Subject: Re: Extradition Inquiry

Haley - As for us, our response to the extradition question will be the same (see below). However, DSS may have more information as it relates to the child support issue; check with the agency and let us know its response.

The extradition process requires that a formal written request from a prosecutor be sent to the Governor for a requisition for the return of a fugitive from another state. The application for extradition must be prepared by the prosecutor responsible for trying the charges in South Carolina. We recommend that you refer [constituent] to a prosecutor with jurisdiction over the matter.

Subject: Extradition Inquiry

Haley:

Please see the below emails from Rep. Murrell Smith and his constituent, Pamela Kendrick. As discussed, he asked that I inquire regarding a potential Extradition order regarding alimony payments from her ex-husband. Rep. Smith understands that the response will likely be the same in regard to our previous request.

I have asked Ms. Kendrick to provide any additional information she may have, and will share whatever she sends.

Thank you for your help with this and everything else. You're the best!

Sincerely,
Ryan

This is a constituent of mine. Can you contact DSS and/or The Governor's office for assistance. Pam will clarify if this is Child Support and/or alimony that her ex husband has a bench warrant outstanding. Thanks

Thank you for helping me with the SC Dept of Revenue Tax Levy. I am paying payments every month, which works out better.

I have another problem, which I hope you can help me with. I am divorced. My husband is under a bench warrant. I can find out where he is, and let the police know to pick him up. I tried that right after Christmas, but the police said that they found the NCIC bench warrant. But they said that they could not pick him up because there is no extradition. He can only be picked up in SC, and he is in Vero Beach, FL. Please see what you can do to help me. He has not paid support in 3 years. Thank you very much!
