United States history has been re-written numerous times and indoctrinated on the masses over decades to believe the Civil War was about SLAVERY. The truth is the North, "THE FEDERREALISTS", feared the South and their right to secede, as the North could not retain POWER without the taxes being forced on the South. Saying the South did not have the right to secede from the corruption and tyranny they saw playing out by the leaders in the Northern states is like saying that America did not have the right to secede from the British due to their government tyranny and taxation on the colonies! Lincoln in truth was a DUMB patsy for the rich elites, and when they found out that Lincoln was finally going to take a stand against them and their corrupt and illegal establishment of a system to continue taxing the Americas for the British ruling class, was when he was assassinated. Immediately following his execution the British ruling class finally attained their goal with the establishment of Washington DC and the illegal US CORPORATION of 1871. Don't take my word on it, research the Act of 1871. The civil war accomplished the agenda of the British ruling class to continue their ability to tax the American people to this given day! Yes, ever since we have continued to pay taxes to the British ruling elites. By these greedy, corrupt, and sick individuals who have never seen human beings as nothing more than "chattel to be bought, sold, and killed (culled) at their enjoyment!! If you don't believe me research it! Queen Beatrice was even found calling a majority of the population as "useless eaters" and even was quoted as stating that it was almost time for the "GREAT CULLING" to begin.

We continue to see stories leaked about these rich sycophants being involved with occults, pedophilia, and sex slave market. So again, tell me the Confederate Flag stood for SLAVERY, IT DID NOT! The Confederate Flag stood and will stand again when people awaken to the truth that it stood and stands for TAKING A STAND AGAINST OPPRESSION and TYRANNY! The Civil War was in-truth brought about by the rich elitists to ensure their establishment of illegal control over the masses, while at the same time establishing a separate court where this new CORPORATION could not be sued or held accountable to "THE PEOPLE!" These sycophants had to destroy the economy to force the others who were not compliant with their agenda to accept financial assistance by these elites for which the American colonies would be beholden to for eternity. First came the destruction of the country by enticing confrontation among races, social classes, and religious sects which was followed by construction and then in steps these same sycophants to be accepted as the great saviors of everyone from that which they had controlled to make happen unknown to the public. Next, establish funding by this ruling sycophant class to rebuild the nation through their financial assistance. Next, control those who represent the masses to ensure that all illegal laws inceptioned and pushed onto the public is for the benefit of the ruling elites. This is what we have continued to see to this day, and we just happen to rename it from instituted slavery to NATION BUILDING. We continue to see this, this very day! Every single country that these sycophants have taken control of through what is today called the (IMF) International Monetary Fund, was inceptioned by them to install complete control. We have seen this same game plan play out, time and time again, country after country, as they fall prey to these predators of what today we call the Banking System and the ruling Cabal. Amazingly look at our own illegal FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM which is not only unconstitutional but also illegal, as they had no authority to produce fake money at no cost to them and then lend it to Americans and be paid back with things of worth. This was why our country's monetary system was to be based and backed by gold and precious metals. Thus, two presidents who were going to end this illegal system were amazingly assassinated, ie both Lincoln and JF Kennedy.

Guess what two major countries these criminal sycophants have yet to control by establishing their banking system into is? If you guessed Syria and Iran you would be correct! The same two countries that the US wants destroyed!! The US has been portrayed over and over as great liberators of countries while in truth these countries have become beholden to these same banking elites who take their orders from the sycophants that the US itself has found itself beholden to. They control the laws that ensure the party system which are both controlled by these criminals through bribery, extortion, and blackmail. This is why the American people have birth certificates that are in-truth bonds of indentured servitude which are then bought and sold by one's projected worth of what they will earn over their lifetime. Check out your own birth certificate, this stuff just can't be made up! This is what the "GREAT CULLING" is all about and why the Board of Education works hard for their masters to keep the masse dumbed down! An intelligent society who has a thirst for knowledge and truth is a danger to these criminals! The masses are awakening and learning in part because of the internet and this has brought great fear to these "RULERS" as they know without the elimination of the masses to that of a controllable number their very own lives for their past and present actions (crimes against humanity) are endangered by an enlightened masses. This is why now they have their pawns in Congress and the Senate working hard at taking control of the INTERNET, as they already control the propaganda media which is owned in its entirety by only six families. That's right all the media print and visual in the US is controlled by only 6 families!

