Questions and Discussions From Caregivers

Q: Last night Mom punched one of the employees at her nursing home. Is this normal?

She has dementia and is often paranoid. I can't believe she did it.

Q: I'm falling apart having to deal with questions from my mom that have already been answered.

Mom went home from a SNF last week and needs 24/7 care. She calls constantly to tell me she does not want a caregiver. There is no way to answer or reason with her.

Q: If my mother wants me to move in and care for her, but I don't want payment, am I a roommate or a caregiver?

If no money is exchanged and we are living together, do I need a contract that explains my status?

Q: Can my son change my banking information?

He is legally POA, but I still want to do my own banking.
