Please join the Lieutenant Governor's Office on Aging on October 2nd at 10am for an interactive webinar on strategies for engaging seniors in our communities. Mount Pleasant Police Chief Carl Ritchie will discuss initiatives in his department that keep seniors in touch and allow officers to detect problems early. Alex Cataldo from SLED will review the Silver Alert program in South Carolina, and viewers will be encouraged to join the conversation through the chat capability. Please visit the link below on October 2nd to participate as we share information to help law enforcement keep our seniors safe across South Carolina.
