Media Advisory: House Opioid Study Committee to Hold Public Hearing in North Charleston

Will receive testimony from invited speakers and welcomes public participation

(Columbia, SC) – The House Opioid Abuse Prevention Study Committee that House Speaker Jay Lucas (District 65-Darlington) appointed in April will hold a public hearing on Wednesday, August 16, 2017, in North Charleston, SC.

WHO: The House Opioid Abuse Prevention Study Committee is tasked with developing recommendations identifying preventive measures and increasing treatment and recovery options to better protect South Carolinians from opioid abuse.

WHAT: The House Opioid Abuse Prevention Study Committee will hold a public hearing in North Charleston, SC, to hear public testimony regarding personal experiences and the impact of the opioid epidemic. After the invited guests have concluded, members of the public will also be given the opportunity to address the Study Committee (see additional information).*

WHEN: Wednesday, August 16, 2017 from 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

WHERE: Trident Technical College, 7000 Rivers Avenue, Building 920, College Center, North Charleston, SC 29406

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Members of the public who wish to provide testimony are welcome to attend and sign in upon arrival. If the two hour time limit expires before an individual has the opportunity to give his/her remarks, written testimony can be submitted for review to OpioidStudy@schouse.gov. The House Opioid Abuse Prevention Study Committee has provided a framework for testimony that can be found here.
