

From: Civic Research Institute <info@civicresearchinstitute.com>
To: Kester, Tonykester@aging.sc.gov
Date: 8/24/2015 10:36:00 AM
Subject: Domestic Violence, Abuse, and Child Custody

Having trouble viewing? View Web Version here. To receive emails from Civic Research Institute in the future, add us to your address book.

"Wyatt Garcia was born in April 2009. Nine months later, he was shot and killed by his father, who then turned the gun on himself. It might have turned out differently—if a family-court judge had listened to Wyatt's mother. "—
R. Dianne Bartlow, *Ms. Magazine

Domestic Violence, Abuse, and Child Custody Legal Strategies and Policy Issues

Edited By Mo Therese Hannah, Ph.D. and Barry Goldstein, J.D.

704 pp. Paperbound Edition
1-887554-84-8 $89.95

Also available in original casebound
leather edition ISBN 1-887554-76-9
$149.95 © MMX

If you have ever been dumbfounded by a custody decision that favored a clearly abusive father over the rights of a victimized mother and have wondered how you could help right a terrible wrong—this important book is an absolutely essential reference for you and for the protective mothers who come to you for help. It distills the best thinking of advocacy and legal experts, persuasive social science research, successful legal strategies, and compelling personal accounts from those at the front lines working to bring justice to families victimized by abuse.

Order Form

Order Domestic Violence, Abuse, and Child Custody today—and share it with your advocacy team and the protective mothers who need your help now:

Catalog Page

Table of Contents

"Domestic Violence, Abuse, and Child Custody is a must-read for any mother involved in a child custody battle, and especially for mothers trying get free from an abusive relationship.
"— R. Dianne Bartlow, Ms. Magazine Blog

- What indicators of domestic violence and child abuse are common in contested child custody cases?
- Why do abusive men seek custody of their children?
- When representing a battered mother, how should you present allegations of domestic violence or child abuse to the court?
- What are the social, political, and legal factors that can result in a child's being ordered to live with an abusive parent?
- What does the research say about the effects on children of witnessing domestic violence? Of being legally separated from a protective mother?
- What is the proper role of law guardians or attorneys for the minor in custody cases?
- Why have accusations of "parental alienation" become so commonly used against protective mothers? How should attorneys for battered mothers respond?
- What policies and practices can family courts put into place in order to protect children from an abusive parent?

"Meticulously researched and cited, so the findings have the greatest credibility. We believe this new book can be used to change the broken custody court system." —Rita Smith, Executive Director, National Coalition Against Domestic Violence (NCADV)

"This book serves as a beacon of light to all those who have become jaundiced by the malfunctioning family court, social services, law guardian, and mental health system." —Amy Neustein, Ph.D., Co-

Author of From Madness to Mutiny: Why Mothers Are Running from the Family Courts and What Can Be Done About It

Full Table of Contents and Order Form

Civic Research Institute, Inc. 4478 Route 27 Ste 202 Kingston NJ 08528
Subscriber Services: 609-683-4450 info@civicresearchinstitute.com

Click here to unsubscribe.