One last issue that must be addressed on the issue of the Confederate Flag and the issue of slavery is the statistics of slavery. The NORTH had 20-33% of all slaves in the US from 1861-1865, and despite the end of the Civil War the north continued to own slaves until the 1880's. In truth the slave trade was ended in 1808 but it was the invention of the cotton gin and other agriculture technical improvements that brought about the end of slavery as it was cheaper not to house and feed 100 slaves to do a job that could now be done with a handful of paid persons (seasonally) and equipment. This is what today is known as the cost-benefit factor of doing business. Thus, if the Civil War was about the north fighting to free the slaves then why were there even slaves in the North? Next, why did over 300,000 slaves fight for the south during the Civil War? Let us not also forget that 2% of the slave market was in-fact owned by other blacks and that back in Africa tribes and even tribal leaders from the same tribe were capturing those they feared would relinquish them from their ruling class and selling them to the slave traders at huge profits to them (the blacks of Africa) ie..they were bought and sold by their own race! Likewise, nearing the end of the war when Lincoln decided to try and push through the 13th amendment that everyone points to is a joke on his real stance and beliefs (read his own leaders between himself and leaders of other countries). When Lincoln introduced this legislation many Northern soldiers deserted the battlefield. Likewise, known fact is that the Emancipation proclamation only freed slaves owned by the South, not slaves owned by those in the North. There is even the fact that a year into the war, President Lincoln wrote a letter to the New York Tribune stating, "If I could save the Union without freeing any slave, I would do it; and if I could save it by freeing all the slaves, I would do it; and if I could save it by freeing some and leaving others alone, I would also do that." Lincoln also was a lifelong advocate of sending every last black person in the U.S. back to Africa, Haiti, or Central America; just as long as it was anywhere but in the United States.

According to the U.S. census, in South Carolina in 1830, about a fourth of the NEGRO slave masters owned 10 or more slaves. Likewise, according to economic historian Stanley Engerman, "In Charleston, South Carolina about 42 percent of free blacks owned slaves in 1850, and about 64 percent of these slaveholders were women." Greed, in other words, was gender-blind. As more proof that blacks were every bit entwined with the buying and selling of slaves one only needs to read William Ellison's fascinating story as told by Michael Johnson and James L. Roark in their book, Black Masters: A Free Family of Color in the Old South. At his death on the eve of the Civil War, Ellison was wealthier than nine out of 10 white people in South Carolina. He was born in 1790 as a slave on a plantation in the Fairfield District of the state, far up country from Charleston. In 1816, at the age of 26, he bought his own freedom, and soon bought his wife and their child. In 1822, he opened his own cotton gin, and soon became quite wealthy. By his death in 1860, he owned 900 acres of land and 63 slaves. Thomas J. Pressly, using Woodson's statistics, calculated that 54 (or about 1 percent) of these black slave owners in 1830 owned between 20 and 84 slaves; 172 (about 4 percent) owned between 10 to 19 slaves; and 3,550 (about 94 percent) each owned between 1 and 9 slaves. Crucially, 42 percent owned just one slave. By the 1850's blacks owned 2% of all the slaves in the South as shown by the Census Bureau. Pressly also shows that the percentage of free black slave owners as the total number of free black heads of families was quite high in several states, namely 43 percent in South Carolina, 40 percent in Louisiana, 26 percent in Mississippi, 25 percent in Alabama and 20 percent in Georgia. That's right 43% of all freed blacks in South Carolina owned slaves themselves.

