

From: Marion Edmonds <medmonds@scprt.com>
To:
Date: 6/7/2016 4:27:18 PM
Subject: Daily Press Clippings: Tuesday, June 07, 2016

Daily Press Clippings: Tuesday, June 07, 2016

The U.S. National Hurricane Center says the center of Colin has moved into the Atlantic
Reuters / NYT

New grant could improve Myrtle Beach sidewalks

<http://wbtw.com/2016/06/07/improvements-could-be-made-to-myrtle-beach-sidewalks/>

Fred Sheheen, former commissioner of the state Commission on Higher education has died in an auto accident. Sheheen is the father of current state Sen. Vincent Sheheen.

WIS-TV ; AP / New York Times

Despite Gov. Haley's objections, 331 kilograms of plutonium from Japan has arrived at the Savannah River Site

The Aiken Standard ; AP / New York Times

Wallet Hub has ranked SC's economy 27th of all 50 states and the District of Columbia

WSPA-TV

The Electric Cooperatives of South Carolina announced an initiative that will add solar installations up to 250,000 watts each

Associated Press / Charlotte Observer

Magic Johnson establishes endowment at S.C. State

The Orangeburg Times and Democrat

USC trustee Charles Williams was fined $75,000 for trapping and shooting red-tailed hawks, after pleading guilty

The State

The US Department of Labor has provided the SC Technical College System a $200,000 grant to promote youth apprenticeship programs including tourism

Charleston Regional Business Journal

Next year's spending plan for the Charleston County Aviation Authority is expected to climb almost 20 percent

The Post and Courier

Marion Edmonds

medmonds@scprt.com