I will reach out to Coretta to see if they have any plans for media coverage and go from there.

We want to do this, and it seems to me to fit best as something on the way in to town, but y'all decide. It definitely needs media

Darryl,

Here are the details for the ribbon cutting ceremony I mentioned this morning.

- Saturday, June 24th – time to be determined – willing to move ceremony to the afternoon if Lt. Governor can attend.
- Facility name is Hope Bridge (adult day program)
- Location is 3532 Leaphart Road, West Columbia, SC
- Business owner is Barbara Wright who owns three other adult day programs in Lexington county.
- This is an adult day program that provides a health care component; Mrs. Wright serves clients from DDSN and CLTC as well as private pay clients.

She would like for the Lt. Governor to cut the ribbon for her grand opening.

Please let me know if you need any other information.

Thanks,

Coretta