IN 1861 THERE WAS 15 SLAVE STATES
 OF THE 15 - 11 WERE SOUTHERN
 4 WERE NORTHERN

SOUTHERN STATES HAD:

TOTAL POPULATION: 9,132,173
 TOTAL # OF SLAVES: 3,521,125
 NUMBER OF FAMILIES: 1,033,898
 TOTAL FREE POPULATION: 5,611,048
 TOTAL NUMBER OF SLAVE HOLDERS: 316,638
 PERCENT OF FAMILIES OWNING SLAVES: 30.63%
 SLAVES AS A PERCENT OF POPULATION: 38.56%

NORTHERN STATES HAD:

TOTAL POPULATION: 22,051,409
TOTAL # OF SLAVES: 858,802
NUMBER OF FAMILIES: 4,121,530
TOTAL FREE POPULATION: 21,192,607
TOTAL NUMBER OF SLAVE HOLDERS: 67,335
PERCENT OF FAMILIES OWNING SLAVES: 1.64%
SLAVES AS A PERCENT OF POPULATION: 3.9%

TOTAL NUMBER OF SLAVES 1861-1865: 4,379,927
6,333 OF SOUTHERN SLAVES OWNERS WERE
THEY THEMSELVES (BLACK)

ONLY IN THE SOUTH WERE BLACKS ALLOWED
TO OWN OTHER BLACKS

316,638 - 6,333 = 310,305 WHITE SLAVE OWNERS IN THE
SOUTH
TOTAL WHITE SLAVE HOLDERS: 377,640
PERCENTAGE OF SLAVE HOLDERS WHO WERE BLACK: 2%
PERCENTAGE OF SLAVE HOLDERS IN THE SOUTH: 80.17%
PERCENTAGE OF SLAVE HOLDERS IN THE NORTH: 17.83%

04 NORTHERN STATES = 4.4575% EACH OF TOTAL SLAVE POPULATION
11 SOUTHERN STATES = 7.2882% EACH OF TOTAL SLAVE POPULATION

Thus, accordingly the North had 20% of the slave market according to the stats I used which were conservative. Other stats dictate that as much as 30% of all slaves were owned by the North and that 5% of all slaves were owned by other African Americans. If the north was so against slavery why did they not immediately free their slaves?

Why did many blacks fight on behalf of the Confederacy if it was about slavery?

So as we can see the premise that the Confederate Flag represents slavery is totally in error. In fact one can make the inference that the flag that represented slavery was the US flag; as it was this flag that flew on many US maritime ships that transported the slaves during the slave trade!

So again I find the premise or even hypothesis of the Confederate Flag to represent hatred and slavery of blacks completely erroneous.

Now that we have established facts, not emotion but FACTS, and numerous unanswered questions that anyone with half a brain would want to have knowledge about prior to making a brash unsubstantiated decision on in referencing the removal of a symbol of heritage, and not to mention its historical importance in the fight against tyranny from public viewing/display. Thus, one is left to ask "were you dumbed down through the board of education and their indoctrination propaganda, or are you just corrupt and getting paid off or blackmailed into your chosen action?"

My daddy always said "If you believe everything, you'll fall for anything!"

Start with facts and base an action on truth and fully answered questions rather than on emotions!

By the way I myself am from Washington State originally and have taken up residence in the South for the last 20 + years after leaving military service where I worked as an Intelligence Analyst, so I guess I would be considered a Yankee! Also of note I am neither a Republican nor a Democrat as I find them both to be the same party for the rich and corporations, not to mention the thief of civil liberties!

I patiently await your answers to my questions. Likewise, these answers or lack of answers to them will be made available to the propaganda media, Main Stream Media, and numerous internet sites that focus on disseminating truth and real facts to the public.

I thank you for your time and assistance on learning how one could turn their back on the heritage of the South and its fight against tyranny! If you can prove and even answer these questions fully then I would gladly admit publicly that I was wrong about you either being just plain stupid or corrupt for your action taken against your own state and heritage! However, if you cannot then my assumption must stand as correct! In either case if found incompetent on the knowledge of Southern History, or just plain corrupt, both should call for your immediate removal from office, as you have either proven yourself incompetent or too corrupt to truly represent "The People" of all colors in an honest way!

Your Excellency,

Having grown up in New York, I do not have a historical background regarding the Confederate flag outside what is in print. Nor am I as passionate as some. Please read this coming from a neutral constituent. Your decision to remove the flag in my opinion is politics at the highest level and is reprehensible. Your decision has changed history and confirmed that the Confederate flag stands for hate. This is incorrect. Historically the flag stood for freedom from an over reaching and powerful Federal government.

