South Carolina State Parks

at 12:40:15 on 8/27/2020 UTC · 🌐

This beautiful yet eerie photo was taken by park visitor Rosalie Vetter at the Barnette Cemetery located in Croft State Park. Croft is one of our largest parks at over 7,000 acres. The Barnette Cemetery is just one of many cemeteries located on the park. The cemeteries remain from some of the 250 homestead families that were on the land before this land was taken by eminent domain to create a World War II training base. Jeannie Wright Gibbs Mark Evans Keene The Cemetery is on the right side of the road coming into the park. It's right on the side of the road. It has a sign that says Barnette. There is also a Lee Cemetery on the same road.
