

From: Andrea Amato <andrea.amato@americanbar.org>
To: Kester, Tonykester@aging.sc.gov
Date: 8/10/2016 10:54:37 AM
Subject: Sneak Peek of Bifocal: Medical-Legal Partnerships

---

Dear Subscriber:

As a subscriber to Bifocal, e-Journal of the ABA Commission on Law and Aging, you are being sent this sneak peek of an article from the August 2016 issue.

Sneak Peek

Medical-Legal Partnerships: Six Situations in Which Elder Law Attorneys and Physicians Caring for Older Patients Need Each Other
by Marshall B. Kapp, Shenifa M. Taite, and Gregory Turner

There are many situations in which an older person needs the services of both an attorney and a physician and communication and collaboration between members of those two professions would be highly advantageous to the older patient/client's well-being.

CLE and Events

Save $100--register before 8/26 for the 2016 National Aging and Law Conference! View the detailed Conference Program by visiting: www.ambar.org/NALC and stay in the loop by following: @NtlAgingLawConf.

To subscribe to Bifocal or to submit news items or a manuscript for consideration, contact editor Andrea Amato.

Bifocal is distributed six times a year to state and regional elder bar section and committee officers and members, legal services providers, elder law and other private practitioners, judges, court staff, advocates, policymakers, law schools and elder law clinics, law libraries, and to other professionals in the law and aging networks.

The mission of the ABA Commission on Law and Aging is to strengthen and secure the legal rights, dignity, autonomy, quality of life, and quality of care of elders. It carries out this mission through research, policy development, technical assistance, advocacy, education, and training on a wide range of law-related issues, including: legal services to older persons; health and long-term care; housing; professional ethical issues; Social Security, Medicare, Medicaid, and other public benefit programs; guardianship; elder abuse; health care decision-making; pain management and end-of-life care; dispute resolution; and court-related needs of older persons.

---

Your e-mail address will only be used within the ABA. We do not sell or rent e-mail addresses.

Update
your profile

Manage your email
preferences

Unsubscribe Privacy Policy Contact Us

American Bar Association | 321 N Clark, Chicago, IL 60654-7598 | 800-285-2221 |
312-988-5522