Next, the American flag (Stars & Stripes) has flown over ALL atrocities of our young nation. First, the Native Americans (you know all too well) were led to reservations (some of the worst land in the union) under this flag. The heinous acts towards the surrendering Confederate soldiers and Southern Citizens including murder and rape were conducted under this flag. The tyranny conducted in the Philippines and Cuba during the Spanish American War was conducted under this flag. During WWII the Japanese were placed in Concentration Camps under this flag. African Americans were treated (some would say) worse under this flag until the 60's. The invasion of Afghanistan (yes, they had nothing to do with 9/11) was under this flag. Today, the first amendment is being destroyed under this flag.

Why do you continue to fly it?

PS

I love what our Founding Fathers stood for and the American ideology. I will continue to fight for this ideology. The Stars and Stripes does not mirror their conviction or this ideology. I have removed my flag. I ask that you do the same as it is offensive (that is all it took for you to remove the Confederate flag).

PPS

You no longer have my vote.

"Furl the Flag" is Anthem for Confederate Flag Removal

COLUMBIA, SC - A new song unveiled July 4 calls for the Confederate flag to be lowered on the grounds of the South Carolina state house. Titled "Furl the Flag", it is the first anthem to arise out of the heated controversy over the divisive Civil War symbol that has been brewing for decades.

The song was co-written by two authors from the Carolinas -- Michael Butler, a public relations consultant in Charlotte, North Carolina, and Larry Farina, creative services director for a Columbia, South Carolina, radio station. They first collaborated on the tune nearly 20 years ago in 1996 during the fierce debate that led to the Confederate flag being taken off the Capitol dome and moved to street level on the state house grounds in Columbia.

"After the latest tragedy in Charleston and renewed debate about the flag, Larry and I revisited the words and melody we originally wrote in the late '90s" Butler said. "We personally support removal of the flag from the state house grounds just as we did then. We hope this song will resonate with the public and help inspire decision makers to do something about it."

Recorded last week at a Nashville sound studio by recording artist Ronnie Kimball, the song recounts the heritage of the Civil War and ends with a visit by a mother and her son to the South Carolina state capitol where they view the flag. The chorus implores:

Furl the Flag
Furl the Flag
Don't Fuel the Fire
Don't you think it's time
We all live free.

Farina said the song carries a powerful message and the symbolism of putting it on YouTube on July 4 is unmistakable.

"It's the day we celebrate the freedom we have as Americans," he said. "That freedom extends to everyone who calls America home. We wanted to do our part to make people stop and think."

About the flag's emotional impact, one verse of the song asks plaintively:

Will we feel the pride of men
Who fought for their right?
Or when we look at that old flag
Will it shut out Freedom's light?

The song can be heard now on YouTube at <http://ow.ly/Pbmho://ow.ly/Pbmho> Look for it on iTunes within the next few days.

The Flag Came Down

By Franklin [REDACTED]

7/11/2015

The flag came down, an old way of life, from the capital grounds, to quell some of the strife of nine poor souls, too soon heaven sent, by a troubled young man with a mind anger bent.

The crowd that gathered were at least two of mind, when regarding the flag, they were not hard to find.
 To some a symbol of slavery, to some to honor the lost in a terrible war with a terrible cost

The flag was for battle in that terrible war
 The men gathered 'round it, that's what it was for.
 They fought for each other; that's what war's all about
 When the bullets start flying, there's never a doubt.

They thought not of hatred and they thought not of slaves, as the bullets struck home and they went to their graves.
They followed the flag and it pulled them along
It was all about war, not about right or wrong.

The years have degraded what the flag represents;
men ill, and hungry and living in tents.
With the flag there to lead them, that's what it was for,
a great battle flag in a terrible war.

Politicians in power must not over-react and remove all the remnants of confederate fact.
Don't remove all the monuments to the south of that war
They're for the soldiers who fought it, not the cause it was for.

If you tear down the monuments, because of slavery and race,
Go out, find a soldier, slap him in the face.
You've said he means nothing to you and to me.
We care nothing about him in the land of the free.

Take care how you build on the flag coming down
The water gets deeper; we could easily drown
We can't hide our history; it's there and it's fact.
The new history we make, made by how we react.

