We are proud to announce, Christian Spoerl, of Troop 290, Roosevelt District of the Cradle of Liberty Council of the Boy Scouts of America, has achieved the rank of Eagle Scout. Christian is a senior at Roman Catholic High School, Philadelphia, PA. He plans to continue his education at either Temple University in Philadelphia or Emerson College in Boston, to study for a career in either music, journalism, communications, film making or a combination of the subjects

Christian will be recognized at an Eagle Scout Court of Honor on October 9, 2016. The ceremony will begin with the Troop attending the 12:30 pm Mass to be held at St. Cecilia Church, 535 Rhawn St, Philadelphia, PA, 19111. The formal presentation will be held after mass, in the school auditorium at St. Cecilia's.

Eagle Project: Organized the design and building of a Spirit Garden at the Sisters of the Holy Redeemer Mother House, blue stone patio with benches. The Spirit Garden is a memorial to the Sisters who have passed away.

Christian is the son of Chris and Kathy Spoerl, 8008 Palmetto St., Philadelphia, PA 19111

Would you please be so kind as to send a letter acknowledging his achievement?

All letters and certificates received for Christian will be paced in a binder, presented to the Eagle Scout and displayed for the guests at the Eagle Scout Court of Honor.

Please send them in care of the following address. Thank you for helping acknowledge this very worthy scout. I can be reached at 215-663-8731 evenings or email below, with any questions. If you prefer not to receive future requests or prefer to be contacted by email, please let us know by reply to the below email address. Thank you

Sincerely,

Troop Committee