<SUBJECT>Confederate Battle Flag</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

You, and the people of your state, are certainly receiving a lot of comment, from "outsiders", about what to do with the so-called "Confederate Battle Flag" which currently flies on the grounds of your State Capitol; and having lived in Massachusetts for all of my life and having visited your state only once (in November of 2012), I certainly qualify as such. However, I feel that, sometimes, an outsider's point of view can be helpful, due to being further removed from the issue at hand; and it is in that spirit which I write today.

I will be the first to acknowledge that the people of "the South" have much of which to be proud; and I feel that many of those who fly one of the versions of the Confederate flag do so not out of racism or a nostalgia for the days of the Confederacy. However, when I look at those flags, I am reminded of the limited definition of treason which is contained in Article III, Section 3 of the U.S. Constitution, and remember that the people who flew those flags in the 1860s were either levying war against the United States, or were giving aid and comfort to those who were. I also recall that the more recent use of those flags came about because of opposition to the concept of full civil rights for some of our citizens; and the use of the flag today recalls that painful era in America's history.

It seems to me that, with all of the talent which can be easily found in any Southern state, someone can come up with an alternative to the Confederate flag as a means of expressing their pride in being from the South. Perhaps, for example, a "Confederate flag" with the stars removed and with an escutcheon symbolizing Southern heritage, could take its place. At any rate, in my opinion, the various versions of the Confederate flag serve only to divide Americans, not unite them; and as a Northerner who respects the people of the South and appreciates its natural wonders, and wishes to get to know both better during my upcoming years of retirement, it is time for the Confederate flag to take its rightful place in our museums, since for better or worse, it is a part of American history (which is why, when I teach my Boy Scouts the history of the American flag, I include a full set of Confederate flags in my lesson).

Very truly yours,

Jon [REDACTED]

I understand your decision to remove the Battle Flag will be made shortly. I would like to post my opinion as a taxpayer. Many lives were lost fighting for the rights to fly this flag, on both sides of the war. The flag does not separate people any more than guns kill people. People separate themselves and guns don't kill, people kill. The individual who went into the church in Charleston and shot those innocent people was a tragedy, however, he is a sick individual to even think of doing such a thing. We have that in all races. There are racists of all colors, although you only hear of one side anymore. The police officers cannot even do their job for fear of being called racists. If you take the flag, what is next? The US Flag? Is there any end to this insanity? I have felt prejudice against by the black race. If this flag is racist, isn't the NAACP racist? Both blacks and whites have lost their lives fighting for this country. This is part of our history. Please consider the thoughts of many people that are not heard when deciding the future of the Battle Flag.

The Flag

The Flag

Key word HISTORY

I do not look at that flag and see only missory

I look at that flag and see the strength of the south

I look at that flag and see an Amazeing army

I look at that flag and see half of a contry

whos decendants still fight for our contry today

I see every of slaves freed

whos army almost won and to never let that happen again to humanity

or to split our contry

I Look at that flag and see the strength of the south, their stubborness and inginuity where now where we stand TODAY, every decendant of a slave owner and Slave can even stand freely next to me

call me a "Racist BITCH for my beliefs" based on the color of my skin, not my families and that would be because of their / your ignorance for many in my family faught for slaves to be free my great great grand uncle got shot in the head, his sons died running our country fighting for PEOPLE to be free then together hold hands regardless of color than bitch about the government free to do that and free to disagree

I Look at that confederate flag and will walk my family, neicees and nephews under it of mix race
proudly
and teach that part of history
I will teach the strength of the south north an amazeing American army
whos tactics and stradigies freed millions of jews people over seas
I look at that flag and only see Americas wonderful however colorful but key word History
love ME

When I first moved here 3 1/2 years ago, I looked up to you as a symbol of America, of Republican strength and wisdom. Today I have my doubts. Taking the flag away won't stop bigotry and hatred and won't stop a lunatic's bullet. All it did was spur calls by the left for further desecration of symbols of America and America's history. Now they want to destroy George Washington and the American flag. They even removed it from Fort Sumter, like the good little Stalinists that they are. You can never placate these people. You can never please these people. They want to destroy American history and to replace it with a socialist utopia. All you succeeded in doing was open a can of political worms that will all be blamed on the Republicans, the only group left that really cares about America. So from a political standpoint what I thought at first was a brilliant move, turned out to be a terrible disaster. From the social standpoint, I know that many black Americans see this flag as a symbol of the KKK and worse. But that flag was never intended and never used for that when it was created. It was the battle flag of the Army of Northern Virginia. For many white Americans and many white Southern Americans it is the symbol of their ancestor's bravery and gallantry in a lost cause. The South was devastated by the armies of the Union that that flag fought against. It lost 25% of its young men, its cities were burned, its railroads and factories destroyed and its farms pillaged. It took over 100 years to recover. Those black people that want the flag down for what they see as good reasons on their part will never vote for you, because they vote over 95% Democrat. Besides, they are only 20% of the population of South Carolina. And those white Southerners who now feel you are taking away their heritage have been alienated. All you did was give fuel to the fire for all the hate America lefties that seem to be out there in endless numbers. Far from being a Vice Presidential choice, I believe you severely damaged your efforts to be re-elected governor. I certainly know that if given a choice of another Republican, I will have to seriously consider that person. Your actions were emotional and not thought out and it seems, very counter-productive.

I love Governor Haley to pieces. Wish she was our Governor! But I strongly disagree w/her stance on Confederate Flag. It does not represent racism/hatred, it represents your history, the thousands of lives lost defending their beliefs in the civil war. You are letting your political sense overcome your commonsense. This should be a matter of principle & pride for your history in the civil war. Common Core is already taking apart our complete history, Mr Obama, congress and the Supreme Ct are rewriting the Constitution, now you and all lawmakers in the south are wiping away a part of your history. I live in Oregon, but I will be flying a Confederate Flag as soon as it gets here(on backorder) right next to my American Flag on our 20' flag pole. On 7/4 a group of young high school kids got together to demonstrate support for YOUR flag. Why are you refusing to defend it? Because one racist, bigoted, deranged idiot decided to commit a horrific act...Governor...all I can really say is SHAME ON YOU! What side will you stand on when the left starts in on the American Flag? & you know they will.It is time for you to stand up to the lefts political pressure & stand up for history. They won't even show reruns of The Dukes of Hazard for crying out loud! The left is winning & conservatism & common sense are losing. STAND UP!!!!!! Brenda [REDACTED], OR

<SUBJECT>From a Proud South Carolinian and US Soldier regarding the Flag</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

My family have given you their votes for as long as I can remember. Unfortunately for myself, I won't be able to continue the tradition given the recent events. I have never been so ashamed to say I'm from South Carolina, yet alone this once great country. The problem isn't just a flag. The United States of America is a weakened nation today because the amazing state of South Carolina, the state that has so strongly risen up to tyranny, with an unarguable sense of liberty the first to declare independence from a Tyrant 3000 miles away, the first to take up arms against northern aggression 300 miles away, has a leader who most South Carolinian have voted for on multiple occasions, that is now too, a fallen victim to political correctness. Stepping away from over dramatic historical jargon, I'd also like to point out that you're one of the very few Republicans to be praised in the history of CNN. That alone, should tell you so much in a negative way. I am so disappointed in you. I chose to serve over attending college because I felt a sense of duty to protect the freedoms that South Carolinian's live out every day. But you stripped those freedoms. You did exactly what the POTUS, not to mention the SCOTUS has and have been doing and that the whole of South Carolina has been crying out for help from you for. You signed a bill and passed it along to politicians. Politicians want votes. They want to be politically correct. You have a bachelors from Clemson, you've served since 1998, you are smart enough to know this was not a decision to be decided by others within the political atmosphere of South Carolina. This decision, at its heart, should have been decided by the South Carolinian people. I felt so strongly you would keep the flag flying proudly over the Confederate Memorial like it should have been. Right next to the African American

Memorial that the purpose of is literally to remind South Carolinians of slavery, yet it apparently doesn't offend. I'm from the heart of Charleston and have never thought of going anywhere else after the service until now. My ancestors have never lived anywhere north of the Mason Dixon line since their arrival from England, and some from Ireland (As slaves, I might add) since the late 1690's. And even with such southern heritage and pride for what they've done and fought for, I have never even owned a T shirt with a Southern Cross on it. I've never felt the need to. My state was strong. My South Carolina flew it proudly as a symbol of our unending resolve and to show that we do things the way we want to. To me that flag was recognizing that, as a state, no man sitting in a priceless mansion 478 miles away from our capitol could own us. But I'm not so sure anymore. Yes, I'm a conservative, but the world will always change. There's good progress and bad progress. Bad progress is removing a flag because it symbolizes racism to an uneducated sector of people. (I believe over 94% of those that voted to remove the flag on a major petition website were from out of state, too.) Good progress is a complete overhaul on historical education regarding South Carolina in public schools, that highlights events in our history from all sides of conflict and all walks of life. Today you chose bad progress. You'll probably never give this a second glance, but I feel as if I wouldn't be doing my duty as a South Carolinian if I didn't express my despair at the events of today. And to think, a ceremony you nobly chose the honor guard to partake in, you allowed a crowd to scream and yell at something that should be silent, and the flag was rolled up like a beach towel. I believe you stomped on the graves of at least 16,000 South Carolinian's (Provost Marshal James Fry study 1866) who died defending the Palmetto state from 1861-1865

Dear Governor,

I am 74 years of age, you are young enough to be my daughter. You are about to make a serious mistake in removal of our history and heritage because of some madman who made another mistake in taking a moment of miscalculation and taking it out on innocent Christian people which the Confederate flag was never made for. The Confederate flag was made to protect Yankee soldiers from being massacred getting its flag confused in battle with ours and un-necessarily killed. The flag incorporates the St. Andrews Cross a sign of Christianity. The only people trying to take this flag down do not know their history as the fight was over over taxation and States rights as told in the 10th Amendment still in use but not followed by the Supreme Court. Please do not make hasty decisions on innocent people and the future of our schools which may be renamed and statutes removed. I graduated from Robt. E. Lee H.S. and Lee College this is about to give me a heart attack. Please re-consider. Racism will be alive in crazed people even if you remove that sign of Southern Pride. Sincerely,

Herbert J. [REDACTED]

Ma'am,

Could you please explain this flag thing.

1: Your flag was taken from the Virginian Battle flag not the Confederate flag. The CSA flag was called the stars and bars and had 13 stars 2 red and 1 white stripe. That was used till 1863 when the war was all but over.

2: If it is true and I don't doubt my source, would you go on TV and tell the world about the ELLIS family and their part in the Civil War.

Dear Governor:

First thank you for your e mail response of last week--even though I am not a citizen of South Carolina..It was appreciated.

I just want to give you a my perspective of the last few days regarding the flag issue, Realizing full well that the immediate problem was that of South Carolina's. However, being a son of the South, who, incidently, served over 20 years in the U.S. Army (1962 to 1982), did want to send this to you. This subject will definitely spill over into the other 10 southern states that's for sure.

I think that your legislature and you, yourself, acted too hastily by removing the flag. A much better approach and one that would have been positive for all concerned would have been to erect a monument at the base of the pole which read, the flags flying here are the flags that South Carolina is governed by or was governed by: Top flag: USA; next: State Flag next: Confederate Flag next: Union Jack

By doing this you would have kept the historical aspects of this in perspective; but the legislature nor you did---you guys just caved in to another, what I consider racist element in society, the NAACP, but virtue of their title, they exclude whites, American Indians, Asians--to me that is racist.

Oh by the way so you don't get the wrong idea, my niece is married to a black man and has 4 beautiful children---I am not racist---the most important man I my life after mygrandpa was a black Army Lieutenant Colonel/then full colonel who taught me more than you will ever know.

Perhaps when things calm down, you guys may rethink this and re-fly it with the others that I suggested. It's your call, and an election year, which is in 2016, can be brutal....

Very respectfully,

Chuck [REDACTED]

<SUBJECT>Removal of the confederate battle flag</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

I find it disapointing to see so called republicans give in to the racial arsonists on the left by wrongfully vilifying the confederate battle flag. This is an American flag and an important part of a turbulent part of history. Over 600,000 AMERICANS died in the civil war, many fought for the confederacy. This was a war over succession, states soverienty and most who fought for the confederacy did not own slaves. The battle flag is not a flag of oppression, racism or slavery and it had nothing to do with the hateful racist murderer who took the lives of innocents at the Mother Emanuel Church in Charleston. You should have defended this flag for the important history that it represents and to honor memory of the thousands of honorable men who died fighting for it. It is regrettable but you have been had.
